The Graduate

He knew the books from A to Z,
He knew the world's geography.
They had examined him and found
His mathematics fairly sound,
And wholly satisfied by that
They let him wear a tasseled hat.
They boasted that they'd trained his mind
To solve the problems of mankind.

I wonderd as I heard them talk
If they had taught the boy to walk
Alone the length of any street
Prepared to face what he might meet?
'Twixt work and pleasure could he choose;
Know which to take and which refuse?
Had he the proper way been shown
To solve small problems of his own?

What did he know of wrong and right?
When to submit and when to fight?
If urged dishonest steps to take,
What answer would the youngster make?
Could he see selfish seekers gain
And choose unselfish to remain?
He knew the books, but did he know
How slowly men in stature grow?

Had he been taught the upward way
Is taken step by step each day?
Had he this small discovery made,
The easiest jobs are poorest paid?
Had he been taught what men expect,
Admire and happily respect?
If so, above the drifting throng
That boy will rise ere very long.

Dedication

If you took part in football or basketball games; if you enjoyed the activities of Hi-Y or Friendship Club; if you were excused from classes for play rehearsals; if you received any pleasure from the Bay Window; if you danced to soft lights and sweet music at school dances: if you have done any or all these things, you may have learned to take them for granted.

Barton R. Griffith, day by day, in numerous ways we seldom observe or stop to consider, has made every one of these things ours to indulge in and to experience. As graduation draws near, we recognize and praise one who has done the work first without expecting our gratitude; but now, humbly, with as much gratitude as we know, for all these things, we dedicate this 1938 Bay Blue Book to him.

Class History

When our long-suffering teachers established the custom of keeping accounts of their daily trials and tribulations in little black books known as diaries, little did they realize that some day these entries would be exposed to public view.

Confronted with the task of writing the Class History, we delved into these diaries to secure more authentic facts concerning the deep, dark secrets of the past.

The records were found to be in a rather dilapidated condition, some of the pages being hardly legible. However, we have chosen a few of the most important passages with which to supplement our Class History.

From the diary of Mrs. Chance, Sept. 8, 1926: "First day of school! My, what a headache! This little village is certainly growing. Last year I had twenty-two pupils. Today forty mothers ushered their offspring into my room! But they look promising."

Of the forty who entered that first grade at Parkview, only twelve remained throughout the twelve years—James Aspinwall, Carroll Anne Beck, Robert Branson, Shirley Christian, Richard Denison, Norma DuPerow, John Eaton, Herman Graebner, Mary Ann Humel, Jean Kelley, Marion Schluembach, and Eleanor Wright. Dorothy Atkinson and Wallace Croxford started with the class, were gone a year or two, and rejoined it.

Our second year the class was divided. Some went to the new Forest View school with Miss Loomis. The rest stayed at Parkview with Miss Jones. Steven Hritz and Vincent Weisz came to Forest View that year.

Here is a page from Miss Loomis's diary for Nov. 18, 1927: "My what a time I had gathering up my children! They all got lost here in the new building. Mr. Hayes found Norma DuPerow in the boiler room!"

The third year two musical students, Doris Bussman and Donald Dale, of Lakewood, came to Bay.

A few words from the diary of Miss Engle for May 1, 1929: "My golly, those kids talked so much today I used all my adhesive tape! Miss Riley, up at Parkview, says she has the same trouble. Rehearsed the Japanese Doll Operetta. Little Jimmy Aspinwall looked so cute in his costume. Goodness, my feet hurt!"

Our class was excitingly increased the fourth year by the advent of Pete Kearney from Dover.

Miss Brown's diary for Oct. 15, 1929 reads thus: "Have I a problem! My children can't subtract! But their reading and art work are good. John Eaton seems ambitious—wants to shoot tires like his father! Miss Wetheral's fourth grade is having a health contest."

William Horton and Erwin Paine wandered in from Lakewood to join us the fifth year.

Now a snatch from Miss Dietz's diary, Jan. 10, 1931: "Those youngsters certainly frightened us today! The class had a sleigh party on Cahoon Hill. A load of boys on Mr. Hayes' toboggan hit a tree. Result: toboggan wrecked, but boys unharmed. My!"

Metropolitan Cleveland sent four promising students to join our sixth grade—Pat Ranney, Velda and Virginia Smith, and Bruce Rudolph.

Class Will

Time: June, 1938

Place: The auditorium

Occasion: Probation of Will

Characters: The present senior class and rest of high school.

Chairman: Bruce Rudolph, president of the late senior class.

President Rudolph: The meeting will please come to order. The occasion of this meeting, as you are aware, is the probation of the will drawn up for the class of '38 by the class's firm of Pat & Pat, Incorporated.

We, members of the class of '38, School of Parkview, Village of Bay, County of Cuyahoga, State of Ohio, United States of America, being as we hope but sometimes wonder, of sound mind and body, do declare and publish this our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore drawn up by us.

Item 1: We desire that our homeroom, 301, together with our teacher, Hannah K. Bortz, be presented to a class equal to us in intelligence and behavior, if possible.

Item 2: The last privilege left, that of entering by the front door, we bequeath to the class of '39, hoping that the saving of wear and tear on shoe leather will justify the retainment of this privilege.

Item 3: We bequeath the following items to various students, hoping they will find use and instruction therein:

Jimmy Aspinwall's radiance to "Sleep" Seitz.

Seitz: Zzzzzzzzz-Hooooouuuuuuuuffffffff.

Rudolph: I expect to hear more becoming demonstrations of gratitude as time goes on. Ahem. Carroll Anne Beck's typing ability to Bob Hayden.

Griffiths: Ain't there no justice; I know someone that needs it worse.

Conant: Always speak for yourself, Johnny.

Rudolph: Order. Victor Blomquist's Ah-de-wah to Virginia Watt.

Virginia Watt: Ah-de-wah.

Rudolph: Once more, please, Virginia.

Virginia: Ah-de-wah.

Prexy: That's better. Now, let's get back to the business at hand. Bob Branson's serious demeanor to Eddie Klemm.

Klemm: Eek! Eek!

Prexy: It is neither necessary nor seemly, Krumwiede, to pinch those less fortunate than yourself. Molly Brigg's algebraic celerity to Elmer Orvis.

Orvis: Nuts! I say, nuts!

Funke: You'll see, Orvis, they'll be harder to crack now. I've been in classes with her.

