Mr. David McAuley

David M. McAuley, our very affable Clerk of the Board of Education, has been a resident of Bay Village for 17 years. He graduated from West High School of Cleveland, and received his degrees at Baldwin University and the Cleveland Law School. He is a member of the Bar Association. He has consistently shown an interest in civic affairs and has at all times striven for the best for Bay Village.

Largely through his efforts the Bay Presbyterian Church was organized. He served as a conscientious member of the Park Board when the Cahoon Memorial Park was in its infancy, and through his and fellow members' efforts, the community became convinced that under proper management an undertaking of this kind could be self-supporting. Mr. McAuley was one of the chief movers in the organization of The Community Club.

He was elected to the Board of Education on Dec. 14, 1918, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. R. K. Caulk. He served as a member until Nov., 1920, resigning to spend the winter in Florida. Mr. McAuley was elected Clerk of the Board of Education on Jan. 7, 1924. On Aug. 1st., 1926, he assumed the duties of a full time Clerk.

Board of Education

W. C. Myers	-----	President
Florence E. Whitney	-----	Vice-President
Dr. W. E. Culp	J. P. Latimer	William Serne

It is thru the intelligent foresight and understanding on the part of the Bay Village Board of Education that Parkview high school is a school of the first grade and one which has been admitted to membership in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The board has proved to be most co-operative and sympathetic with the academic side of school administration, and at no time has it been deemed the function of the board to dictate academic policies.

Recognizing the importance of careful business management in the handling of public funds, the board two years ago appointed a full-time man, Mr. D. M. McAuley, to act as business manager. This was done as an economy-measure and has since proved the wisdom of the action.

Junior Class

We, the juniors of Parkview high school, started out on the train of Progress, September 12, 1927, bound for the town most commonly known as Senior.

Upon leaving our station, called home, we were helped with our baggage and with directions by our chain of guards called teachers. After traveling several days we became quite settled, but were soon much disturbed by the news that we were approaching English, a small town a great distance from home and very seldom heard of there. Being stopped by the switch of Physics, which was always turned against us, we got a leave of absence until some of the class who were mechanics could turn the switch in our favor. Some members of the class wandered into the settlement of little France just on the outskirts of English, and here they became quite interested in the French language and began to study it quite vigorously.

The rest of us decided to go into the village and inspect some of the largest buildings and places of interest. The first large building

Sophomore Class

Activities of the Sophomore class are numerous. Throughout the year they have edited the Arc-Light—the school paper. Janet Kramer has been editor-in-chief; Mildred Rudd, feature editor; Maude Phillips, news editor; John Corlett, sport editor; Jean Sutliff, dramatic editor; Juanita Carlin, literary editor; and Clinton Latimer, utility man.

They are an active group of boys and girls, having membership in numerous organizations that are connected with the school—Social Problems Club, Glee Clubs, Orchestra, and Dramatics.

John Corlett, Kenneth Black, Mildred Rudd, and Maude Phillips were the sophomores on the debate teams.

The class was represented in football by John Corlett, who also distinguished himself by gaining a place on the varsity basketball team.

The Sophomore class colors are emerald green and white. The class has given but one party during the course of the year, because they are too busy upholding the scholarship of the school. And, by the way, it is whispered that these juniors of 1928-'29 will have no trouble in filling the role of Juniors quite efficiently.

Third row:—Albert Schafer, Elmer Siringer, Nelson Russ, Marvel E. Sebert.
 First row:—Walter Toeller, John Fuller, Earl Siebenhaar, Elizabeth Hume, Melvin Tiedt, Freida Landau, Clintie Winfrey, Alma Studeny, Luther Sadler.

The Freshman Class

These freshmen are not lacking in school spirit. During this school year their class has had members in football, basketball, track, debate, glee clubs and orchestra.

Nelson Russ and Donald Latimer were two of the boys who helped us to our football championship.

Ward Powell, Robert Jennings, Albert Schafer, Russel Ferkin, Paul White and Don Latimer played basketball on the second team. Nelson Russ was one of the varsity quintet. Elizabeth Hume and Clintie Winfrey worked dilligently keeping their debate team undefeated.

“Rusty” Toeller deserves mention as a peppy cheer-leader.

Freshmen social activities have been limited to one party. This was a masquerade Hallowe’en party.

The class officers are John Fuller, president; Nelson Russ, vice-president; Albert Schafer, secretary; Walter Toeller, treasurer.

Miss Marvel Sebert is the freshman home room teacher.

Third Row:—Doyle Harris, Robert Troyan, Roland Kidwell, Donald Duperow, Charles Bennett, Wm. Serne, Sumner Mensforth, Carlton Gaines.
 Second Row:—Miss Helen Fetzer (Teacher), Isobell France, Betty Ferster, Clara Atkinson, Dorothy Haller, Jane Phillips, Ruth Morgan.
 First Row:—Marian Toeller, Gertrude Leferink, Dorothy Branoner, Winifred Wilhelmy, Elaine Wuebker, Carol Phillips, Erma Jenner.

The Eighth Grade

The Eighth Grade had two parties this term. A masquerade was given at the home of Clara Atkinson, Hallowe'en. In November the class had a fox and goose hunt, ending with a picnic supper.

