

BLUE BOOK

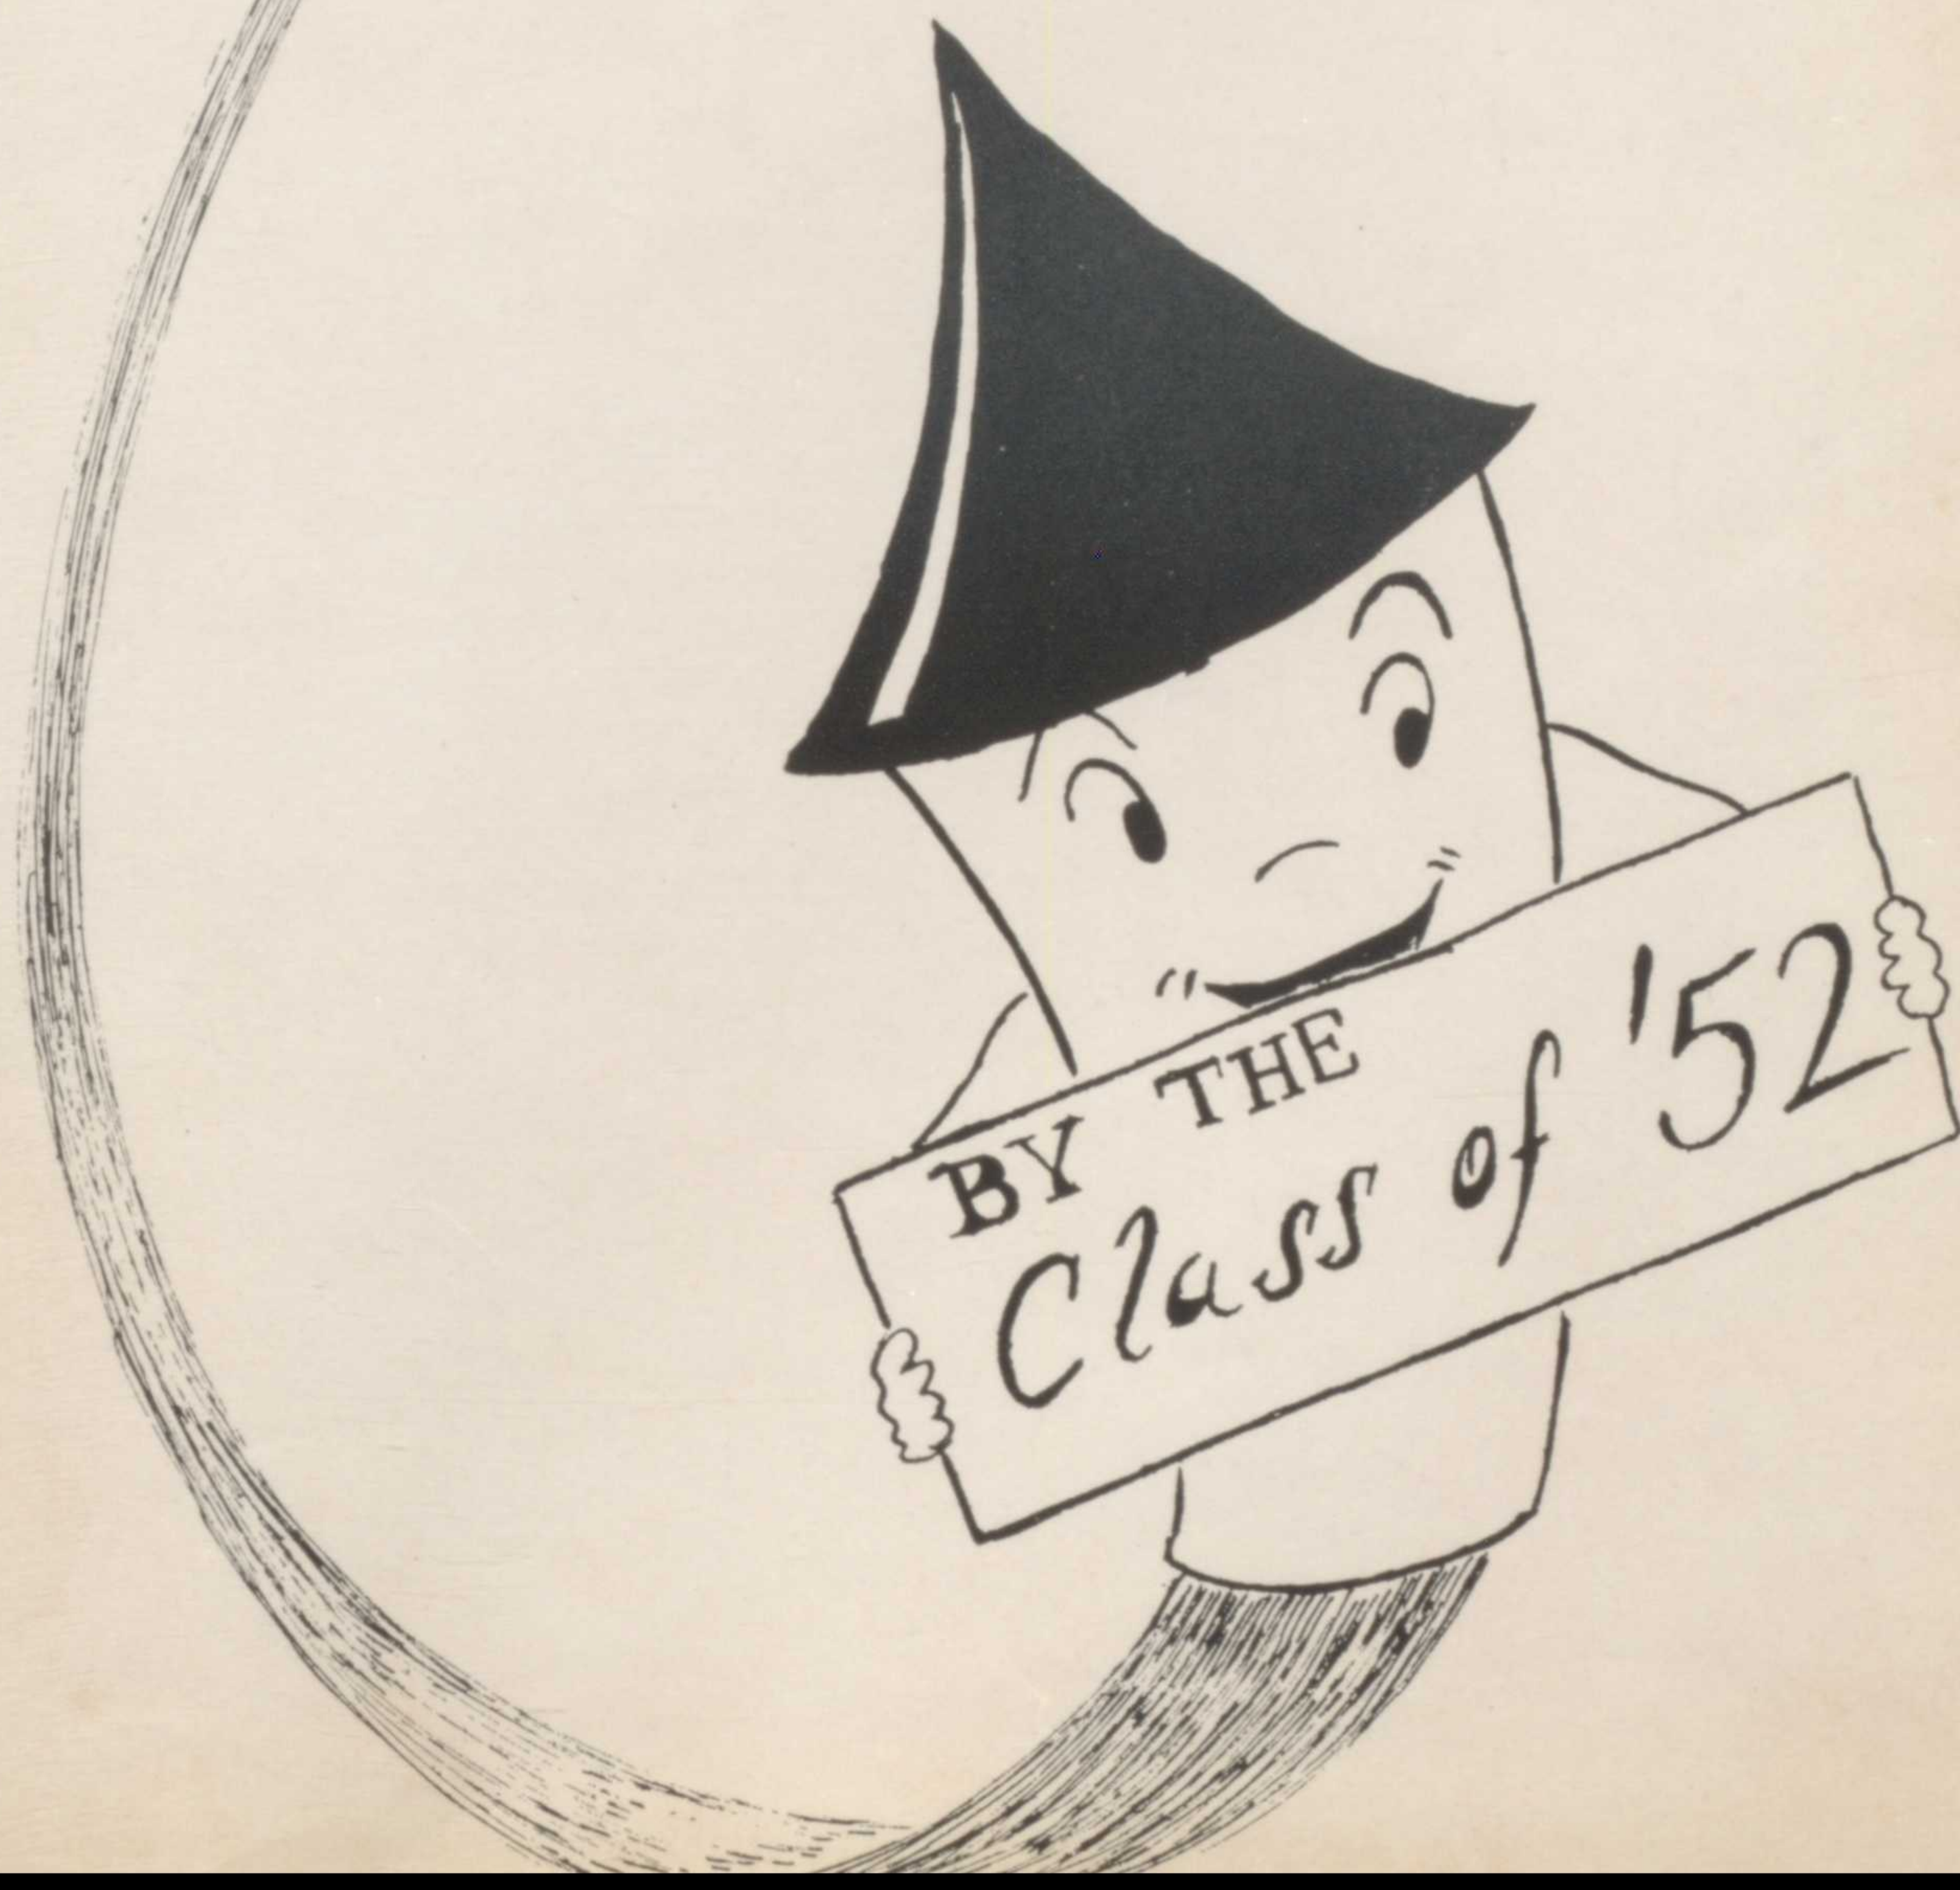

THE

BAY BLUE

BOOK

DEDICATION

MISS J. L. ROWBOTHAM

DEDICATION

To Miss Joyce L. Rowbotham who during the past four years has brought a fuller understanding of the spirit and meaning of music to the students of Bay. Although her hard work has brought to Bay a first-rate choir, she will always be remembered for her efforts in developing a sincere spirit among the choir members. We hope that the students of Bay High School will be able to uphold the fine musical standards and reputation which Miss Rowbotham worked so willingly and faithfully to establish. To her this book is affectionately dedicated.

DEDICATION

THEME . . . BAY ROCKETS

To Mr. Jack Llewellyn who was the first coach of the Bay "Rockets." As a coach, he has helped our football team to rocket to new standards of playing skill and success. He has developed a fine team and has encouraged a tremendous school spirit and loyalty — not only in athletics — but in all school activities. To the graduating seniors of the class of 1952, who will rocket ahead through their own lives, Mr. Llewellyn has set an example of sportsmanship that each one has great hopes of following.

MR. SALISBURY

Mr. Harry Salisbury, our new principal, is a graduate of Wilmington College where he received his B.A. From here he obtained a scholarship and earned his M.S. at Haverford College in Pennsylvania. Mr. Salisbury is now working on his Ph.D. at Western Reserve University.

Due to the fact that Don Neate was drafted before he had completed the first semester of his senior year, we were unable to print his picture. We are happy that he was able to return and graduate with the Class of '52.

CLASS WILL

The senior class of 1952 leaves the following to the underclassmen of Bay High:

Marilyn Altman leaves her many boy friends to Patsy O'Toole who seems to have enough of her own.

Sue Bellows leaves her "Helmet Head" to Georgie Bullock.

Nancy Burke leaves her love for Miss Sebert's English class to Dave Hinckley.

