FOREWORD...

Ascending to the heavenly heights
There is a golden stair;
Each step, a magic, golden key
Unlocking treasures there.

In childhood and in infancy
We trod the steps of gold,
With first a gain and then a loss
And then advancement bold.

For each achievement youth has made
Another step is gained;
Yet each means but a stepping stone
For those to be attained.

Oh, may our steps lead ever up—
These steps of golden hue—
Augmenting dreams of new success
As heavenly light bursts through.

—GAIL WIELAND

DEDICATION

"Madame" Bortz in her room of which she is so proud.

The four progressive steps of high school have been surmounted by the Class of '54. Outstanding is one who has helped us reach this summit by working as a teacher and advisor plus friend. When we falter she is always there ready to give us generous assistance and enthusiastic guidance. The patience and encouragement with which she helps us and her strong sense of fairness instill in us great admiration. Her ready sense of humor and quick wit, so abundant, have released tension.

Thus, the Class of '54 takes pleasure in dedicating this annual to the one who, by her loyalty and devotion to Bay High School, has endeared herself to the entire student body—
Mrs. Hannah K. Bortz.

The senior class produced a big hit this year, "The Curious Savage," which involved the turmoil and fuss known to modern-time comedies. The cast included: Mrs. Savage, the main character, portrayed by Carol Kowatch; her children—Lillibelle, Gail Haller; Samuel, Al Holliday; and Titus, Bob Rankin. The children became greedy for their mother's estate and tried to prove her insane. Asylum inmates who became Mrs. Savage's true friends were: Fairy, Joyce Keller; Florence, Nedra Harper; Hannibal, Don Grimes; and Jeffrey, Howe

Stidger. John Parker turned medic and played the part of Dr. Emmett. His nurse, Miss Willie, was portrayed by Peggy Avellone.

Many exciting events occurred during the play—behind the scenes as well as on stage. Everyone will remember Carol Kowatch's blue hair and the big teddy bear that became the key to the whole plot. The entire cast spent weeks of practice, under the guidance of Miss McCartney. The Class of '54 will keep these memories, steps of the past, in mind.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

1ST ROW (left to right): S. Lewis, G. Rothaermel, x, A. Holliday, J. Peterson, M. Twining, N. Chamberlain. 2ND ROW: J. Toepfer, D. Jeffries, J. Irwin, x, K. Rothaermel, K. Wieland, x, B. Bailey. 3RD ROW: G. Griffin, B. Smith, J. Patterson, J. Topping, S. Dutton, B. Wark, G. Wieland, A. Bricker, x, T. Thorkelson, J. Zipp.

In 1941, the Bay Village school system inaugurated its first kindergarten. The first participants in this pre-school madhouse are the old guard members of the present class of '54. During kindergarten they benefited immeasurably from their first experiences in playing in a real band. The traditional Maypole Dance was a must for all the mothers, who turned out en masse for this moving ceremony. The transition was made to a higher rung in the ladder of education.