This class has contributed to all the assemblies that have been required. One of the entertainments was "The Ballad of Mary Jane," a shadow pantomime.

In basketball they have both a girls' and boys' team. The girls' team won the junior high championship.

Three of the girls, Ruth Morgan, Isabell France and Betty Ferster, are studying music appreciation.

Four new members entered the class this year, Winifred Wilhelm, Isabell France, Sumner Mensforth and Charles Bennet.

With a fair amount of favor from the faculty they will become freshies next year.

First Row:—Lawrence Haller, Merton Colohan, William Young, Robert Johnston, Rolan Mitchell, Robert McAuley, James Rogers, Donald Osterland, James Heims, Herbert Young.

Second Row:—Robt. Biddlingmeyer, Evelyn Weijert, Willanette Ruetz, Doris Roberts, Margaret Kolda, Virginia Drake, Carolyn McAuley, Marion Bloomfield, Ellen Schafer.

Seventh Grade

This class can boast of pupils who have distinguished themselves on several occasions this year.

In the course of the year they were permitted to have several parties, and they did their part on the Assembly Programs.

So well pleased are some of the members with the seventh grade, that, teachers consenting, they will remain in it another year.

The Seventh Grade are an active group, having membership in numerous organizations that are connected with the school—Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, and Junior Dramatic Club.

This class has the members; it has the spirit for the various activities; and it is hoped that they will improve in their effort spent upon their studies, as they grow greater in athletics, clubs, and the like. It is on the members of lower classes like this one that the school must depend for its future successes.

Football

By winning every game our football aggregation took the County championship cup for class B.

In the four county games Bay scored 44 points to their opponents' 2 points. Independence made it impossible for us to whitewash all opposition this past season.

The first game of the season was played in our own backyard. We there trounced Independence, last year's champions, 14 to 2.

Our next victim was Solon, and they had to be satisfied with a 12 to 0 trimming handed to them on their field.

The Olmsted game followed. It was a neck and neck affair until the third quarter. Then a west wind helped us to gain our touchdown and the only score of the game. Olmsted fought desperately to the final whistle.

Strongsville came next and last. They were determined to upset the dope and defeat us. But the Bay lads said "We can't lose now." Strongsville went home on the short end of a 13 to 0 score. This season was the most successful of any season so far. It was the first championship that Bay Village has won. But then let us remember that the senior high school is only four years old and but two years in competition.

Basketball

Opening the season on the home floor, Bay Village lost to the fast Berea quintet by the score 23—15. This was our only adversity of the regular schedule. Berea went through to the semi-finals in the State Tournament.

Olmsted came next. They had an excellent team and were out to revenge the football defeat. "Preach" and "Wally," due to scholastic neglect, were out of this game. Therefore, it was a close and hard fought contest, from which we finally emerged the victor by one point, 30—29. If not the best, this was one of the best and most exciting games ever played on the Bay floor.

Dope was dead against Bay when we met Dover. But the dope bucket had been spilled before and it certainly spilled over this time. We trounced them to the tune of 46 to 25.

Parma followed. They owed us for a defeat which we presented them last year. They started out well towards a settlement but melted like an icicle during a thaw. Ensley and Russ began sinking shots from all angles of the floor and Parma was forced to yield. Score Bay 34, Parma 21.

Bay was thinking of a trimming they received at Royalton last year when they traveled there this time. But they returned happy, feeling that it is Royalston's worry until next year. The score was 39—9 for Bay.

Brecksville was next on our list and Bay had little trouble downing them by a 39 to 12 count. The Junior High (ninth grade) team played this game.

For our last game on the County Schedule this season we met Strongsville at Strongsville. To win this game meant a better ranking for Strongsville; but to lose it would be a mar on our record. It was fast, hard fought and what is often times referred to as a little rough. Strongsville kept the pace for the first half. But during the final half we met expectations. The score was 43—25 for us.

The tournament at Brush high school was the next place of basketball interest. Solon, who defeated Bay in the first round last year, was beaten this time by us by 8 points in the first game.

In the second round we drew Parma, but had little trouble disposing of them 33—21.

We then drew the fast Garfield Heights quintet. We were not their match and went under 38 to 22, putting us out of the run for first place. We received the fourth place rating.

The Team:

Captain Robert Ensley was our best bet at forward. By being an accurate shot he put many games in the bag for Bay.

Carl Wuebker was our center and a good one, indeed. He was to the team what gasoline is to the automobile. He was a fast player and a good passer. He will be lost to the school thru graduation.

Edward Schafer was Carl's understudy and played a very good game of basketball when given a chance to play. He also graduates.

Girls' Basketball

Despite the fact that girls' basketball was not inter-scholastic this year, the girls of Parkview High were not deprived of the pleasures of the game. Miss Sebert coached the girls.

Class teams were organized and played against each other every Tuesday after school, the regular time for practice. In these games the junior class was victor of the junior and senior high teams. The eighth grade came out on top in the junior high games.

A team from the different grades was picked by Miss Sebert to play the Alumni. The school team won 21 to 10.