Ortrud Schleumbach: Hahahahahahaha.

Prexy: Order, please. The next item, superfluous, I believe, reads, "Doris Bussman's giggle to Ortrud Schluembach".

Doris Bussman: For the last time in a class meeting, Hahahahahahaha.

Prexy: Ahem. Bill Horton leaves his studiousness to Henry Osterman. Satisfied, Karcher? Erwin Paine leaves his interest in under-class girls to Jim DeWitt, wishing the latter speed and progress.

The March Of Time

Brought to You by the Class of 1938!

BUGLE CALL

January 3, 1948—JAMES R. ASPINWALL, Republican senator from Kentucky, openly, in his latest speech, opposed WILLIAM J. GOSEWISCH, new C. I. O. organizer. Rumors indicate that there has been considerable antagonism between these two from "way back".

January 10, 1948—Mr. WALLACE (Buck) CROXFORD, wealthy manufacturer of bristleless toothbrushes for toothless people, has just written a book, "Care of the Gums after the Departure of the Teeth". First copies are being sold at Hritz's Picadilly Tearooms. Mr. STEVE HRITZ, long toothless, stanchly declares Mr. Croxford's discovery to be a sensation.

January 10, 1948—"The familiar streets of the old home town have for the millionth time passed under the wheels of my bicycle," confessed Mr. VINCENT WEISZ, faithful Bay Village paper distributor for over twelve years. Mr. Weisz is known as the millionaire of the newspaper world and lives comfortably with his wife and three children.

January 18, 1948—BLISS STEVENS, owner and operator of the "Better Mileage Bubble Gum" factory, is cast down in gloom and despair. His formula has been stolen. MARIAN CHAMBERS, chief mileage tester for the factory has just set a long-distance, non-stop 88.2 miles per hour run of steady jawing per five sticks. "Just when fortune smiled, the sun of prosperity faded," said Bliss. "Now it may take years to redevelop the formula, and, too, think of the amount of ordinary gum it will take meanwhile to keep Marian in condition for another mileage test!"

TIME LURCHES ONWARD!

February 2, 1948—In the year's most breath-taking spectacle, "Don", 1800 pound, two year old nag, won the California Derby at Saratoga yesterday. Said DICK "Half-pint" DENISON, "It was due to de name—it used to be my old pal's, he was one of the fastest guys on two feet."

February 9, 1948—A story of unusual human interest came up today when Miss MARY ANN HUMEL, the present title holder for marathon skating, was taken to the hospital after allegedly being tripped by her male partner. "It was done for spite," stated the infuriated Miss Humel. "He knows that the only way I would have fallen would be by tripping." Miss Humel's beautiful face was badly bruised in the fall.

February 16, 1948—Here's an oddity in the news Worry over the disappearance of her son has caused the once raven tresses of Mrs. G. Sourpuss, the former Miss DORIS WILLIAMSON, to turn platinum. Although the boy has returned, her hair has shown no change.

February 27, 1948—The swing violin of ROBERT BRANSON brought the audience at the music hall to its feet in acclamation yesterday. It is said he can put more "umph" into a popular song than any other master of his day.

May 4, 1948—In his South Hampton laboratories, the famous scientist, HENRY ALBERT, today announced the "love bug" to be a reality. "It is a small heart-shaped insect found on house plants," commented Mr. Albert, and then nonchalantly added, "I myself, am immune to its bite."

Absent when picture was taken; Leonard Weber, Lee Lehecka.

Juniors

The Juniors began the year by electing the following class officers: Alan Orvis, president; Norma Andersen, vice-president; Francis Case, secretary; Bill Conant, treasurer; and Muriel Woodson, social chairman.

In November members of the class received their dubonnet and beige jackets.

Junior students were well represented on the Bay Window staff, in sports, and in school clubs.

In December they presented a group of four one-act plays under the direc- tion of William Batt- rick, class faculty adviser.

March 19 was the date of their St. Patrick's dance.

They are sponsoring a dinner dance for the seniors May 27.

Sophomores

The sophomore officers for the year were: Fred Gosewisch, president; Donal Ross, vice-president; Marybelle Culp, secretary; Lois Irwin, treasurer; Edna Graebner and Bud Nutter, social chairmen.

Sports attracted the boys. Bill Walker, William Christofferson, and Donal Ross received football letters; Myron Monck, a basketball letter.

The class held a sleigh ride January 29.

After the Olmsted game, February 11, they had a class party in celebration of Coach Shollenberger's birthday and in order to eat the ice cream won in the senior Annual subscription contest.

On Arbor Day, March 25, the class dedicated two trees to the school.

Freshmen

Freshmen class officers elected this year were: Ralph Gilmore, president; Lucy Trowbridge, vice-president; Lawrence Krumwiede, secretary; and Robert Melbourne, treasurer. Their homeroom teacher was Glen L. Ganyard.

Ralph Gilmore was the only freshman member of the basketball squad, but the girls were well represented in this sport.

The class had a party in the gym March 22.

Biology was included in the freshman schedule this year.

Friendship Club

This year the theme of the Friendship Club has been "Discovery".

"Something hidden, go and find it;
Go and look behind the ranges,
Something lost behind the ranges,
Lost and waiting for you — go!"

A few of the activities under the guidance of Hannah K. Bortz, club adviser, were the annual rummage sale, the recognition services at the Bay Presbyterian Church, the Friendship—Hi-Y supper, the dressing of forty-five dolls for the Associated Charities, the annual Christmas formal, and the Pa-Ma-Me banquet.

Some of the speakers for the year, and their topics, have been: Miss Annetta Eldridge, "Growing up Emotionally"; Dr. Elizabeth Hutchison, "Health and History"; Mrs. Alex Hanushek, "Joan of Arc"; Mrs. K. E. Martersteck, "The Truth About Russia"; Mrs. Marguerite Browning, "Charm"; and Miss Mary Warn, "Styles".

Officers for 1937-38 were: Mary Ann Humel, president; Virginia Smith, vice president; Pat Ranney, secretary; Eileen Price, treasurer; Gail Stewart, program chairman; Velda Smith, inter-club council; Molly Briggs, social chairman; Pat Jones, service chairman; Virginia Cook, publicity; and Doris Bussman, musician.

Hi-Y

As in preceding years, the purpose of the Hi-Y has been "To create, maintain, and extend, through school and community, high standards of Christian character." All of its meetings have been planned with the achievement of this goal in mind.