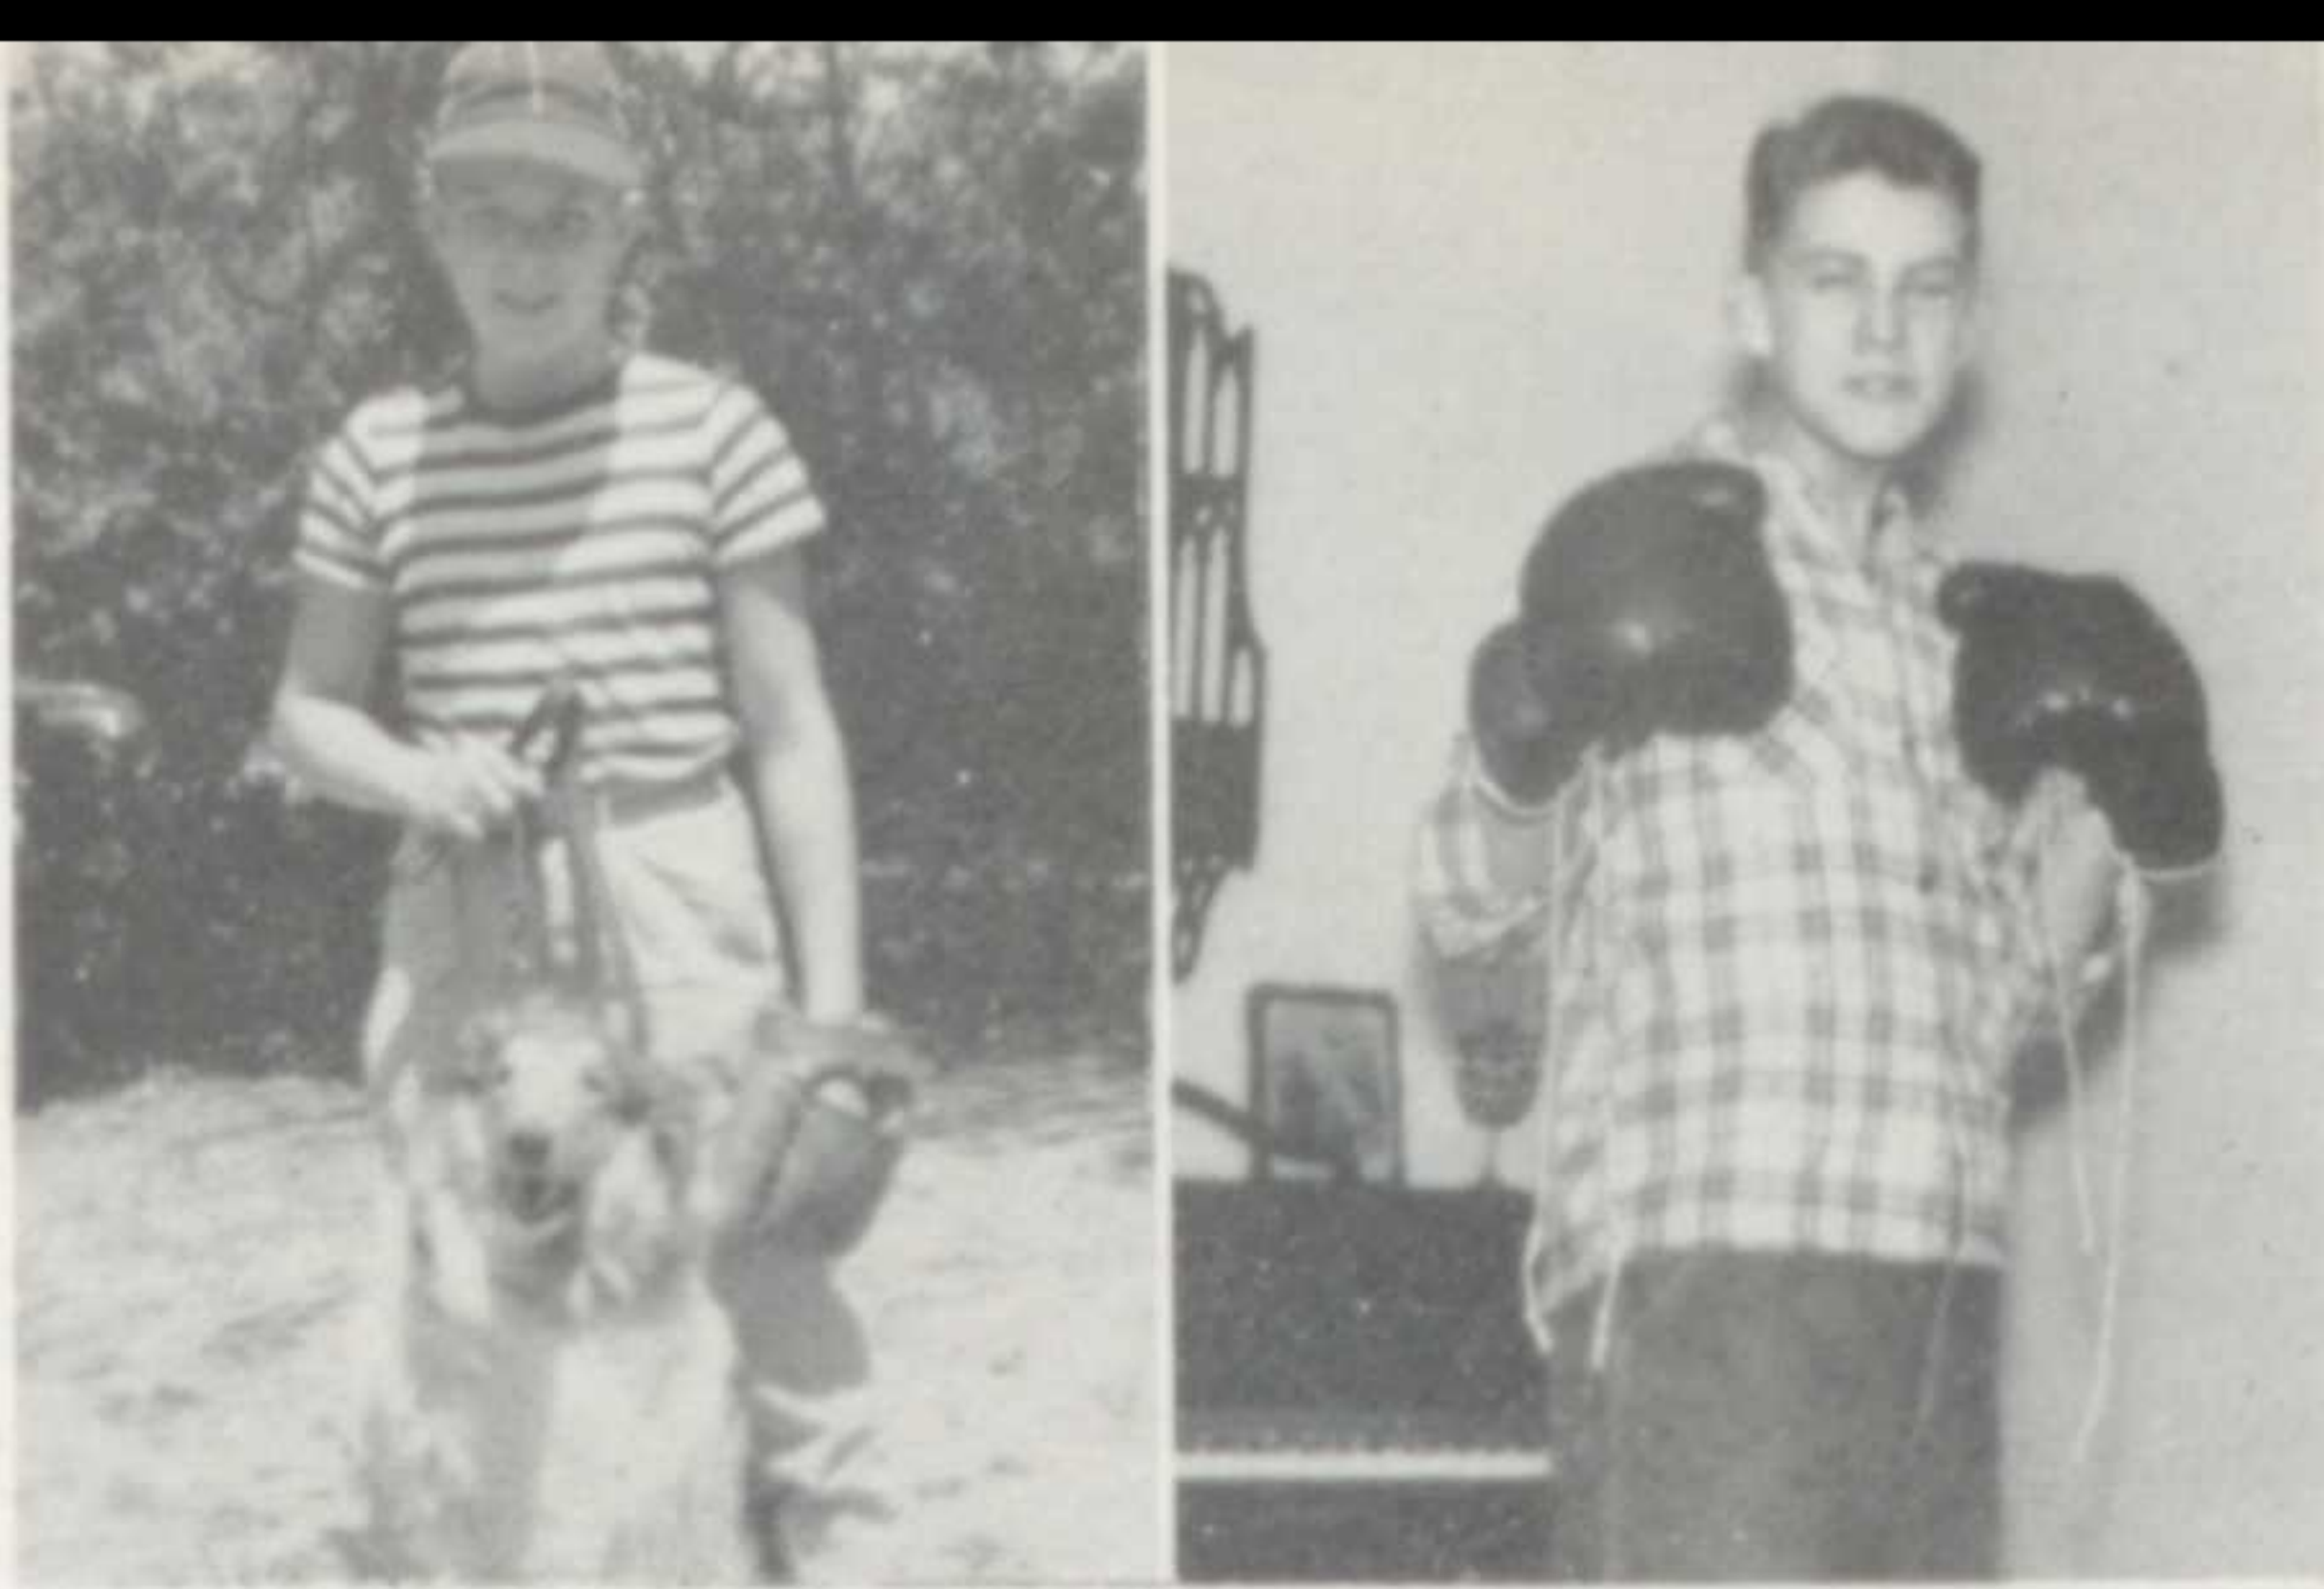

The following year, when this class descended upon the first grade, there was only one real grade school in Bay Village instead of the three now in use. Consequently those residing in the east end of the village went to Forest View, the original grade school, while the west end small fry attended classes in the grade school section of Parkview High School, as dear old Bay High was once called. Tom Thorkelson was always the dunce sitting in the corner during music class this first year, because he couldn't carry a tune.

In the second grade everyone became firmly planted in school. It seems Joe Topping's continually snapping suspenders gave him a real battle.

During the third grade all of the girls put on all of their feminine wiles in order to charm the adorable Bryson Fillmore. That year Lee Wetzel informed everyone during a geography lesson on New York, that his parents drank Manhattans. Meanwhile, several of the garrulous ones, having the misfortune of having to stand out in the hall, found that the coat rack made an ideal hiding place when somebody would pass.

The next year, due to rising population in the high school, the entire grade school turnout was relegated to Forest View. That made that building slightly less crowded than Grand Central during rush hour. Fortunately plans to relieve this condition were then under way. A new wing was being built onto Forest View, which would ease things until a new grade school, namely Glenview, could be erected.

Despite these plans, however, Forest View was too crowded to operate on a regular schedule. And so it was decided that the fourth grade, which naturally happened to be the class of '54, would attend that year going only half days. Half of the class went to a morning session. From this point the afternoon bunch would take it up and carry on until late in the afternoon. The sharing of desks by both classes produced a large quantity of mysterious notes which were always found in the desk.