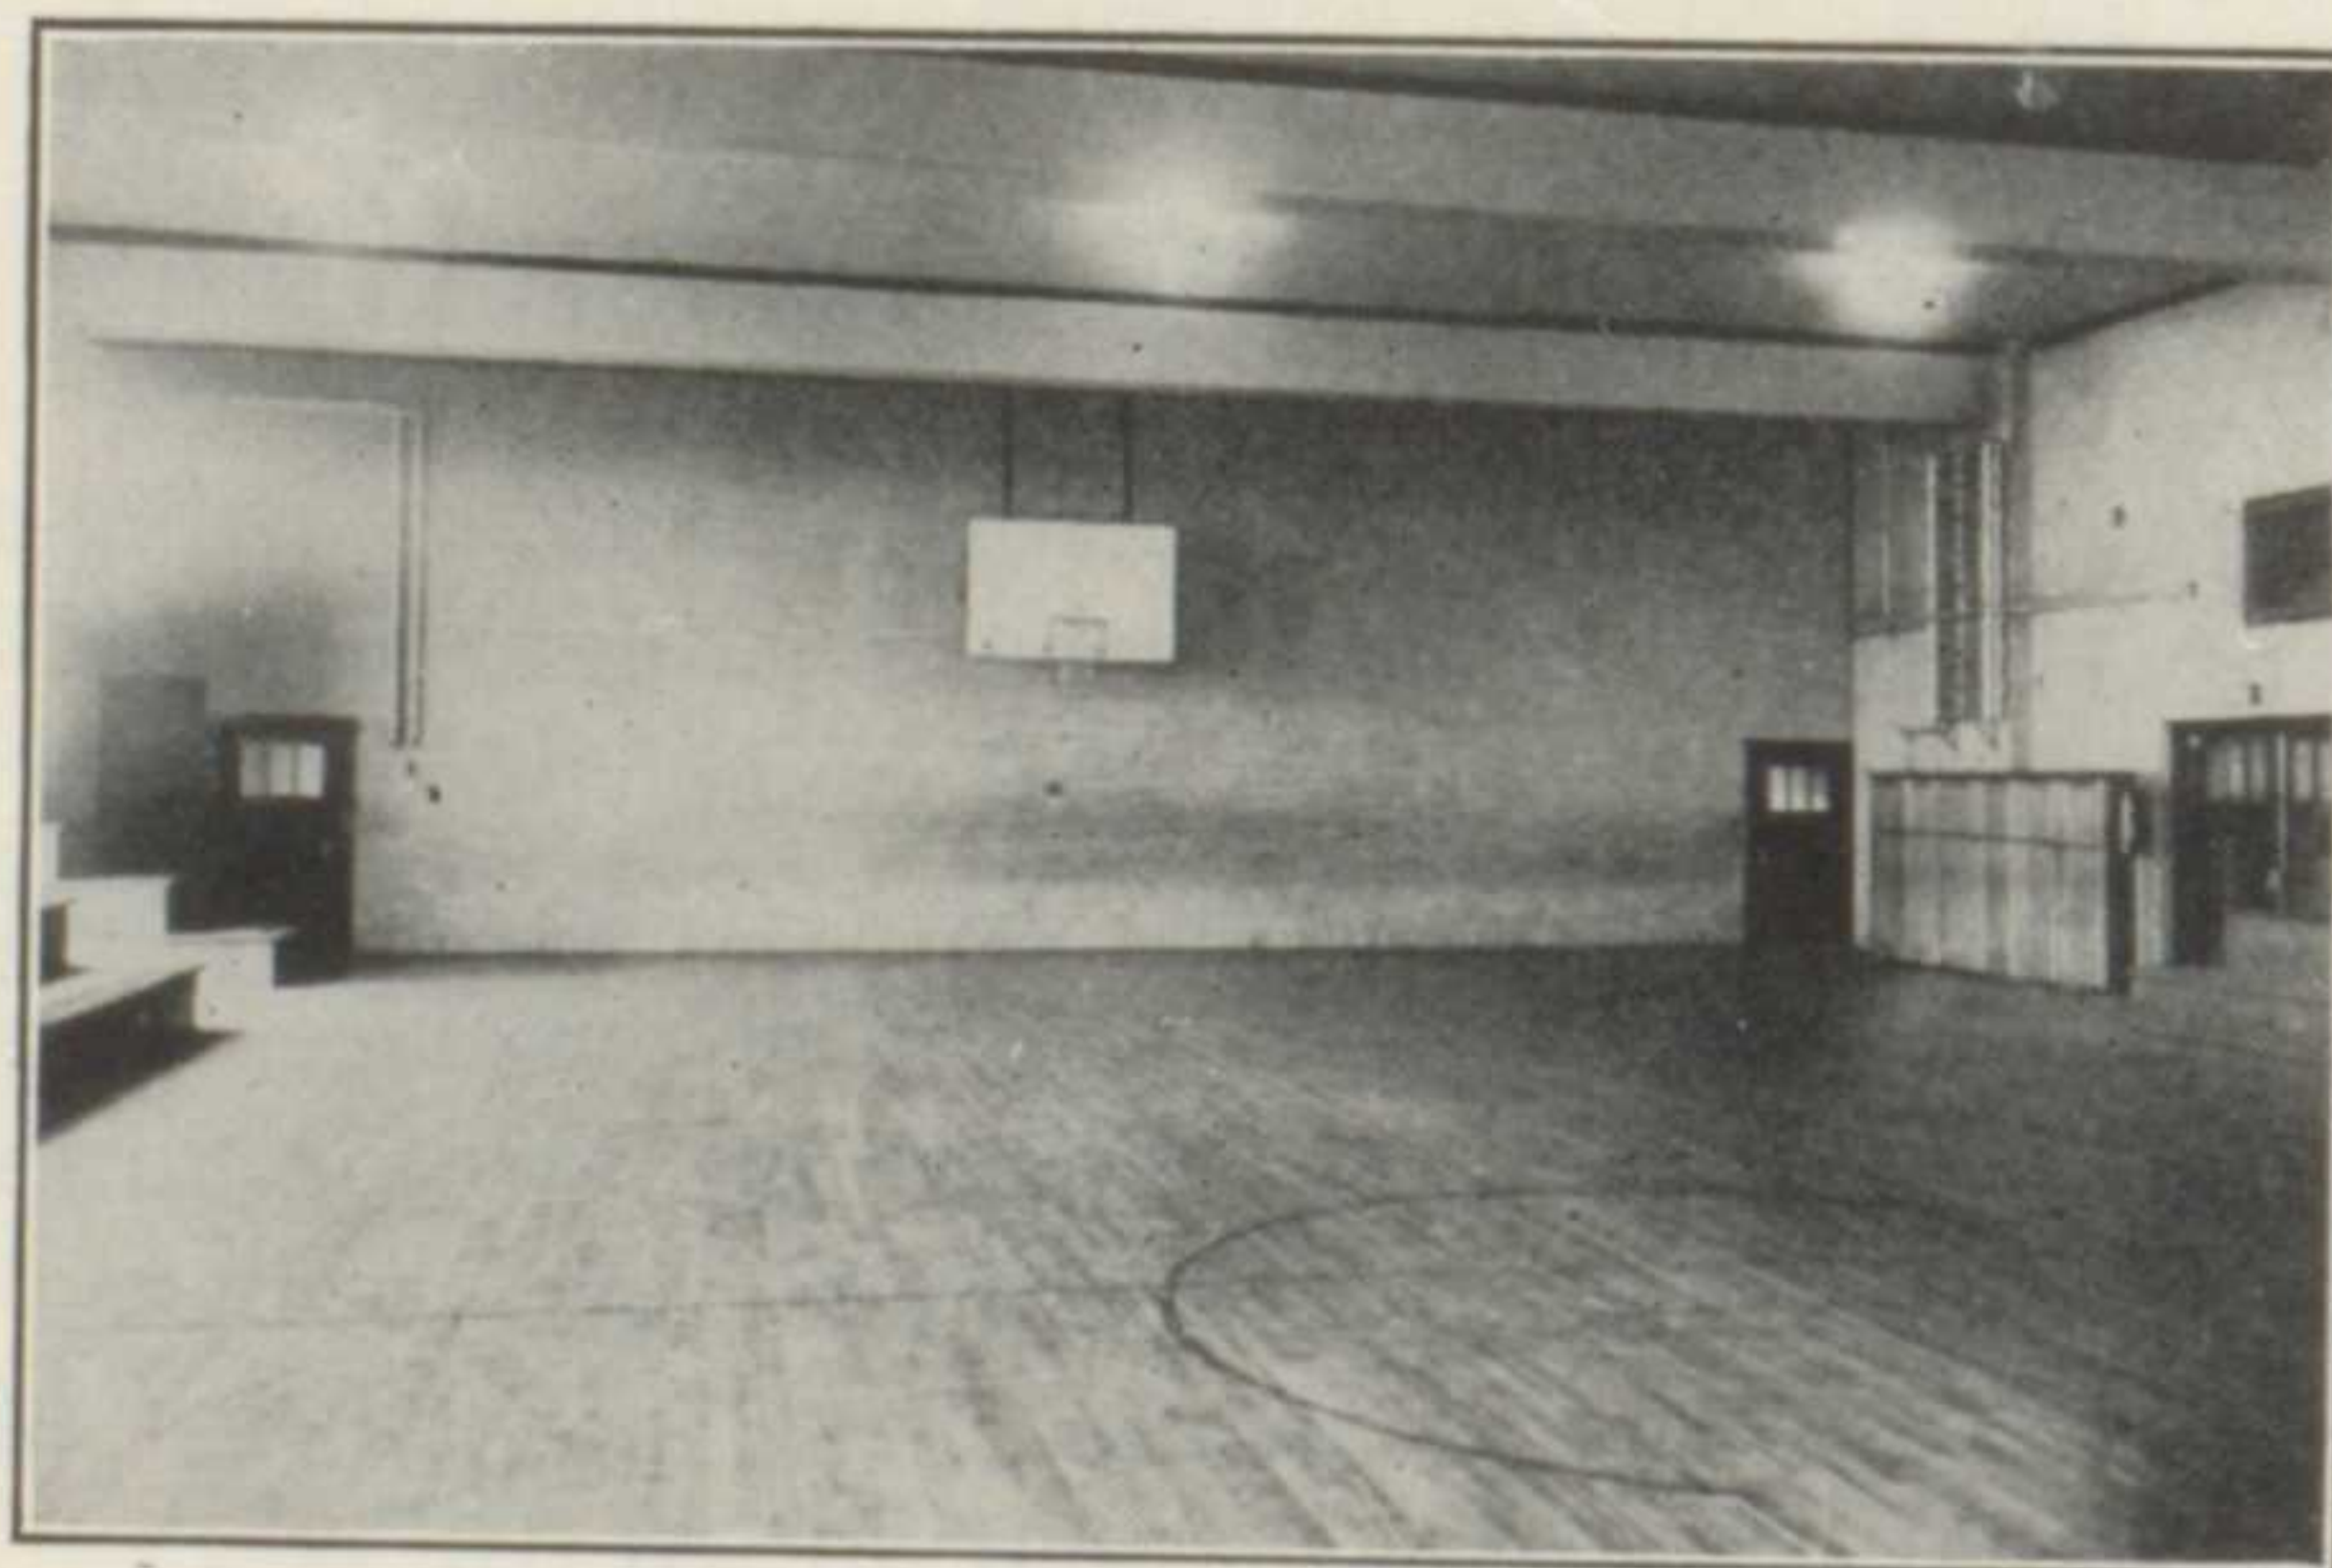

Although basketball wasn't greeted with as much enthusiasm by the girls this year, the players turned out for practice faithfully each Tuesday.

Debate

Betty Hursh, Maude Phillips, Betty Stubbs, Kenneth Black and Gordon Chamberlain were members of the Affirmative Team, while Mildred Rudd, Clintie Winfrey, Elizabeth Hume, John Corlett and Robert Ensley were members of the Negative Team.

The question was: "Resolved, that the Direct Primary for the nomination of officials for public offices, should be abolished in Ohio."

The Negative Team defeated Independence on the Independence platform in the first contest, and Solon, on the home platform in the second contest. The Affirmative Team defeated Strongsville on the home platform, but lost to Brooklyn Heights in the second round at Brooklyn Heights.

Our debating took a step forward this year. More and better work was done, and more victories were recorded.

Altho three of our best debaters—Betty Hursh, Robert Ensley and Gordon Chamberlain—will graduate, there is hope for next year because this is the usual number to leave the teams. Our problem will be to develop equally as effective speakers to fill their places. With the experience of this year to guide us, there seems every reason to believe that the debate teams will be strong contenders for a cup next season.

Senior High Dramatic Club

Robert Ensley ----- President
 Carl Wuebker ----- Secretary and Treasurer
 Miss E. Swartwout ----- Faculty Advisor