This year, under the guidance of George V. Wing, the Hi-Y gave a dance in November, went swimming occasionally at the Y. M. C. A. pool in Cleveland, and was invited to a supper by the Friendship Club.

Formal initiation of new members was held September 29. At the regular meetings the following speakers were heard: Rev. Ralph Taylor Alton, Rev. Franklin P. Reinhold, Oscar J. Fox, Dr. Garry Cleveland Meyers, Rev. Tucker G. Humphries, Rev. Theodore Mayer, and Mr. Griffith.

New officers were elected at mid-term from the junior Hi-Y membership as follows: Tom Treter, president; Kenneth Kittinger, vice president; Edward Studney, secretary; and Eugene Goerke, treasurer.

Bottom Row: Eileen Fitzgerald, Virginia Smith, Bill Gosewisch, Mr. Ganyard, Ward Martin, Jane Myers, Josephine Dagg.
 Second Row: Donald Bussman, Dick Alexander, Bob Schwing, Ortrud Schluembach, Kenneth Kittinger, Roger Serne, Lois Atzel.
 Absent when picture was taken: Hubert Simons, Joetta Kuckuck.

Student Council

The student council this year has been in charge of the following activities:

1. The monitor system for lunch periods.
2. The sale of tickets at games during the football and basketball seasons.
3. The observing and reporting of any need for repairs here and there about the school plant.
4. The appropriation of twenty dollars toward purchasing a track for the new stage curtains the Class of 1938 has presented to the school.

In order to raise funds for the activities of the current year, the council first sold football pins, blue and white souvenir megaphones made of wood, and later in the year, metal pins in four designs, enameled in Bay's colors.

Bottom Row: Pat Ranney, Eileen Price, Velda Smith, Pat Jones, Mr. Battrick, Gail Stewart, Virginia Smith, Betty Ploe, Josephine Dagg.

Absent when picture was taken: Shirley Phillips.

Bay Window

The Bay Window was an extra-curricular activity this year, under the direction of William Battrick.

The staff was considerably larger than in previous years. Eight staff members were members of the journalism class last year. They are: Dorothy Atkinson, Norma Du Perow, Pat Jones, Steve Hritz, Betty Ploe, Eileen Price, Gail Stewart, Doris Williamson.

Football

A very light squad, made up for the most part of inexperienced boys, reported to Coach Secrist and his new assistant, Mr. Shollenberger, in September.

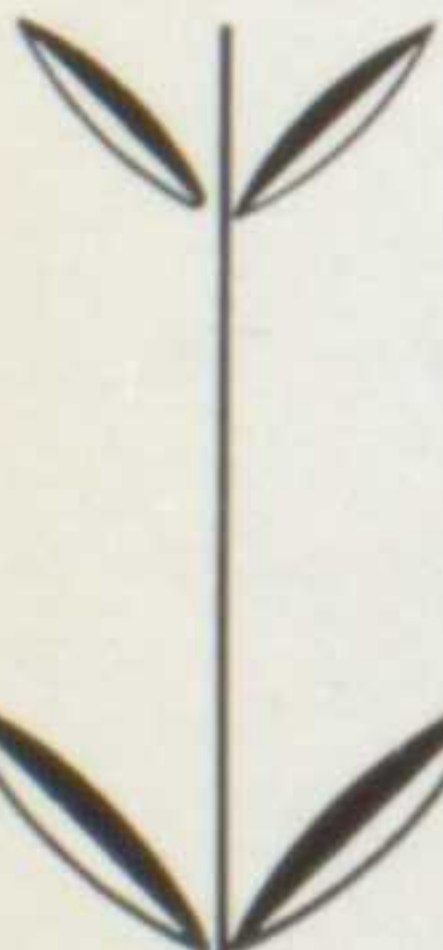

The outlook wasn't very bright at the beginning of the season, but the team improved greatly with experience. The pre-season games were both lost, the first to Rocky River, 20-0, and the second to Parma, 31-7. The league games lost were the first two, Olmsted Falls winning, 6-0; then Fairview, 12-2. The game with Strongsville ended in a 0-0 tie. Bay won the next from North Olmsted, 27-0, and climaxed the season by beating Dover, 21-6. This placed Bay in a third place tie with Strongsville, for a .500 average.