The following year, the dawn of the fifth grade found the entire class of '54 firmly entrenched in the enlarged and revamped Forest View. Things operated on a full basis. The jinx was really with the class this year as Sandy Dunn, Marilyn Doubrava, Bruce Warnock, and Nedra Harper all broke their arms. The exercises, which Miss Byrd gave them so religiously every afternoon, doubtlessly contributed to the physical development of all involved. Without the wonderful musical training given in the symphonette classes, they might never have uncovered the musicianship of John Sherman, a potential tuba player. That same year a period of mourning was declared after the death of Forest View's pet owl. It was finally decided that its untimely demise was due to an overdose of affection.

Something wonderful happened as the sixth grade rolled around the next year. The new grade school, Glenview, was finished. Although the east siders were still pushing their pencils at Forest View, those lucky cherubs fortunate enough to live on the west side were accorded the privilege of taking the newness off Glenview.

Judy Irwin adapted a marionette show of "Peer Gynt" from a Norwegian play which enjoyed a three performance run at Forest View School during the sixth grade. However, the social event of the year was the big Variety Show and Dance at the high school when everyone learned about holding hands to the rhythm of 1-2-3 hold hands. This same year Gary Griffin plagued all the uninterested students with his stamp collection.

The Army-Navy baseball game, since discontinued, was a thriller that year as teams from the two schools competed for the first time. A smooth-working Forest View team copped this one. Along with these incidents, many of them will remember the immortal Miss Falther of health class fame.

In their last edition of the Forest Views, Bill "Governor" Moseley announced to the public his lifelong dream of being the governor of Alaska. Tom Krukemeyer also informed us that his secret ambition was to be "a guy who throws dirt over his shoulder."

Came the seventh grade and a new way of life. The initiation by the eighth graders proved, temporarily at least, that they were no longer the big wheels they had been in the sixth grade. In fact, the treatment was so rough that future initiations were abolished.