The big thing the Dramatic Club did this year was to give the three-act comedy, "Come Out of the Kitchen." A large crowd rewarded the efforts of the club. Besides the gaining of experience in stage presence, the club made some money, and plans to purchase some necessary equipment for the school stage.

Junior High Dramatic Club

Of course these young artists expected to get some fun out of their work, but at the same time they aimed to prepare themselves for senior high dramatics. Although it was the first organization of its type at this school, Miss E. Engle, who coached the club, believes that it has been quite successful. They have given a couple creditable productions in assembly. At this writing they are working on a play, "The Wrong Mummy," which they hope to give before the close of school.

The Girls' Glee Club met the last period on Tuesdays, while the Boys' Glee Club met the last period on Thursdays.

On March second the Girls' Glee Club aided the Dramatic Club by singing between the acts of "Come Out of the Kitchen."

The big thing accomplished this year by both Glee Clubs was the giving of the Spanish operetta "The Toreadors," on April thirteenth. It has been the custom to give an operetta each year. Ability was shown in singing, and in imitating sunny Spain. The serenades and quaint, brightly colored costumes were appreciated, and Senor Swateo and Senor Whackeo kept the audience well amused.

The Glee Clubs will furnish some music for Commencement, on May twenty-fourth, as they did last year.

The Library

There has not been as large a number of books added to the school library this year as last. In stead, there has been more attention given to magazines. A goodly number of magazines have been on the table. There are now magazine binders for them. Thus they do not show the effects of hard usage as our magazines have in the past years. The school library has also borrowed a large number of books from the library of Dover-by-the-Lake.

The members of the Library Staff this year were: Helen Hille, Rose Landeau, Jeanne Stubbs, Henry Gavie and Flint Kline. Their duty was to check out books during the study periods.

Miss M. Sebert is head-librarian.

The Arc-Light Staff

The Arc-Light, the school paper published by the pupils of the Senior High School, has furnished a wonderful opportunity for practice of journalism, both from the standpoint of editing and business.

The business staff has proven their ability to solicit advertising and obtain subscriptions so that the paper may be published every two weeks.

The editing of the paper has been done mostly by the tenth grade, but many interesting items have been contributed from the pupils at large. The editors have been very anxious that school news which would be of interest to the people of the community be written and published in a neat and attractive manner. All school functions are announced two to four weeks in advance so that people of the community may be able to attend. The staff as a whole agree that this has been a very successful and enjoyable enterprise.