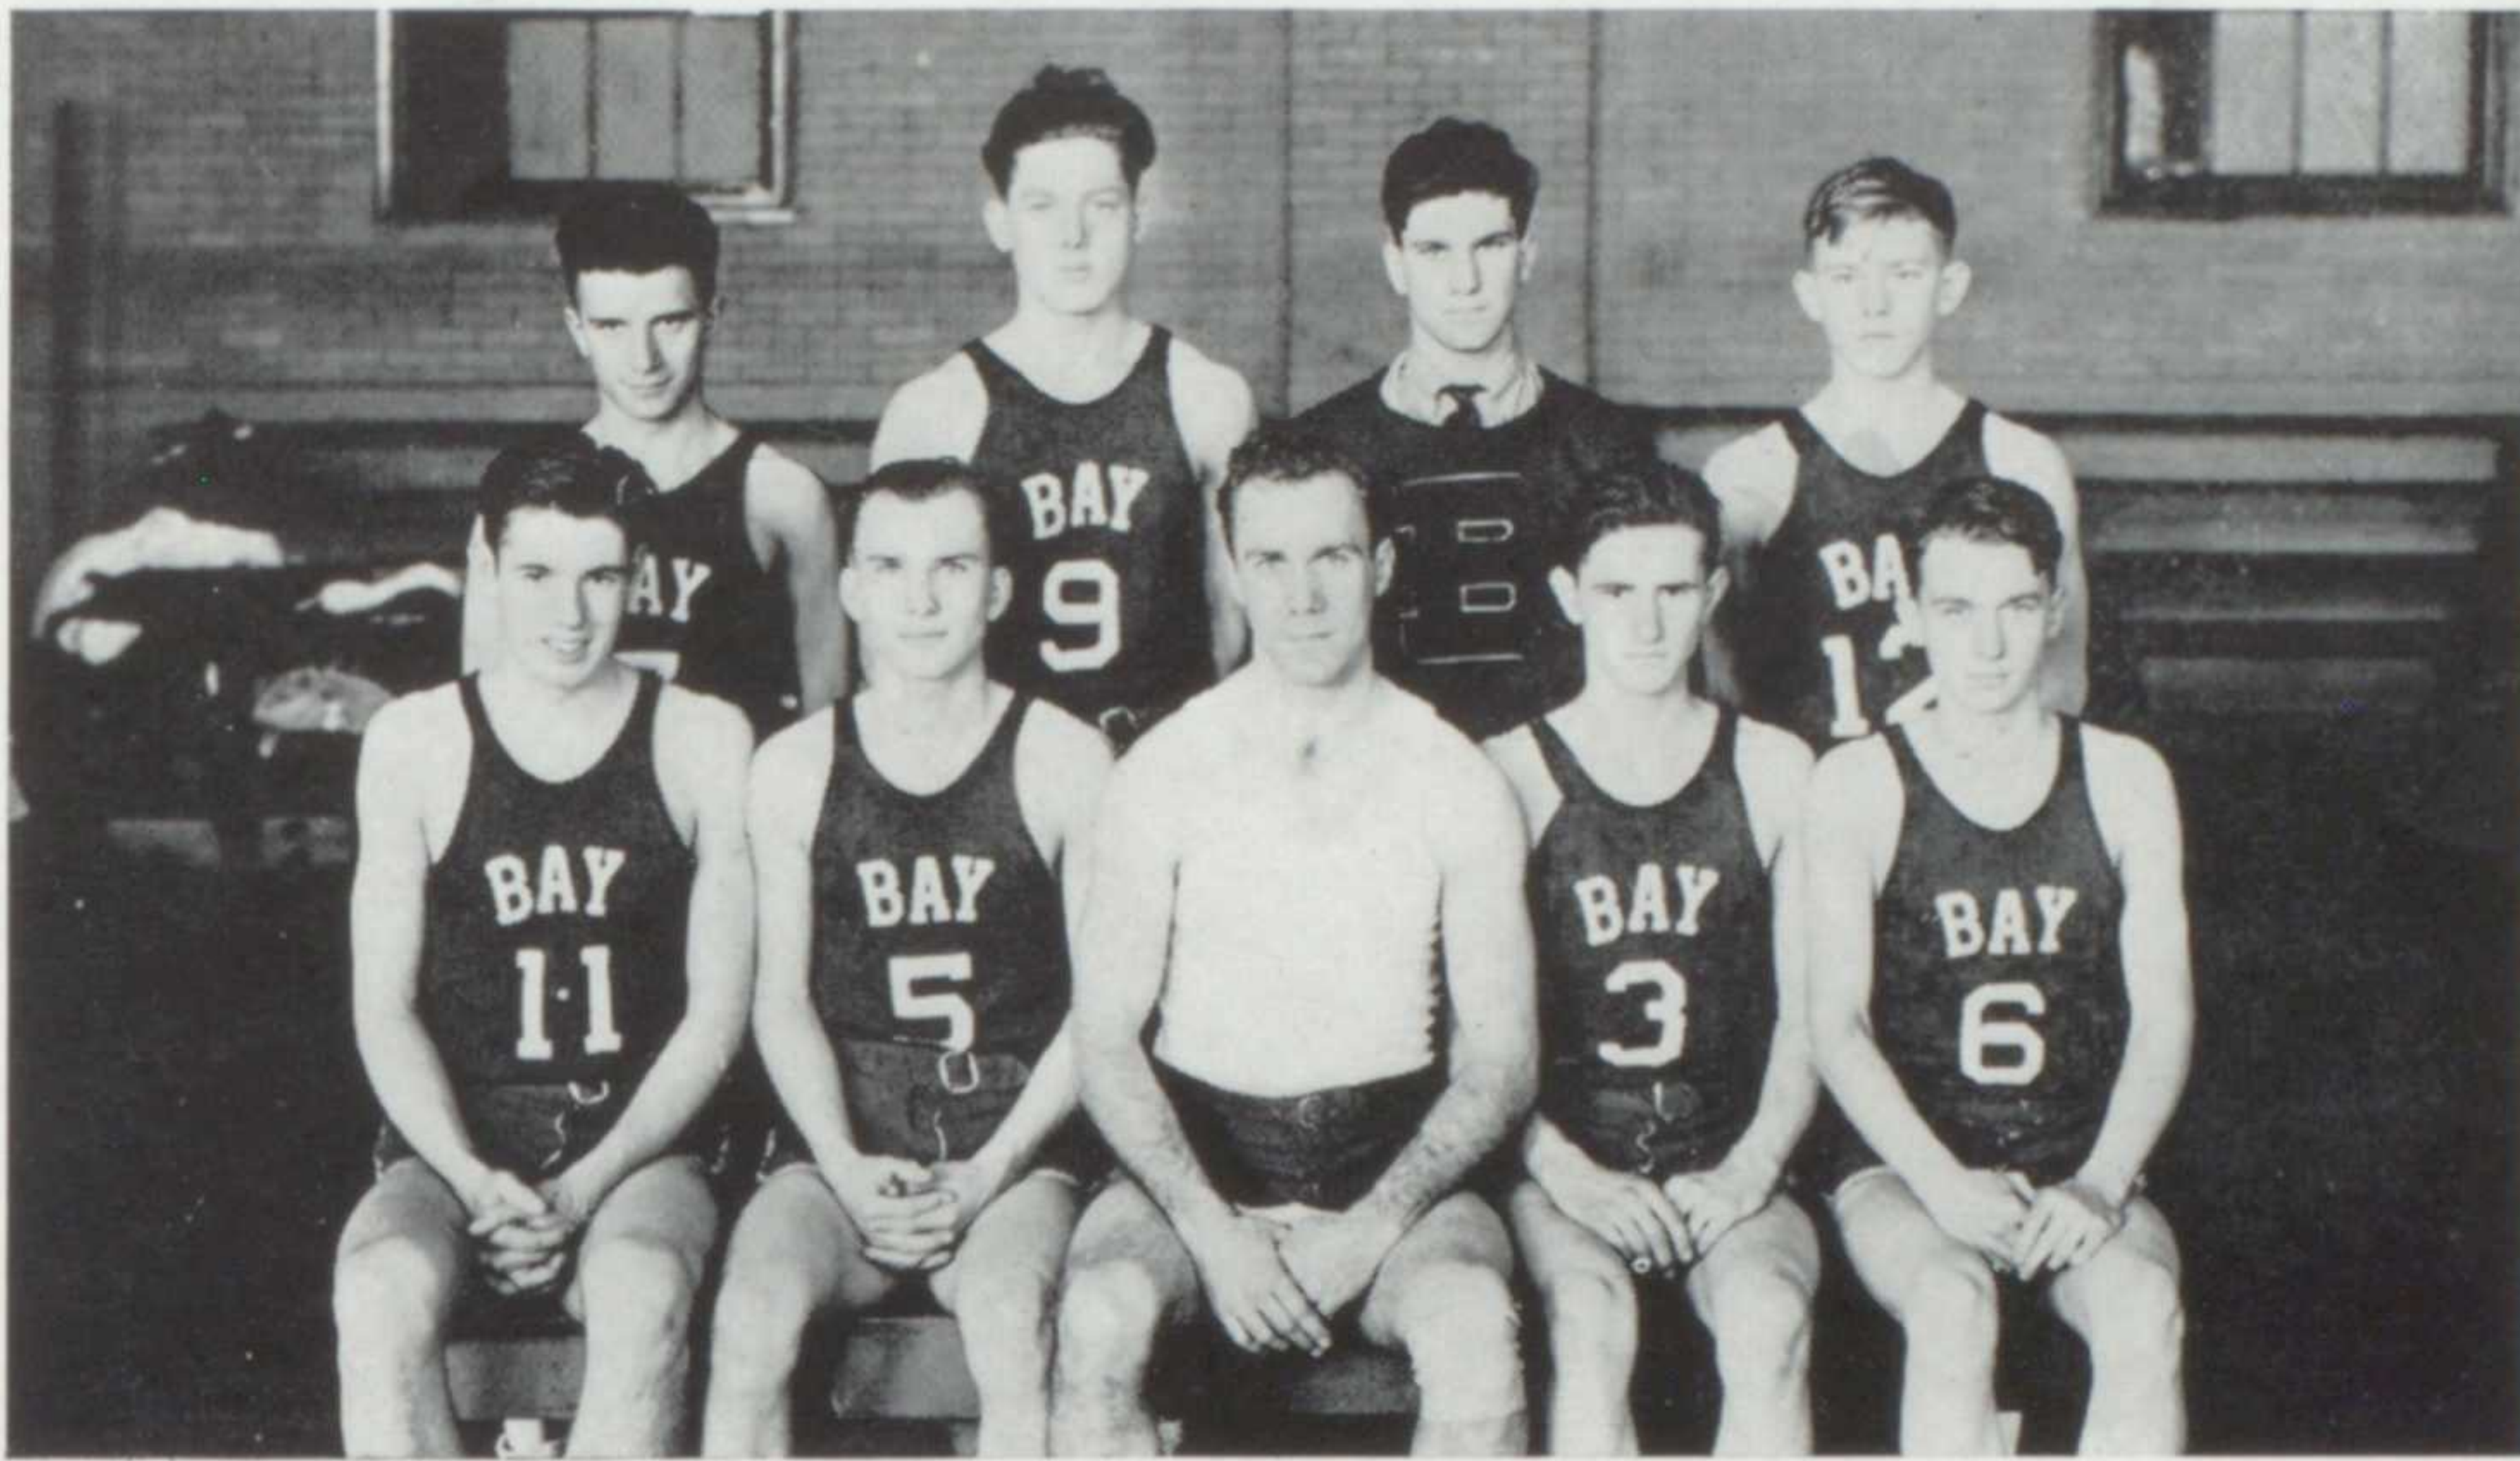

The successful season was celebrated by a father and son banquet November 17 at which Coach Secrist presented the letter certificates to the boys and thanked the Men's Club publicly for the new score board and blankets they gave the school.

Basketball

Playing 500 percentage, the boys terminated the basketball season more successfully than was anticipated at its beginning. Only one letter man answered Coach Shollenberger's call in November, and a new team had to be trained for the thirteen game campaign. Lack of height proved the squad's greatest handicap in meeting its six-foot rivals, but floor work and ball handling ability at Bay were conceded to be best in the county. The season ended with a banquet prepared by the home economics classes under the supervision of Marjorie Mink.

- SEPT. 7—
Back to school again, dear! dear!
Teachers 'n books for a final year.
- SEPT. 8—
While Mrs. Bortz's brain is roaming
The senior class goes ice cream-coning.
- SEPT. 13—
Girls and boys are parted:
Football practice started!
- SEPT. 23—
We skipped classes—teachers raved,
But the paper sale our treasury saved.
- SEPT. 24—
Practice game with Rocky River.
Oh, our score—shiver, shiver!
- SEPT. 30—
Scramble for attractive dates:
D. K. S. party on roller skates!
- OCT. 1—
From school in haste we now retreat,
For County Institute will meet.
- OCT. 8—
Bay Village versus Olmsted Falls:
A minute to play, Bay Village falls.
- OCT. 15—
Nelson Russ coached Fairview at Bay:
We almost won the game that day.
- OCT. 21—
Girl Reserves, forever true,
Had first meeting in white and blue.
- OCT. 22—
Bay and Strongsville in a muddy sea
Swam, but neither team to victory.
- OCT. 23—
Pumpkins, witches, bats, and colored leaves