The duo of Bauer and Krukemeyer led the underground movements of the seventh grade class. It is interesting to remember that Gail Wieland and Judy Murdock spent a week in the office for throwing snowballs in study hall. Morse code was tapped out on the pipes faithfully every day by Merle Twining and Nancy Chamberlain from the science room in 205 to the home economics lab. Sue Lewis's kissing party in the seventh grade started the class of '54 on its road to sin.

John Parker's notorious career as a playboy was established as he gave the teachers a real rough time. About this time everyone discovered the joys of the nearby lake at noon and the girls could frequently be found walking barefoot along its shores. Not much else happened in the eighth grade except that the boys found out that the girls were good for more than something to chase in their spare time. They were worth chasing all the time.

In the ninth grade the boys finally entered inter-school athletics and Bob Reed was awarded the first letter in the class of '54, a baseball letter. This also set a record, for this made him the first person at Bay High ever to receive a four year award in any one sport. The freshmen basketball team composed of about fourteen potential stars had an average season, losing about as many as they won.

The following year the girls got into the swing of things as at least thirty-five hopeful aspirants went out for cheerleading. Margie, Sandy, and Carol were the three who made it. Bob Rankin established the notoriety as a class room noisemaker and laugh expert.

The junior year went smoothly enough eased by the opening of the new section of the building with its much needed facilities

The party girls really managed to keep things roaring that year. Jackie Wiegand and Joanne Toepfer returned to Bay to their former class and then to graduate with them.

A tight campaign was waged for Student Council president that year with Jerry McDermott winning out over the three other candidates. An honor came to the class during the junior year when Margie Eickelberg won the Rotary Speech contest. The year came to a terrific end with the prom. Gail Wieland was responsible for the artistic conversion of the cafeteria to an underwater effect.

The advent of our final year began with the election of Howe Stidger as class president. An historic event took place as the first and last chapter of the K.T.S. was inaugurated this year. Jack "Aunt Jazzbo" Lundin tickled the students with his morning renditions over the P.A. system. The famous picture of "Lan" will always remain in the minds of the true members of the class of '54. It was during the big snow that year that the girls of a snowed-in slumber party had a delicious banquet on shrimp, ice cream, pickles, and chocolate candy! Peggy Avellone's home was the pool headquarters of the class, while the famed room 206 was the class headquarters while in school. Marilyn Doubrava's hidden talent, her subtle humor ignited many classes.

Terry Michael was the second West County football player ever to achieve the honor of being awarded a place on the city's all-scholastic team.

What thus began in a small classroom in Bay

High School, twelve years later has been terminated.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President Jerry McDermott as he addressed so many various assemblies.

Since the organizing of the Student Council in 1930, the club increased its enrollment to twenty-four members, which this year included three members each from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades; two each from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades; and members at large.

This student governing body is organized to promote the welfare of the student body and give service to it.

The council has taken over the responsibilities of handling football concessions, the king and queen election and ceremony, the homecoming bonfire, the drawing for basketball concessions, the monitor system and Tribunal, noon hour activities, a student handbook, chartering all school clubs, a teachers' tea, and the awarding of the Student Council Citizenship Cup to the outstanding senior girl and boy, plus many other numerous duties.

Student Council's outstanding job of keeping the balls quiet is portrayed by John Sherman at his monitor post. Student Council also meets with the faculty to coordinate regulations.

Those qualities which constitute the ideals of the National Honor Society are scholarship, leadership, character, and service. They are not four empty words but, rather, means of attaining a satisfying, useful life. Membership in this organization represents the highest scholastic honor a student at Bay High can achieve. The induction ceremony is a fitting recognition of those juniors and seniors who have met requirements based on these ideals.

"Y" CENTERS AT BAY

The "Y" is actively represented in Bay. The YMCA sponsors the Junior and Senior Hi-Ys, Junior Y-Teens and Senior Y-Teens and the co-ordinate Service and Circle groups are in YWCA category.

The main purpose of these groups is to promote friendship among the members through the medium of Christianity and of serving others.

During the year, various projects beneficial to the school and community were realized. The Junior and Senior Hi-Ys presented a whirl-pool shower to the high school. Junior Hi-Ys conducted a clean-up campaign, peanut peddling, license plate dealing, and binding of construction bricks for West Shore YMCA buildings to be. Senior Hi-Y and Senior Y-Teens co-operatively transported and baby-sat for voting Mamans.

Senior highers attest to popular Junior Y-Teen bake sales. A Thanksgiving project of the Junior Y-Teens was the sending of two turkeys to an orphanage. Senior Y-Teens contributed to the YWCA World Service Fund. Traditional events were the Mother-Daughter Tea, the Father-Daughter Pie Feed, and the Induction Service. The annual formal of each senior group highlighted a year of work and fun.

1. Jim Irwin as a trained servant.
2. The Snowball was traditionally begun with coke-tails at Irwin's.
3. A toast.
4. Circle Group, the juniors in Y-Teens who are doing additional service work.

'54 ACCLAIM

Marge Eickelberg won first place in the Lakewood Rotary Speech Contest in her junior year, 1953. She also represented Bay High in 1954. She is here receiving the trophy which was accompanied by a two-hundred-dollar scholarship toward the college of her choice.

Bay's cheerleaders rated a first place tie with Berea in the Class A cheerleading contest sponsored by The Berea News. The captains of both teams of cheerleaders are receiving the trophy.

Otto Graham of the Cleveland Browns donated a trophy to be given to the most outstanding Bay football player. Terry Michael was the first recipient. Jerry McDermott was awarded the trophy donated by Mr. and Mrs. Avellone of Avellone Pharmacy. It is awarded on the basis of high scholastic standing of a football player.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Gay Day (gym): In march mariner blue, sunbeam yellow, and crumpled white anticipators. One day female athletes would square dance and the next, they were crab walking through a soccer game. Dextrous beauties flattened tummies, smashed hips, cinched waists—calisthenics. The locker room floor got mopped by the dragging of unsuspecting victims into the showers.

All the girls participated in some close and fast moving basketball games. Everyone became a pro in volleyball. Captains plotted strategy, pepped up the teams, and set up plays. One vivacious gym instructor joined damsels in the games. Direction changing vitalized in any sport.