Social Problems Club

Carl Wuebker	-----	President
Walter Myers	-----	Vice-President
Mildred Rudd	-----	Secretary and Treasurer
Edward Schafer	-----	Sargeant-at-arms
Mr. G. L. Ganyard	-----	Faculty Advisor

This club, with Mr. Ganyard as faculty advisor, aims to benefit the school, to promote civic interest and to better the community.

The twenty-five members make a study of and discuss school, local and world problems.

From the very first meeting members have shown a lively interest in the discussions.

The club, feeling that there should be an annual this year, organized an annual board which has been responsible for the editing and publishing of this annual.

They have discussed and considered many problems for which they have not arrived at a suitable treatment. Important among these are: Students returning library books to racks and placing the books properly, and students loitering in halls between classes. Of this many members of the club dread consideration. Action seems to hope for the better. The Junior boys being permitted to the Hi-Y room at noon, was partly a result from action on the part of this club.

Bay Village Hi-Y Club

“To create, maintain, and extend through school and community high standards of christian character,” is our purpose.

The club was formed in January, 1926, by Walter Myers, president; Ed Schafer, vice-president; Lorry Culp, Gordon Chamberlain, Carl Wuebker, and Mr. H. J. Chapman, faculty advisor.

In the fall of 1926 the club increased to twelve, and, though some were lost because of graduation, the present enrollment is thirteen fellows and our faculty advisor.

The club has been entertained by the Lakewood Hi-Y, Cleveland Y, and the K-Shun Club. We have also enjoyed monthly suppers, a party given the K-Shun Club, and other similar activities.

The Club meets Tuesday afternoons from 3:30 to 4:30, to take care of club business and to discuss social problems.

This is absolutely not a fraternal organization. It's work is to study every-day problems and in that way to make the school and community better.

Second Row:—Elizabeth H. Swartwout, Velma Aldrich, Grace Proeschel, Elinor Kline, Mary Powell.
 Center:—Betty Stubbs, Bessie Chamberlain, Cora Serne.
 First Row:—Mary Saddler, Betty Hursh, Margaret Smith, Jeanne Stubbs.

K--Shun

	1st semester	2nd semester
President-----	Velma Aldrich	Mary Powell
Secretary-----	Rose Landeau	Ellen Salter
Treasurer-----	Mary Saddler	Elinor Kline
Faculty Advisor-----	Miss Elizabeth Swartwout

The K—Shun was organized as a discussion club for junior and senior girls with Miss Swartwout as faculty advisor. The purpose of the Club is “to broaden and enlighten us in our social and intellectual lives.”

The K—Shun, however, does not have discussions alone but tries to do some good. At Thanksgiving and Christmas they took some baskets of food and toys to poor families. Of course they also have good times, as their record of parties, hikes and roasts show.

The Orchestra

The Orchestra at present is a rather varied group, comprising members from the six upper classes. The string section is at present rather overbalanced by the wind section, but it is hoped that more violins will be added in the future. One forty-five minute rehearsal a week is held.

The Orchestra has supplied music between acts for the plays, operetta, debates, and such school functions.

The instruments of the orchestra are four violins, one clarinet, one trumpet, two saxophones, and piano.

Piano	-----	Margaret Smith
		Helen Conant
Violins	-----	Raymond Dorn
		Henry Gavie
		George Serb
Clarinet	-----	Donald DuPerow
Trumpet	-----	Robert McAuley
Saxophones	-----	Lorry Culp, William Blaha
Director	-----	Miss Sackett

Camp Fire Girls

At the present time the To-He-Ha. Campfire group has twelve members. During the year the girls have been working on their membership tests and some on their Woodgathers test. The guardian of the group is Miss Sackett, and the present officers are:

Willanette Ruetz, president; Eleanor Myers, treasurer; Betty Hoag, secretary and scribe.

we approached proved to be a hospital. The inmates were imitating great people of history such as Napoleon. Upon asking some native how these folks had got into such a bad state, we were told that it was due to the fact that they had been forced to study Modern History while in high school.

Just a small way from here we came to the City Hall of Sociology, which was just next to the factory of Economics. Here we were shown the machines of industry and their relation to our social status.

By this time the mechanics had managed to get the switch replaced and we were called back to the train. We again started on our way and proceeded without trouble. Surely, if we continue in this way we shall arrive at our destination without any serious mishap and shall have much knowledge at our disposal and, it may even be, a little of wisdom.

School Calendar

September:

18. School convened (Betty Hoag giggled her first school giggle.)
20. Down to business.
27. School speeding up (Betty Hoag giggles again. Elinor Myers and Isabel France join in the chorus).
28. Pep meeting.
29. Defeated Independence in football.

October:

5. Skating pond improved.
7. Big snow storm—Solon snowed under by Mahlerites.
12. Debate work started.
14. Mr. Griffith had a hair cut—tried a different barber.
18. Sophomore challenged seniors to a spelldown.
27. Sophomore defeated seniors in a spelldown.
28. Football game with Strongsville (another victory).
31. Hallowe'en (proved a flop. Too many police badges).