Helped Friendship Club fill Bay's gym to the eaves.
- OCT. 27—
The Annual could not be forsaken:
We froze and had our pictures taken.
- OCT. 28—
Blue and white wins!
North Olmsted, pardon our grins.
- NOV. 1—
First full page of student scandals
Oh, what that Bay Window handles!
- NOV. 3—
Big commotion in the hall:
A sit-down strike for cones—That's all!
- NOV. 4—
Blue and white cheerers framed by fire:
Speeches are made and hopes grow higher.
- NOV. 5—
"Beat Dover" was the cry;
"Bay Village, do! don't die!"
- NOV. 8—
Ticket drive for the Blue-Green tussle.
Do the Blues clean uniforms?—takes muscle.
- NOV. 10—
Blue-Green games are a tradition of yore;
This one ended with a tie for score.
- NOV. 12—
Junior-Senior game to end the year.
The game was scoreless. Dear, oh, dear.
- NOV. 18—
Junior jackets came the day before
Today, when senior lasses wore them:
WAR!
- NOV. 22—
Herman Graebner flew through the window:
"Wristy" business for artery—bingo!
- NOV. 24—
Couples were different, just a few,
At the Hi-Y dance: who is who?
- DEC. 3—
First basketball: can Bay be taken?
All's well, for we brought home the "bacon".
- DEC. 7—
Surprises never cease, here, do they boys?
For once Buck had French homework.
What a noise!
- DEC. 10—
Fairview game on our floor.
26-22 was the score.
- DEC. 15—
The Juniors gave their clever plays
To an audience generous with praise.
- DEC. 17—
Exciting game with Strongsville: overtime,
Bay's score bigger by the thickness of a dime.
- DEC. 23—
Start of vacation—gym in party dress:
When decorations fell, oh, what a mess!
- DEC. 23—
A Christmas tree was the only light
On truckin' to Freddy Fay that night.
- JAN. 3—
Up at dawn with a stretch and yawn.
Already our vacation's gone.