The Bay High girls are notorious for their ability to take showers without getting wet. Soap . . . useless. Towels . . . sparkling clean. Girls . . . unshowered. The fog in the locker room wasn't fog at all, but talcum powder!

The wheel chair business hit an all time high the day after the girls' track season opened. Who would have thought that the standing broad jump could cripple for life? After nine periods of instruction that first day, Mrs. Anderson's devoted athletic stars almost had to send flowers. Suzie Marshall, broad jump queen, earned her glory by leaping seven feet, ten inches.

For a few days this year, the girls' sprightly instructor taught them the "Highland Fling." Now, at the sound of a bag-pipe, all the Bay High females start flinging.

Farcial skill tests — dribbling around 'ball bases, rebounding basketballs against concrete, basket stylists.

Sophs whiled away gym periods comparing cheering form.

The athletic program, greatly expanded and well managed, has been something for each girl to anticipate during an otherwise tedious day. This was accomplished by the students' pal, Mrs. A.

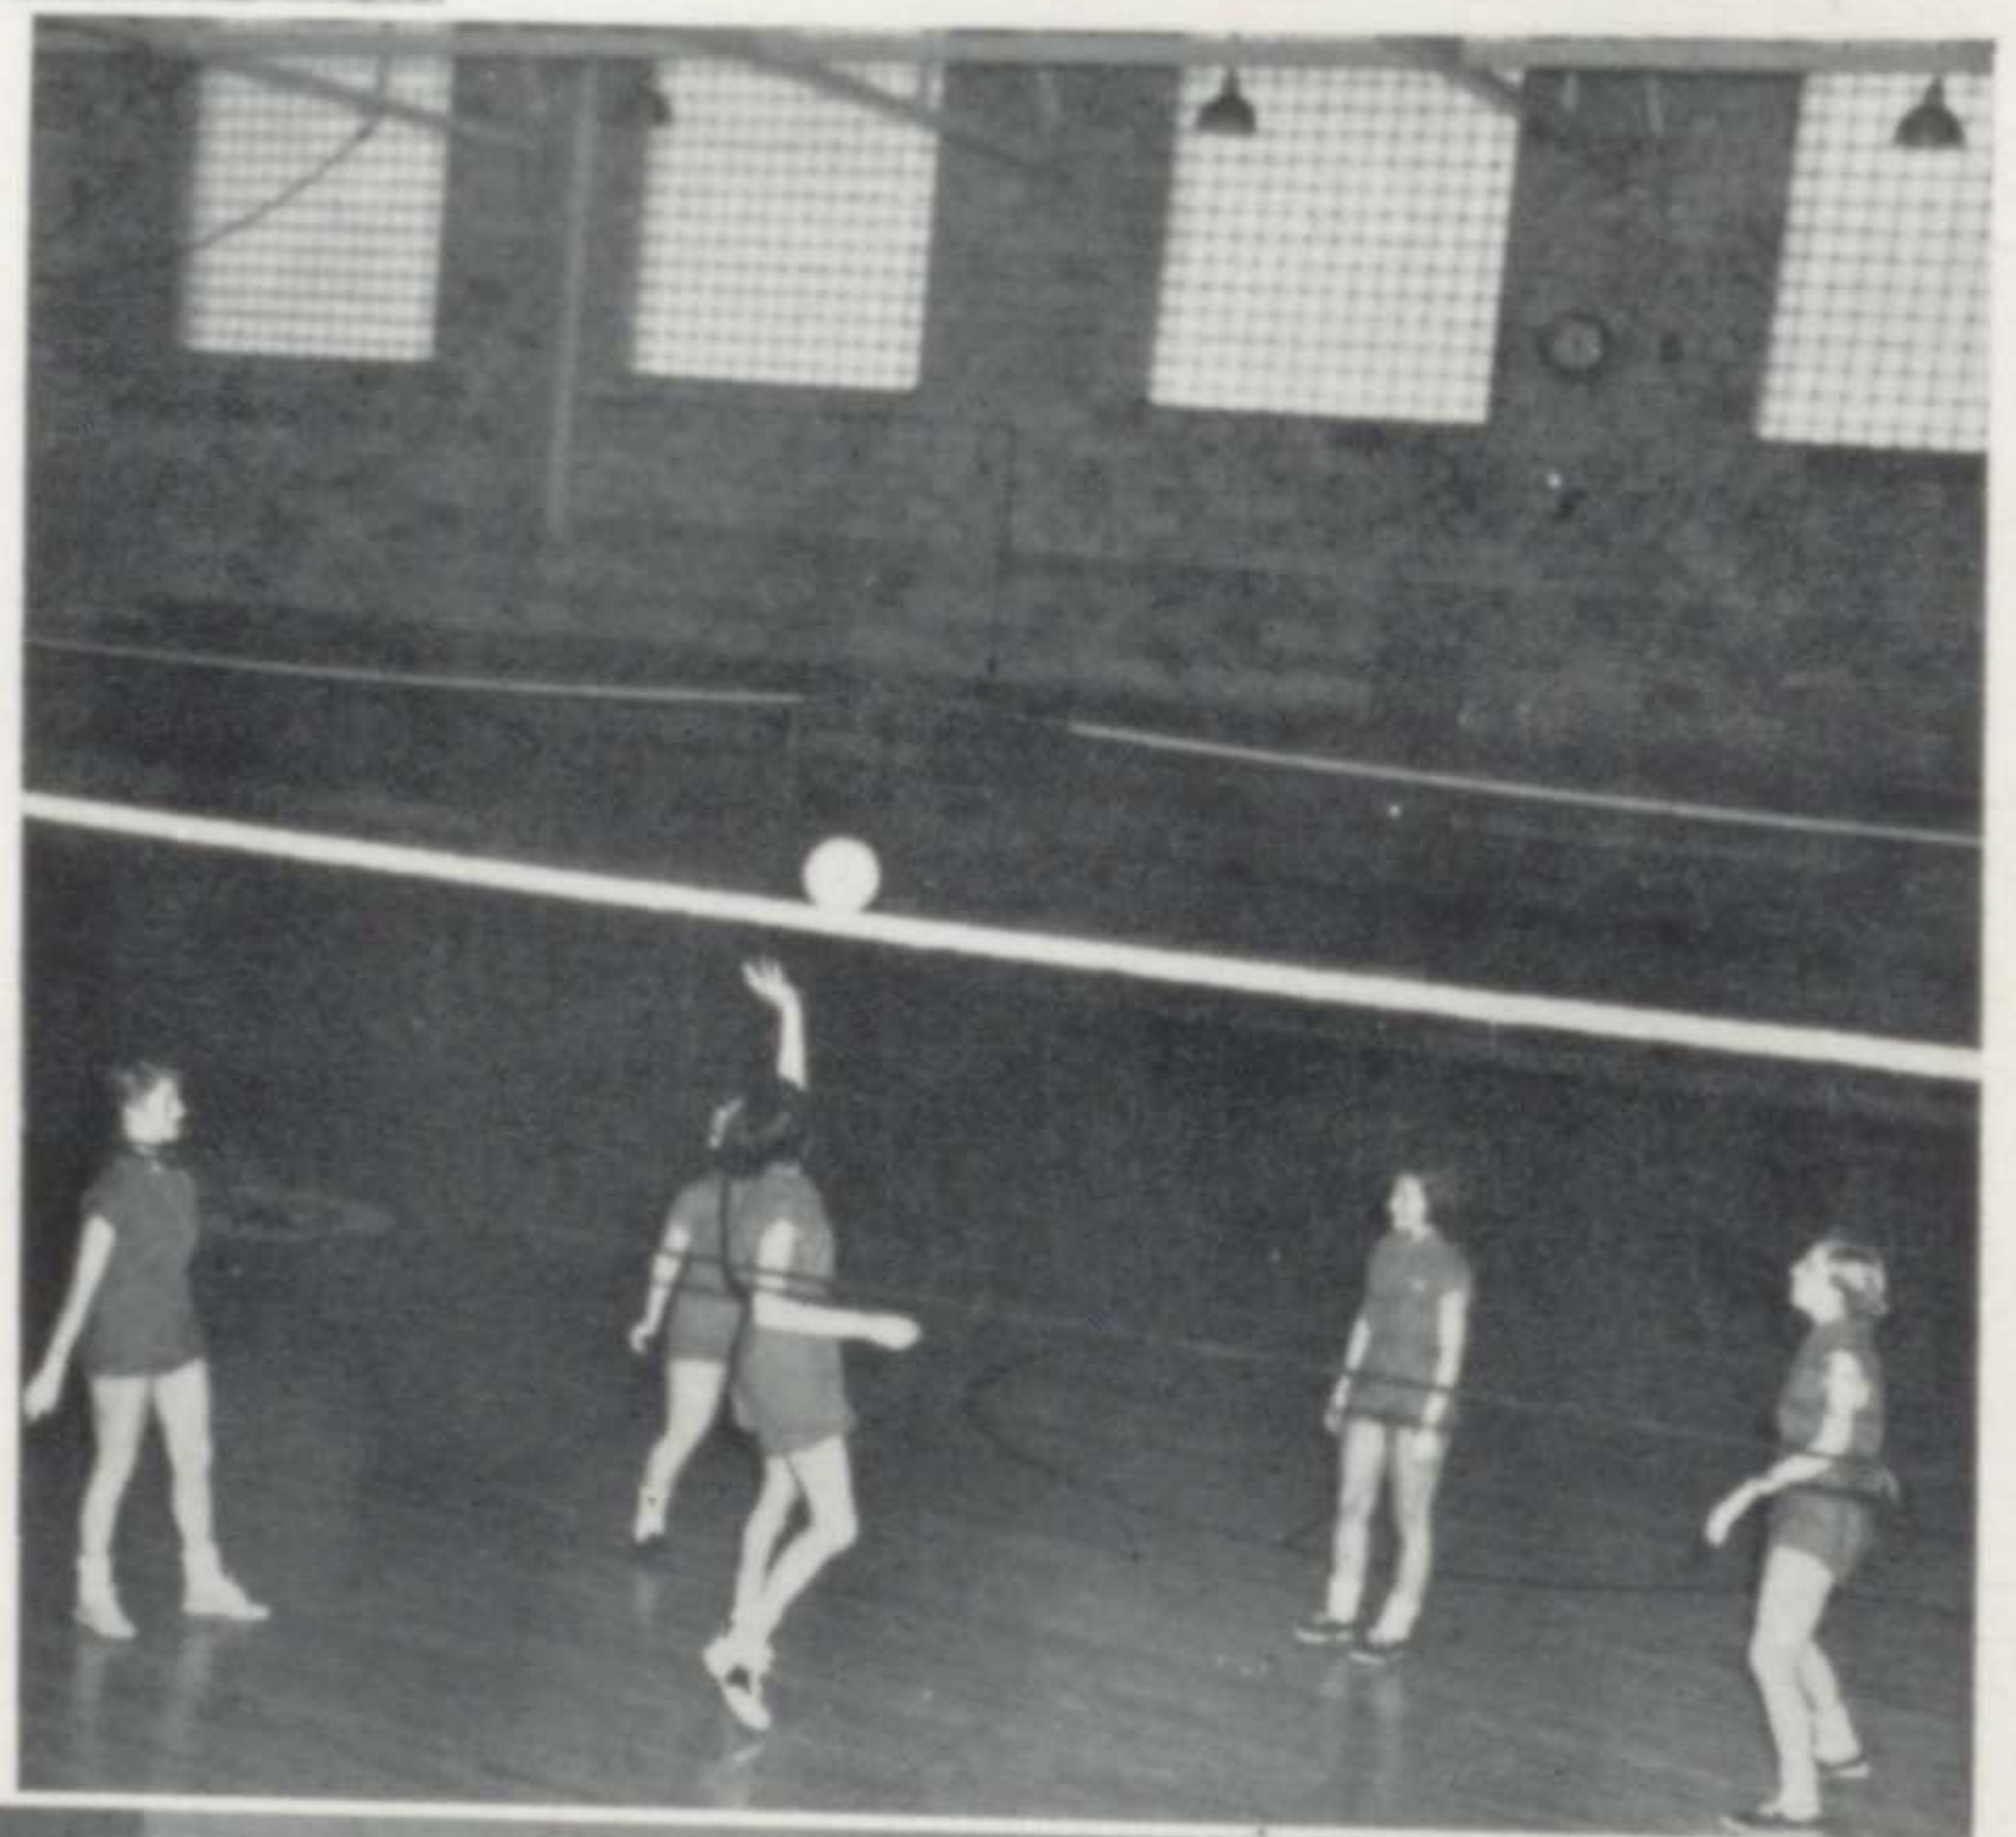

Senior girls at crab soccer with Nancy Bell officiating. The rule is to keep the posterior off the floor. The goals are the same as regular soccer.