Faye Bury regrettably leaves her voice lessons to Janice Gerber.

Don Bissland leaves his "way with the women" to Frankie Walbridge.

Jack Buchanan leaves his sharp clothes to anyone who would like them. First come, first served.

Joe Chope leaves his headaches with this year's annual to Tom Williams.

Diane Cline leaves the thrill of being engaged to Janet Dreiling.

Beverly Crates leaves her food from the bakery shop to Mary Galambos. We hope Mary doesn't get too fat on all of it.

Mary Cutts leaves her work at the hospital to Joanne Weber.

Joe DeLuca leaves his violent fights in dramatics to Carol George.

Jim Dever leaves his mother's yellow convertible to Jim Weymark, who we know will appreciate it.

Max Doubrava leaves his camera and equipment to Bill Wendt.

Dewey DuPerow leaves his women trouble to Speedie Hinz.

Barbara Dunn leaves her tonsil troubles to anyone who wants them.

Ronnie Englehart leaves his memorable laugh to Peter Roehl.

FOOTBALL

SEPTEMBER 14—BAY 7 - ROCKY RIVER 0

Bay High supporters finally had something to cheer about as a Schwing to Purvis pass connected for six points and Bob "The Toe" Lawson added the extra point to lead the Rockets to their first victory over Rocky River.

SEPTEMBER 21—BAY 28 - STRONGSVILLE 0

After a slow first half the Rockets broke loose for three touchdowns and their first league victory. Schwing, Purvis, Buchanan and Hinckley scored touchdowns while Lawson added three points after and Tom Williams one.

SEPTEMBER 28—BAY 21 - ROYALTON 0

Larry Schwing drove for 2 T.D.'s; one a 65-yard dash as the Rockets defeated a formidable competitor in the Bears of North Royalton. The Rockets' offense was very spotty, but they fused long enough to capture their second league win.

OCTOBER 5—BAY 26 - OLMSTED FALLS 7

Olmsted Falls was the first team to score on the Rockets and after a 7-7 tie at half time the Rockets' offense caught fire with Bill Wieland scoring twice. The final score was 26-7.

OCTOBER 12—BAY 30 - ST. EDWARDS 0

In a poorly played game the Rockets defeated St. Edwards 30-0. Many injuries occurred in this game and Bay had their usual second half letdown. George Hill tallied twice with Larry Schwing, Tom Briner and Dick Groff one each. Not an extra point was made.

OCTOBER 18—BAY 37 - BROOKLYN 0

On a hot afternoon, Purvis with two touchdowns led the Blue and White gridders to their sixth straight victory with only one touchdown being scored against the defense unit. Dick Groff, George Hill, Bill Wieland and Tom Williams each scored one touchdown.

OCTOBER 26—NORTH OLMSTED 13 - BAY 0

The game of the year was attended by the largest crowd to watch a Bay High game in the history of the school. Once again fumbles hurt the Rockets and they went down to their first defeat 13-0 and it also cost them the league championship which has eluded them three times in the last four years.

NOVEMBER 2—BAY 0 - WESTLAKE 0

In a bitterly played, snow covered grid the Rockets could not push across one touchdown which would have meant a tie for the championship. One touchdown was called back and fumbles again hurt the team as the last half the back played in tennis shoes.

NOVEMBER 9—BAY 33 - FAIRVIEW 14

Exploding with a pent-up fury that was lacking in the North Olmsted and Westlake games the Rockets crushed Fairview to bring their season to a close. Bill Wieland and George Hill scored two touchdowns each as the Rockets brought their season record to 7 wins, 1 loss and 1 tie.

BASKETBALL

Under the expert coaching of Bill Quayle, Bay High's Basketball team had a very successful season ending up with a record of nine wins and three losses and taking second place in the West County Basketball League. Mr. Quayle, an alumnus of Bay High, introduced many new techniques and training methods in the hope that he would bring to Bay a championship team this year and in future years as well. The high points of the season were the two victories over Westlake and the win over Rocky River, our traditional rivals. Up until the Bay-Olmsted Falls game at Bay, Bay was tied with that team for the league lead. Although Bay did play a very good game, Olmsted Falls played even better and went on to win the league championship.

The outstanding players on this year's team were Larry Schwing, Tom Kissell and Joe Choep, senior lettermen. Larry was voted most valuable player in the league, was elected on the All-West County team and was the leading scorer on the team. Tom was the play-maker and starred on defense. Joe, a great aid to the team, was injured near the middle of the season and was unable to play several games.

Mr. Quayle is looking forward to the future and coaching many championship teams in the new gymnasium.