CLASS HISTORY (Continued from Page 13)

My diary, Mary Hitchings, June 5, 1932: "My last day of school teaching! The year just past has been interesting. Oh dear! Those pesky alligators got loose last night! Wonder whom I can thank for that excitement. Would like to see those pictures my pupils took in the school yard today."

On our journey back to Parkview for our seventh year, we gathered up Phyllis Jackson and Ward Martin.

Miss Lorentz's Daily Dozen, Jan. 3, 1933: "I heard of a startling thing this morning. Miss Sebert reports that, at last, Pete Kearney has pencils! Thanks to annoyed classmates. Not for long, I fear!"

These varying personalities entered the eighth grade with us: Molly Briggs, William Funke, Pat Jones, Eileen Price, and Doris Williamson.

Coach Secrist indited thus on Oct. 10, 1933: "Sized up the boys in my homeroom today. Spotted some good football and basketball material. Miss Barclay's girls show ability, too."

Our mental status as freshmen was raised by the entrance of Janet Kick, Martina Krebs, Marjorie Nehrenz, and Shirley Phillips. The class was still separated, Coach Secrist having the boys and Miss Barclay the girls.

A leaf from Miss Barclay's diary for Feb. 21, 1935: reads. "The class had a box supper, packed by the girls. The boxes were numbered and the boys drew the numbers. I had to laugh at some of the queer combinations!"

As sophomores we welcomed Henry Albert, William Gosewisch, Betty Ploe, Bliss Stevens, and Gail Stewart.

A peek at the entry in Miss Markus's diary for Nov. 2, 1935 produced: "What an odd school this is! Miss Sebert's English class came in this morning giving the hog call! Oh, sugar, am I supposed to teach that to my class?"

Our junior year Illinois and Washington, D. C. contributed us Ted Deffner and Victor Blomquist respectively, and cities nearer home gave us Marian Chambers of Lakewood, and Marguerite Leete, a Clevelander.

A choice bit from Mrs. Russell's diary for May 29, 1937 reads: "Miss Markus and I can relax now. Our 'fine lads and lassies' received their rings today. The play went over well—no casualties. Wish I were to be here for next year's journalism class."

Virginia Cook, an extra-speedy junior, and a Lakewoodite, Hugh Galbraith, wandered into our homeroom this year.

Mrs. Bortz has furnished us these details from an entry in her diary for March 4, 1938: "Goodness, if we ever get this Annual off to press, I won't ask another thing. Miss Hayes tells me that the rehearsals of "Charley's Aunt" are coming along in good shape. What a headache to be a senior class advisor!—and yet it's great."

May we hope that these brief glimpses of our progress through the years interested you to the extent that you will watch us marching down the aisle commencement night, that surpreme event of our class's twelve-year pageant.

Mary Newberry: Ah, Prexy, why don't you give it to someone air-minded?

CLASS WILL (Continued from Page 34)

Smith: Aw, how'm I going to get my studies?

Prexy: Pat Ranney leaves her sophisticated smoothness to Margaret Ashenfelter.

Margaret Ashenfelter: Mr. Chairman, I surely do appreciate the lift, don't you know.

Prexy: Velda and Virginia Smith leave their ability to get along with certain male teachers to Frances Case.

Pat Jones: She's already done her best.

Prexy: To Thelma Mains, Gail Stewart leaves her ability to carry a tune.

Thelma Mains: How about a hamper?

Prexy: Bill Funke leaves his argumentative temperament to Lucy Trowbridge.

Mr. Wing: Mr. Chairman, I am just wondering if the class has given this item sufficient consideration.

Prexy: Sorry old man, the will has already been probated. Ward Martin, ahem, wills his success with the girls to Tom McCarran.

Martin: Won't I need it out in the big world?

McCarran: Well, so far as that goes, don't I need it here?

Prexy: No willful argument, please. Phyllis Jackson leaves her class jacket to Kenneth Anderson. They need to know, at University School, how things are done out here. Order, please. Order. I am shortly willing my life as president of the seniors to Alan Orvis. Order, please. This is my final appearance in that capacity. Be a bit more orderly, won't you please? Thank you. Peggy Pickin inherits Marian Schluembach's piano technique. That "Man-of-the-World" manner Ted Deffner very generously consents to leave to Ed Smith.

Smith: In that case, it is only fair to consider Russell Beck when Pete Kearney's letter is placed on some noble chest.

Beck: You'll be sorry when I get through with you—on paper.

Prexy: Pat Jones has the high privilege of leaving her share in the Bay Window to Jay Cherry.

Edward Studney: What about Stewart's share?

Prexy: Jean Kelley's neatness to Dorothy Meilander; Martina Krebs's skill as a bookkeeper to Leona Januska. Herman Graebner's excellent sense of humor is given to Betty Tesnow.

Graebner: Farewell, guffaw!

Prexy: Speed demon John Eaton's habit of rushing hither and yon is now the possession of Marge Shook. Henry Albert and Eileen Price leave their ability to go steady to Ross and Fitzgerald.

Distressed Voices: Isn't there enough of that to pass around?

Prexy: For the last time, if you wish to hear the remainder of this document publicly, order! Dorothy Atkinson leaves—Dorothy, is it true that you are willing to give up your slaying of two males with one glance to Rowena Galbraith?

Dorothy: Which cat wrote that, I wonder?

Prexy: To Gillespie, Virginia Cook leaves her faculty for piling up units for graduation.

Gillespie: I knew I'd get the breaks eventually.