Nancy Chamberlain, little but mighty, is about to slug for a "homer."

The sophs are participating in the volleyball season.

The seventh grade girls have a great time with coordination exercises.

"I dub thee knights of the gridiron."

The senior class nominated, students elected homecoming queen Carol Kowatch, and king, Terry Michael.

The pair reigned at the Westlake game after the ceremonious crowning and traditional bonfire.

Other candidates, the attendants, were Ruth Gillespie, Bettejane Wark, Tom Krukemeyer, and Jack Lundin.

... HOMECOMING

The traditional pyre was built twice, for the rivalry between Westlake and Bay caused sparks to fly the night before the official lighting. It turned out to be a conflagration of VICTORY.

THE 1953 SEASON

The Rockets had a very good season marking a record of five wins, two losses, and two ties. The team's league record was an excellent five wins with only one loss as the team marched to its first West County League championship since 1948. Although the championship was shared with North Olmsted, who had an identical five and one record, the Rockets won a decisive victory over them in the only game between the two teams.

The team finally broke the Westlake jinx with a 19-6 triumph. Last year a good Westlake team beat Bay to win the championship themselves. The Rockets encountered no trouble this year, however, as they clinched a share of the league crown.

Thus Bay ends its final season in the West County League with a championship.

AND BAY WINS FOR CO-CHAMPIONSHIP

FOOTBALL

September 18, 1953—Rocky River

Bay opened the season against Rocky River as the Pirates celebrated River's Golden Jubilee. The Rockets, although starting a green team, held the Pirates to a 21-21 tie.

September 25, 1953—Strongsville

After tying Rocky River, the Rockets journeyed to Strongsville for the first league game of the season. Strongsville boasted a powerful team. At the half, the game was a scoreless deadlock. In the third quarter, Stan Feeley scored for the Rockets, making the score 6-0. Feeley added another touchdown, and the game ended with the Rockets ahead, 12-0.

October 2, 1953—North Royalton

Bay played host to North Royalton in the first home game of the season. With the whole team coordinating in clock work football, the Rockets mopped up the Royalton team, 31-0.

October 9, 1953—Olmsted Falls

Bay's championship hopes were given a jar when Bay traveled to Olmsted Falls. The Rockets failed to score and the Bulldogs walked off the field with a 14-0 victory.

October 16, 1953—Clearview

At a non-league game at Clearview, the Rockets tied Clearview, 13-13. Feeley and Jacobson scored for Bay. Clearview gave the Rockets an example of the type of ball expected of Bay in the 1954 league.

October 23, 1953—Brooklyn

The Rockets invaded Brooklyn, the last away game of the season. Redinger, McDermott, Sherman, and Bruscano broke into the scoring column as Bay piled up its highest point total of the season, and dampened the Hurricane's king and queen ceremony by walking away with a 33-13 win.

October 30, 1953—North Olmsted

Bay opened their crucial three-game home stand against undefeated North Olmsted. It was Dad's Night. The Rockets played inspired ball. They controlled the football throughout most of the game. Reed, Feeley, and Jacobson scored. After the final gun, the Rockets were leading 21-7. The co-championship was in view, if the Rockets could whip Westlake the following week.

November 6, 1953—Westlake

A determined Westlake team crossed the tracks with one goal, to defeat Bay. The Demons were tough, but the Rockets won the game by 19-6. The Rockets became league co-champs. Redinger, Feeley, and Reed scored the points. Tom Krukemeyer and Jim Redinger won the Spang Trophy, since Westlake's team chose them as the top men on the winning side.

November 13, 1953—Fairview

The undefeated, untied Warriors socked the Rockets, 14-0, in Bay's final, non-league game of the season. Both scores came in the second quarter. The Rockets prided themselves in a well fought game, against a team that was champion in its league.

Better sports programs — the Athletic Council's step. High school athletic teams and activities are sponsored by the Athletic Council. ## THE 1953-54 SEASON

This was a lean year for Bay High basketball. The team started the season well by winning three of the first four games, and they also finished in good style; however, a losing streak at mid-season wrecked all chances of a winning record. The team's regular season record was four wins and thirteen losses.

Then came the tournament. Bay competed as a class A school. Coach Quayle drew a first round bye so that the team automatically went into the second round where they met Medina. The Rockets pulled out a victory by one point in this one to advance into the third round where they ran into Lakewood, champions of the Lake Erie League. It is enough to say that Lakewood had too much class and won by a sizable margin.

Coach's morale was never let down!

Bay Nips Lutheran

Coming from behind late in the fourth quarter, the varsity Rockets annexed the opener against Lutheran, 67-65. Jim Redinger and Bob Reed, Bay's two returning lettermen, led the individual scoring with twenty and eighteen points respectively.

Another Close One

In their first league game, the Bay team held a slim lead throughout, were ahead at the end, 54-52. The game was played on Strongsville's court. Wally Zverina led all scorers with his twenty-one points. The Rockets' Howe Stidger followed with eighteen.

Fairview Tops Varsity

Jim Redinger's eighteen points was Bay's only bright spot. The Rockets were toppled by Fairview in a non-league game, 95-65, on Fairview's floor. Bob Spizak scored twenty-four points of the Warrior's attack. Dave Hinz followed Redinger with fourteen.

Rockets Trip Brooklyn

Pulling away toward the end, the Bay varsity took, with some difficulty, its second league game—defeated Brooklyn 45-40. It was the Rockets' first home game.