November:

3. Cold game with Parma.
6. Donald Bain program in Chapel.
15. Forestview School opened.
24. Thanksgiving—Hurrah for the Eats.
25. Double issue of the Arc-Light (more Emerson).
29. Stunt assembly day.

December:

2. Debate with Strongsville and Independence (won both debates).

Senior Class Poem

To a school by the side of a friendly old road,
We've tramped, and tramped to the last.
And now at the end of Parkview Lane,
We drop down and dream back the past.

Four long years of work, work, work,
With four short years of fun.
But tonight all our troubles flash out like big bubbles,
Tomorrow's a glowing red sun.

The trail we are leaving behind us here,
Is really not peppered with sin.
Just here and there youth's foolish dare,
Some credits we did not win.

A turn in our path is just ahead,
And beyond are hills to climb.
But the '28 class with a smile and a dash
Will push to the head of the line.

Now tonight there's a promise we'll share with you.
We want you to carry it home
And tuck it away under memories' sway,
We'll keep it where e'er we roam.

Whether good or ill may come our way,
Whether fortune smiles or frowns,
With a strength you have fostered for our life's game,
We'll step up, up, up, never down.

—Elinor Kline.

Class History

Along about twelve centuries ago a small group of young people (very young) made up their minds that they were old enough to look into the mystery of the thing called education. They centered at a small red brick building at Stop 30 on the Lake Shore Electric R. R. (more likely it was the Lake Shore Horse-Power Line) but at any rate it was Stop 30. Well do I remember that first day (I wasn't there—but "why bring that up?"). There were five in the class. They were the charter members. The first day was very nearly the climax of our school life. I can remember that our first task was to write a complete translation from Latin to English of Milton's "Paradise Lost." Every one had writer's cramp after the first five and a half hours, but we stayed it out at all events. After a time we had a little harder work, such as the A, B, C's, and as I remember it, the 1's and the 2's in the times tables. (We didn't know that they were the multiplication tables until the fifth grade). I guess this was all we learned that first year except that we could make some marks on paper to indicate that we had a fair knowledge of what the alphabet looked like when written. At last vacation came. It seemed as though I had spent the greater part of my life in that one grade.

The vacation seemed to last about two weeks and we were back to work once more, as second graders. This year I consider as a blank, because nothing happened other than losing one class from the top of the list of grades and adding another one to the bottom. This one at the bottom never had Milton for a starter. They simply couldn't do the work, and, oh yes, I believe we took up the 3's and 4's that year.

The Team:

Captain Earl Kline—"Bud"—played a great game at quarter. He showed he knew his job. We are all (this includes the fair sex) sorry he is leaving us.

Carl Wuebker, halfback. "Si" was the fastest man on the team. With the ball he was uncatchable. He will be missed next year.

Walter Myers, halfback. "Wally" seemed to tell where a play was going and he was there to break it up. He graduates this June and will leave a big gap in the backfield.

Gordon Chamberlain, end. "Gordy" was a good wing man, being a very capable receiver of passes. He made several long gains via the air route. He, too, graduates this year.

Harry Sebert, tackle. "Hank" played a great game at tackle. He was good at getting his man, and also furnished interference. He will also be lost by graduation.

Robert Ensley, center. "Preach" played a wonderful game at center. He was great at blocking punts. Often times he got his man before the man got started. He it was who fell on the ball when Olmsted made the fatal "fluke" punt.

Edward Schafer, tackle. "Ed" played next to brother Dan. He played very good in this position. This was his first and last year for Bay Village.

Earl Kline was a good guard. He kept the opponents' number of points low, but added to our points by a long shot now and then. He leaves us in May.

Walter Myers was Kline's partner in the shot wrecking business. Besides being a good guard he was a good shot. He contributed to the scoring often.

Gordon Chamberlain was a relief guard. He was called on several times and he always delivered. Walter and Gordon also graduate.

Nelson Russ was a forward de luxe, working very good with Ensley. He should be better next year with Heckerman.

Dan Heckerman, the other forward, was a fast and furious player, being a killer on short shots. He will be a valuable man next year.

Dan and Nelson are the only fellows of the regular team not graduating. Coach Mahler has to build a team around them for next year. However, the second team has done well this year and should advance enough capable players to insure a good team. Some of them are Corlett, Ferkan, Powell, Latimer, White, Tiedt, Siringier, Johnston, and Burt Schafer.

Dan Heckerman, guard. Dan was a very good guard. He made use of all his weight. He needs to be watched next year as he should spell woe to our opponents.

Nelson Russ, fullback. "Nelly" played a fine plunging game at full. Though this was his first year on the varsity, he was the cog that kept us moving. He will be valuable next year.

Donald Latimer, end. "Don" held down the other end of the line. He was a very fast man for getting down under punts and getting his man for a loss. He only played part of the season, but watch him next year.

Donald Locke, guard. "Don" was fighting for blood. He specialized in making openings in the opponets line so our men could gain. Don has moved into Dover, so will not play for us next year.

Stuart Colahan, tackle. "Zip" did not get called on very often but when he did he played very hard.