Prexy: To Perc goes Hugh Galbraith's excellent ideas on government. Susan Briggs shall inherit the interest of Marian Chambers and Eleanor Wright in the Alumni, while Shirley Christian leaves her devotion to underclassmen to Stanley Easty. Croxford leaves his promises as an actor to Studney.

THE MARCH OF TIME (Continued from Page 15)

May 15, 1948—An unusual institution was discovered today when the sanitarium of ERWIN PAINE and WILLIAM FUNKE was opened for business. It is a home for over-worked seniors and built out of sympathetic memory of their own high school days.

May 23, 1948—Tuesday afternoon the famous conductor of the New York Symphony Orchestra, PHILIP KEARNEY, told music lovers of a new discovery in the world of voices, WARD MARTIN, a tenor, who was brought to New York after Conductor Kearney heard him in Major THEODORE DEFFNER'S amateur show. "I am always glad to see my amateurs make good," stated Major Deffner. The Major will be remembered for his adventure with the colored swing trio. He was not appreciated then, and the attitude of this trio cut him deeply.

May 30, 1948—Here's digging up some news. BRUCE RUDOLPH, gardener on the estate of Miss MARTINA KREBS (George Petty's successor), discovered a piece of the backbone of an ancient "Dinapuss". He turned it over to JOHN EATON, geologist for the New Haven Zoological department, who claims he will be able to reconstruct the whole animal from that one bone.

ON GOES TIME!

June 3, 1948—Ambition is a wonderful thing! Ten years ago, WILLIAM HORTON, then a Bay Village High School student, read that Thomas A. Edison had gotten his start as a train news butcher selling magazines, papers, etc. Said Mr. Horton to himself, "I, too, will start from scratch and work up." Today, after ten years of constant striving, Mr. Horton has been promoted to ticket taker. "It pays to stick and strive," said Mr. Horton.

June 9, 1948—At a convention of advertisers held in Chicago, Miss JANET KICK was voted "America's girl with the tooth paste smile." Miss Kick is said to eat mostly calcium foods, for she's staunch in her belief that her teeth are her fortune.

June 14, 1948—After five years of faithful service as the "Tizzie Lish" of the recipe department of the "Home Town News", Miss DORIS BUSSMAN has been promoted to the "Advice to the Lovelorn" department. Miss ELEANOR WRIGHT, famous debutante, was Miss Bussman's first client. Miss Wright, whose fickleness has finally been cured, due to Miss Bussman's help, confidentially told reporters that she finally plans to settle down.

June 20, 1948—"Smith's Spinsters' Solitude", a home for unmarried women run by the capable hands of the Misses VELDA and VIRGINIA SMITH, will celebrate its fifth anniversary tomorrow. The motto adopted by its five members, Misses SHIRLEY PHILLIPS, MOLLY BRIGGS, JEAN KELLEY, DOROTHY ATKINSON, and MARIAN SCHLUEMBACH, is "Hobbies instead of hubbies".

TIME REVERSES!

January 2, 1948—An investigation brought to light that HERMAN GRAEBNER, head of the county morgue, has been collecting admission fees. He was indicted on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

TIME PLUNGES AHEAD!

July 5, 1948—A small band of Tennessee mountaineers assembled late yesterday in a backwoods shack to hold the first meeting of their new religious sect. Nearby neighbors reported hearing repeated "a-di-wahs". Upon investi-

Studney: I've already stormed the East Side.

Prexy: Bliss Stevens and Richard Denison bestow Sara Lou Whitnum with their English grades. It's well, Sara, to see how the other half of the world fares. Bill Gosewisch leaves his passion for blondes to Jack Duncan. Leonard Weber now sports Steve Hritz's indifference to the fair sex. Norma Du Perow and Doris Williamson leave their faculty for escaping at 2:30 to Josephine Dagg.

Norma: Nonsense, I haven't done that since the twenty-seventh of May.

Prexy: Attention, please. Only a few items remain: Mary Ann Humel's interest in the dance to Peggy Hursh; Janet Kick's engaging personality to Bob Melbourne; Marguerite Leete's interest in the class of 1939 to Mary Newberry. Marjorie Nehrenz says she is leaving nothing at all to anyone, while Vincent Weisz says he has nothing at all to leave; but don't believe a word they say!

The foregoing instrument was signed by the aforementioned persons in our presence and by them published and declared as and for their Last Will and Testament, and at their request and in the presence of each other we hereunto subscribe our names as attesting witnesses at the Village of Bay Courthouse this eighth day of April, 1938 A. ## THE MARCH OF TIME (Continued from Page 39) gation, their leader, the Reverend VICTOR CHARLES BLOMQUIST, replied reverently, "Oh, that—why that's the new response to my spiritual messages."

July 9, 1948—Hundreds of women swarmed about the office of the famous Monsieur DONALD DALE, French designer of women's clothes, in an attempt to see the man who has revolutionized feminine attire. His latest creation, a corrugated evening dress, was modeled by Miss VIRGINIA COOK, world renowned as the best in epitaph writers.

July 11, 1948—At a bazaar being given by Miss SHIRLEY CHRISTIAN, child welfare leader, several of the year's most prominent citizens are taking part. Miss PHYLLIS JACKSON, 350 pound tightrope walker, gave the crowds a thrill when she turned a complete somersault on the ropes fifty feet above the crowd. An added attraction, and that which is the most profitable, is the booth in which the charming Misses BETTY PLOE and NORMA DU PEROW sell their kisses at four for a dollar. Miss Ploe and Miss Du Perow are to have a double wedding at the bazaar tomorrow night, and are the young men taking advantage of their chance to kiss the brides!

August 1, 1948—Miss MARJORIE NEHRENZ, president of the American Dental Association, today announced a new invention, "a painless extraction of six year molars," to the dental world. "The queer part," said Miss Nehrenz, "is that it applies to none of the other teeth."

August 9, 1948—"Women of esteem, wear Kelley green"—this is the slogan adopted by leading fashion experts the world over at the suggestion of HUGH GALBRAITH, world famous fashion prophet. Mr. Galbraith especially stressed "Kelley" green as the color for latest women's attire.

August 15, 1948—Miss PATRICIA RANNEY gave a lecture to all of the little girl members of "The Friends of the Forest" club yesterday at our own Public Hall. The title of her speech was, "What Nature Means to Us." "I chose the subject," stated Miss Ranney in her speech, "because so many people have the love of Nature in common. To me there is nothing I like better than the birds and the bees and all the little things that Nature offers us."