North Royalton Wins

Bob Ayars' twenty-three points aided North Royalton in handing Bay its number one home defeat and league loss, 65-62. Howe Stidger and Jim Redinger looped fourteen and thirteen apiece for the Bay team.

Alumni Game

Coming back after a poor start, the Bay varsity outscored the alumni 34-32 at half-time. 61-57 marked a Bay varsity defeat. Tom Kissell, Jack Keever, and Larry Schwing each had twelve for the winners—Dex Jacobson tallied nine for the '54 squad.

North Olmsted Wins

Losing their scoring punch after the half, the Rocket varsity was beaten 61-43 on the winner's court. The two-quarter score was 25-24. Bob Reed was high for Bay, fourteen points. Dick Pangrac collected fifteen for the Eagles. It was Bay's second league defeat.

Olmsted Falls Triumphs

Ron Oaklief hit twenty points. The Bulldogs of Olmsted Falls held the lead throughout, and took their fifth league game 63-44, on Bay's floor. Howe Stidger accounted sixteen for the losers—Dave Hinz, eleven.

Westlake vs. Bay

Rallying after a poor first quarter, the Bay varsity outscored home team Westlake 19-11, in the second frame. Bay's defeat was served in the last half, 66-50. The Demons were led by Jim Gumbel, who had twenty-three points, while Bob Reed paced the Rockets with sixteen.

Strongsville Nips Rockets

Losing three starters via fouls, the Bay varsity, unable to hold on in the final minutes, trailed at the end 50-49. Wally Zverina again led both teams with nineteen points. Bay headed for the second round of league play.

River Raps Rockets

Superior rebounding gave Rocky River the win and Bay the loss as the Rockets met their arch-rivals in a non-league game on Bay's court. Chick Robinson had fifteen points for the winners. The final score, 63-42, marked River's tenth straight victory.

Brooklyn Defeats Bay

Leading all the way, an aroused Brooklyn team avenged an earlier defeat by the Rockets, finishing strongly, winning 65-45. Ross Hadick led both teams, collecting twenty-nine points, while Dave Hinz hit for twelve, leading the visiting Bay team.

North Royalton Wins Again

Moving ahead after the half, North Royalton, led by Bob Ayars, went on to defeat the Rockets 71-51 on the winner's court. Howe Stidger, Bob Reed, and Dave Hinz led in the scoring column for Bay.

HOWE STIDGER

North Olmsted Spanks Rockets

Leading from the start, a strong North Olmsted five displayed fine shooting ability, were ahead 81-59 when the game ended. Jim Redinger was high man for the home team with eighteen.

Lorain St. Mary's Triumphs

At the end of three quarters the score was 38-36 in favor of the winners. Unable to hold on to a half-time lead, the Rocket varsity had fallen behind in the last two frames, the final score, 58-47. Dave Hinz, Jim Redinger, and Howe Stidger accounted for thirty-nine of the Rockets' points.

Too Close

In the heartbreaker of the year, John Burchard, of Olmsted Falls, scored a bucket in the closing seconds. Leading most of the way, the Rocket five had given the victors their toughest league competition of the year. The final score 48-47 attested to the closeness of the game.

Bay Jolts Westlake

Snapping suddenly out of their losing streak, the Bay team avenged an earlier defeat by the Demons; the final score read 50-41. Jim Redinger and Dave Hinz led the scorer's ranks.

Lakewood Defeats Bay

Led by high scoring Bin Barta, who collected fifteen points, the top-seeded Lakewood High School team rolled over an out-classed Bay Village five, 74-44. Height meant a Ranger victory. The defeat drew a curtain on the 1953-54 basketball season, and also on Bay's class "B" teams; the school enters a new league next year.

November 27, 1953—Bay vs. Lutheran

Lutheran High was the scene of the first junior varsity game. Nervousness, due to playing the first game on a smaller-than-usual floor, could explain the loss, 46-32.

December 4, 1953—Bay vs. Strongsville

Bay j.v.s overtook Strongsville, 38-34. A few Bay players shot at the opponents' basket, amused spectators.

December 11, 1953—Bay vs. Brooklyn

Bay, demonstrating constant improvement, won the first home game, 43-32.

December 18, 1953—Bay vs. North Royalton

Bay played host to North Royalton. Bay j.v.'s took this one by the score, 67-39.

December 29, 1953—Bay vs. Alumni

For the first time in the history of Bay High the j.v. team beat the alumni, 54-45.

January 8, 1954—Bay vs. North Olmsted

The game was played in North Olmsted's new gym, complete with glass backboards. The backboards did not prove to be a handicap, as the Bay j.v.'s won, 46-43.

January 12, 1954—Bay vs. Olmsted Falls

The junior varsity squad experienced its first league loss. Olmsted Falls struck the 40-29 defeat.

January 19, 1954—Bay vs. Westlake

Small gyms seemed to be a team hazard. Westlake dealt this second league loss, 33-24.

January 22, 1954—Bay vs. Strongsville

A very fast and speedy Strongsville team was overtaken by Bay in the second half. Outcome —51-44.

January 26, 1954—Bay vs. Rocky River

Rocky River defeated the home team, which exhibited good defensive and offensive ball. This was an exhibition game, so the 45-43 loss did not harm the Bay j.v. league record.

January 29, 1954—Bay vs. Brooklyn

The Bay j.v.'s came from behind and won this one, 42-33.

February 2, 1954—Bay vs. Royalton

In the last seconds of the game Bay defeated Royalton, 26-24.

February 5, 1954—Bay vs. St. Mary's

Bay j.v.'s were defeated 47-30 in this exhibition game at St. Mary's.

February 9, 1954—Bay vs. North Olmsted

Bay defeated N.O. in a close game, suggested by the score, 33-32.

February 12, 1954—Bay vs. Olmsted Falls

Olmster's j.v.'s finally defeated the Rockets, putting Bay on the wrong side of a 47-46 decision.

February 19, 1954—Bay vs. Westlake

Bay upset Westlake, 50-45. J.v. Rockets shared the West County League Junior Varsity co-championship with Westlake.