John Corlett, halfback. "Pat" subbed at halfback enough last year to win his letter. Pat, along with Stuart, should be a big noise of next year's team.

We also have some substitutes that deserve honorable mention for their work and interest shown in practice. They are Ward Powell, Albert Schafer, Elmer Siringer, and Alex Johnston.

Otto E. Mahler, coach, knows football and has the ability to get boys to do what he knows. He remains here next year.

Another vacation slipped past and we took up school again. This was a year to be remembered, for Jack Siegreest entered into our honorable group. He used to be so bashful, but look what schooling does for a person. About this time our teacher noticed that our English was not up to par (our teacher still notices it) so we put in a bid for our Grammars. That was also a high spot in the 3rd grade. The 5's and 6's also ran.

We started the fourth grade as per usual, and "boy!" what a year this turned out to be. First thing, we took on a new man. Lorry Culp surpassed the rest of his class to such an extent that it was deemed wise to promote him, lest he quit school for a year and become a sailor and join the Spanish Main. We glanced over the 7's and 8's just before Valentines Day. It was rumored there was to be no vacation that summer. Everybody was down-hearted. They failed to study and the result was that the teachers had to give a vacation to keep up our high standards of the previous years.

Everyone reported for business the first day, but it was the first day of a year that proved a pastime for many of the class. Some one thought of the idea of having a flu epidemic. Soon, so many caught on to the idea, that there were not enough of us to pull open the back door so that we could enter the school. If I remember correctly we dropped around for our report cards toward the last of the year. We didn't even get the 9's that year.

In the fall of 1921 the class reported once more full fledged sixth graders. As one surveyed the old gang he discovered two more new faces. We later learned they belonged to Fred Troyan and Walter Myers. Oh, yes, I almost forgot to mention that it took us five years to learn that we could get permission to repair the bell when it was turned over, and from that time on the bell was always over. However, this work of repairing the bell did no harm except to the 10's and the shingles. We also studied several other things that year.

Another summer had flitted past and we returned to school. The same old gang once more, and lo, we saw another addition to our class. Steve Aldrich said, "We don't need any women," but Jack Siegreest said, "Yes, we need more and better women." Gee, what a broad subject it was. Don't take me wrong. I am referring to the subject of "whether we need more women or not." Well, Betty Hursh won her case, or any-how she stayed. We finished the multiplication tables this year and also had a debate as to whether people could fly across the ocean if they took the notion. We decided it was possible, and look what our decision did for the world. We finished the most eventful year so far.

We started the finish of grammar school with Miss Day as our home room teacher. It seems to me that we entered our new school at Stop 24 of the L. S. E. R. R. This was a great relief after being crowded in the small school at Stop 30.

High School started at the same time as it did at all other times. Mr. Ganyard was our home room teacher. Little did we realize that he would be with us until we finished High School. We took on two new students—notice they are called students now—the Klines, but not known to be related in any manner. That new school was not what it was cracked up to be for the place was always too hot. One day at the beginning of Algebra we undertook to remedy this outrage. We opened the windows. This was in January and as a zero breeze was blowing freshly from the sea we fixed the room up perfectly. Then in came Mr. Ganyard. You know Mr. Ganyard always did care for more heat than most of us, so he decided to cool us off that day and enjoy himself the rest of the year. Contrary to our expectations he failed to put the windows down, but worse than that he didn't allow us to do it. I might mention that the lake breeze seemingly freshened considerably and was entering those light holes at a mean pace. It entered so fast, in fact, that we had to put a piece of boiler plate under the thermometer to keep it from going through the floor. And we were in our shirt sleeves. Boy, was it c-c-c-old. We tried to sit on the radiators and we were shivering so that the vibrations of the radiators sounded like a pair of skeletons playing leap frog on a tin roof. We were tough and didn't die, or we wouldn't be here. Betty Hursh left for Lakewood this year. This season finished when it ended and we started another summer.

Business was booming at the beginning of '25. Gordon Chamberlain, Ed Shafer and Robert Ensley became members of this class. This was a bad financial year for Ed, as he was charged with a yard stick which he thought had broken. At any rate it bent so far that it scared Ed out of one day's geometry. And Ed paid rather than explain. This year was rather noisy at first, due to the fact that third floor was under construction.

The year '26—'27 was another good one. We were honored with two more new pupils. Jeanne Stubbs and Harry Sebert, and, by the way, Betty Hursh returned from Lakewood. The first big event to take place in this year occurred in October. We selected crimson and white for class colors and became the first class to sport colors. Needless to say, the other classes soon exhibited various combinations of green and red, purple and orange, etc. Did we surprise the other classes? Shortly after this we sported class sweaters and bought our class rings. The biggest event of that act of our schooling was the first Junior-Senior Banquet.

We started our Senior year with a song because we were rid of that "pesky" last year Senior class. Now we rule within a limited domain, though it be but one year. We didn't want to rule any before this or we would have—as I am sure you all know. During this year we helped win the first championship to be brought to our school. It was the Class B football championship. Well, I must stop, for you know that history repeats itself. It's time to repeat, and I am sure you don't want to go over this again.