August 29, 1948—In one of the year's outstanding character portrayals, Miss CARROLL ANNE BECK, America's leading Shakespearean actress, entranced an audience of 1,000 persons with her acting in the part of Lady Macbeth. Miss Beck has been awarded this year's Puzzelitzer Prize.

TIME SURGES AHEAD!

August 30, 1948—Over a nation wide hook-up late last night, Miss PAT JONES spoke on "The Symptoms of a Criminal". Miss Jones, who is matron of women at Sing Song Penitentiary, is considered quite an authority on crime. She is well loved by her girls and has started many of them on the right road.

CALENDAR (Continued from Page 32)

- JAN. 5—
Staff pictures taken in auditorium:
We finally rounded up a quorum.
- JAN. 6—
A craving for recordings at lunch hour:
Brought dancing to supply the dollar's power.
- JAN. 7—
Why do things end that way?
Olmsted Falls whipped Bay.
- JAN. 7—
Senior play try-outs—you bet!
Monday will tell who's on the set.
- JAN. 8—
Rocky River beat us, too.
What's the sport world coming to?
- JAN. 11—
The cast is chosen; the play is being read
One of the scenes turned many faces red.
- JAN. 14—
Bay played North Olmsted in our gym.
'Twas hard to smile and watch them win!
- JAN. 19—
Our college widows felt surprise.
The boys came home; just watch those guys!
- JAN. 21—
Bay lost to Fairview, too.
What, Strongsville, will we do to you?
- FEB. 3—
Excellent in basketball—University bound,
But, for a blonde, nowhere to be found.
- FEB. 4—
Bay lost to Strongsville.
With mutter, stutter, and chill.
- FEB. 5—
These roller parties are the style
The Dekes are rolling all the while.
- FEB. 8—
New curtains for the stage are gold and dubonnet,
A farewell gift from Scarlet and Gray!
- FEB. 11—
Olmsted—a tisket, a tasket;
Bay lost the basket!
- FEB. 18—
What gloom invaded the seniors today
They saw their last pep meeting at Bay.
- FEB. 18—
Bay stopped Dover's baskets here.
What a wonderful way to end the year!
- FEB. 22—
No school, hip-hip-hooray!
A toast to Washington's birthday.
- FEB. 23—
Speeches made and cheerleaders sedate;
Basketball letters for dear old '38.
- FEB. 24—
"Swing and sway" the recording way
At our after-school dance to pep up the day.
- FEB. 25—
The boys won their arguments
Blue and silver to grace graduation announcements.
- MAR. 2—
Fifty-eight play tickets sold by Victah!
Promise: Bay Window carried his picture!
- MAR. 10—
At dress rehearsal, scarcely any blunder;
Will "Charley's Aunt" go over or under?
- MAR. 11—
They clapped and cheered the outfit and the wig.
Both Charley and his Aunt went over big.
- MAR. 15—
Kick, Krebs, Nehrenz, and Horton won honors.
They'll speak at Graduation for mothers and fathers.
- MAR. 17—
P. T. A. banquet in St. Patrick's array; Hi-Y boys and Girl Reserves carried the trays.
- MAR. 19—
A garden with picket fence, flowers blooming along the wall,
And awninged windows were the setting for the Junior ball.
- MAR. 28—
A controversy over price of prom bids,
Result: "A dollar", said the kids.
- MAR. 31—
"Smile, turn", was the photographer's bidding.
Those snapshots were really a howl, no kidding!
- APRIL 7—
Mrs. Mink's seamstresses donned their "gays",
Which were displayed in original plays.
- APRIL 8—
Spring vacation, hip-hip-hooray!
How we've been pining away for this day!
- APRIL 22—
The senior prom in formal dress;
"Delightful", all attending will confess.

SENIOR MINUTES

Meeting called at 8:40 A. D. by chief potentate Rudolph. All present barrin' Dale, Denison, and Blomquist; Dale and Denison were inspectin' boilers, (later seen chewin' gum); Blomquist out rounding up a date for the junior play.

Hritz moved the meeting be adjourned. Motion downed.

Secretary Jackson stumbled through the minutes of the other meeting. (Yeah, we had two.) The class stood the minutes as read.

Ward "Red" Martin gave a brief treasurer's report. (He has been seen buying his lunches.)

Hritz moved meeting be adjourned. Upon a division of the house, three were in favor.

Social chairman, "Soft Shoulder" Smith, gave a report on the dance given at the "swanky" fire house. "Everyone stayed in the village, I doubt it.) Humel's famous bubble dance added to the success of the affair. Music was provided by Rochester Jones and his Woodland Avenue Swingsters. All seniors present except Deffner.

Gosewisch moved we fling a rummage sale. No second.

Hritz moved.

Eaton moved that we throw a woo-pitching contest. The motion was seconded by T. C. Stewart. All in favor except Hritz.

A committee of Funke, Briggs, Ranney, Christian, and Phillips, was appointed to choose a spot for the contest. Ah-dee-wah came back victorious. Then Aspinwall went out to try the same technique.

V. M. Smith barged in with the motion to raffle off the school orchestra. Those in favor were Bussman, Branson, and Horton.

While Bortz was out, Ranney brought up the possibilities of having a scavenger hunt during lunch period. In the meantime, Graebner was sittin' in the rear of the room playin' "She loves me, she loves me not" with Bortz's ferns, when who should walk in but "The Madame"; whereupon, who should walk out but Hoiman.

Pres. Rudolph stammered through the following communication:

Members of the Senior Class:

May I offer you my most heartfelt and sincere congratulations for the splendid efforts exercised in the recent assembly of April 24, 1938. I was amazed and stupefied to find that not one of the Seniors let loose with any of the several varieties of citrus fruit or that juiciest species of the lycopersicon family.

Well, I'll have to close now as it's getting late but again let me thank you for repulsing temptation in the matter afore mentioned.

Sincerely yours,

R. B. Griffin

"In udder woids kids, dey liked de way youse act in de last assembly and don't trow no grapefruits nor termaters."

Hritz moved meetin' adjourn. No dice!

Atkinson moved meetin' adjourn. Jake with everybody. Oh, no!

Hritz griped.

The meeting was adjourned, and there was a great clamor in the halls as the Seniors rushed off to their period classes.
