I spy Bay High

Within the tightly connected atmosphere of Bay High School there are many groups in which we, the students, participate. We are proud of ourselves and our school when others say "I see leadership in that Bay Captain" or "We enjoy playing against Bay because they show great sportsmanship!" But as students of such a great community, what do we SPY for our future?

LACROSSE

While taking off to help team mates, junior Zach Kerberly comments, "It was a great experience, and I got along with the team. We could have done better but all in all it was a good time."

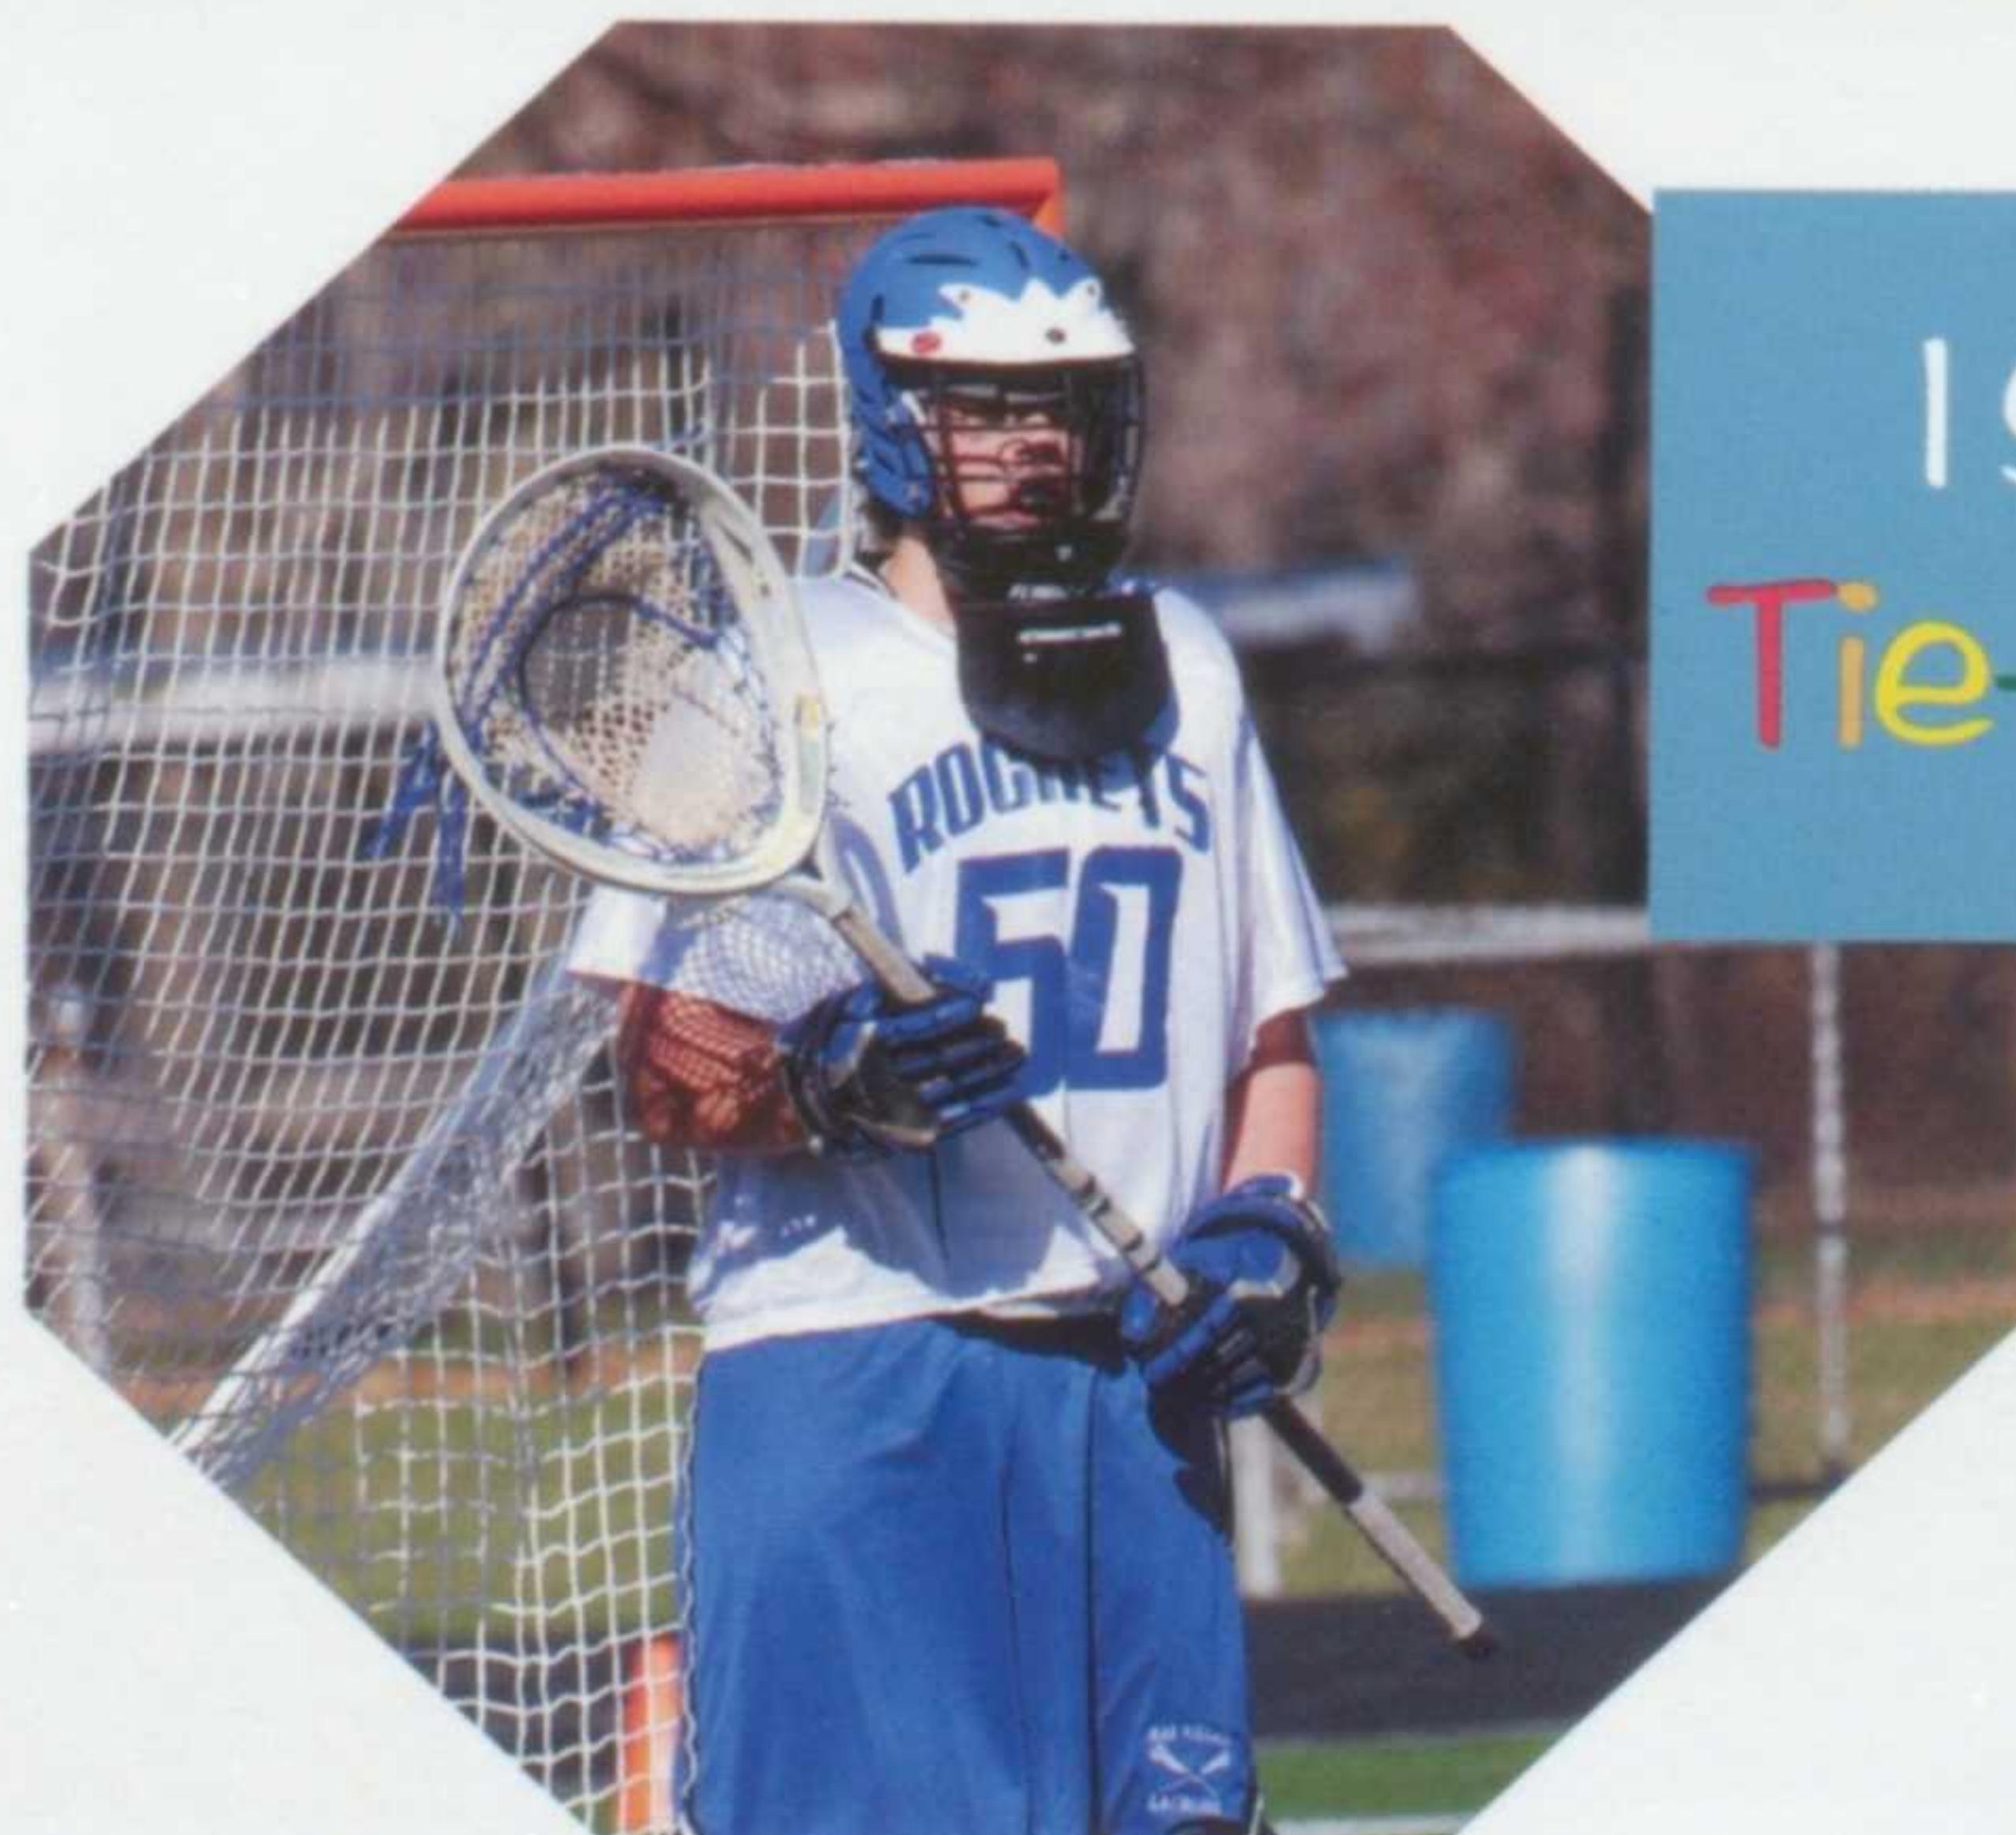

Graduate Alex Smith

Injured graduate Chris Osborne cradled more than the ball this season. "Even though I was injured, it was still an awesome experience getting to know everyone on the team and building it up so it can be a varsity team next year."

I spy Coach Cheney

Warming up before heading out is senior Brian Teristka.

Coach Gorius

One of the freshman players, Jake Johnston, expresses his thoughts on Mr. Gorius being the new coach. "I think that he was a very good coach and that he knew what he was talking about. We didn't have the best record, but we continued to improve, and I think he helped a lot with that."

Coach Gorius huddles with the JV team.

At the all-star game played on Progressive Field, awaiting to play, are graduate Matt Francotti, and Tyler Davis were the players that represented Bay High.

Catching Friendship

Working together as a team comes easy to the varsity team. "I think that because we grew up together and played the game together for so long we already knew how to play as a team."

- Matt Hellar graduate.

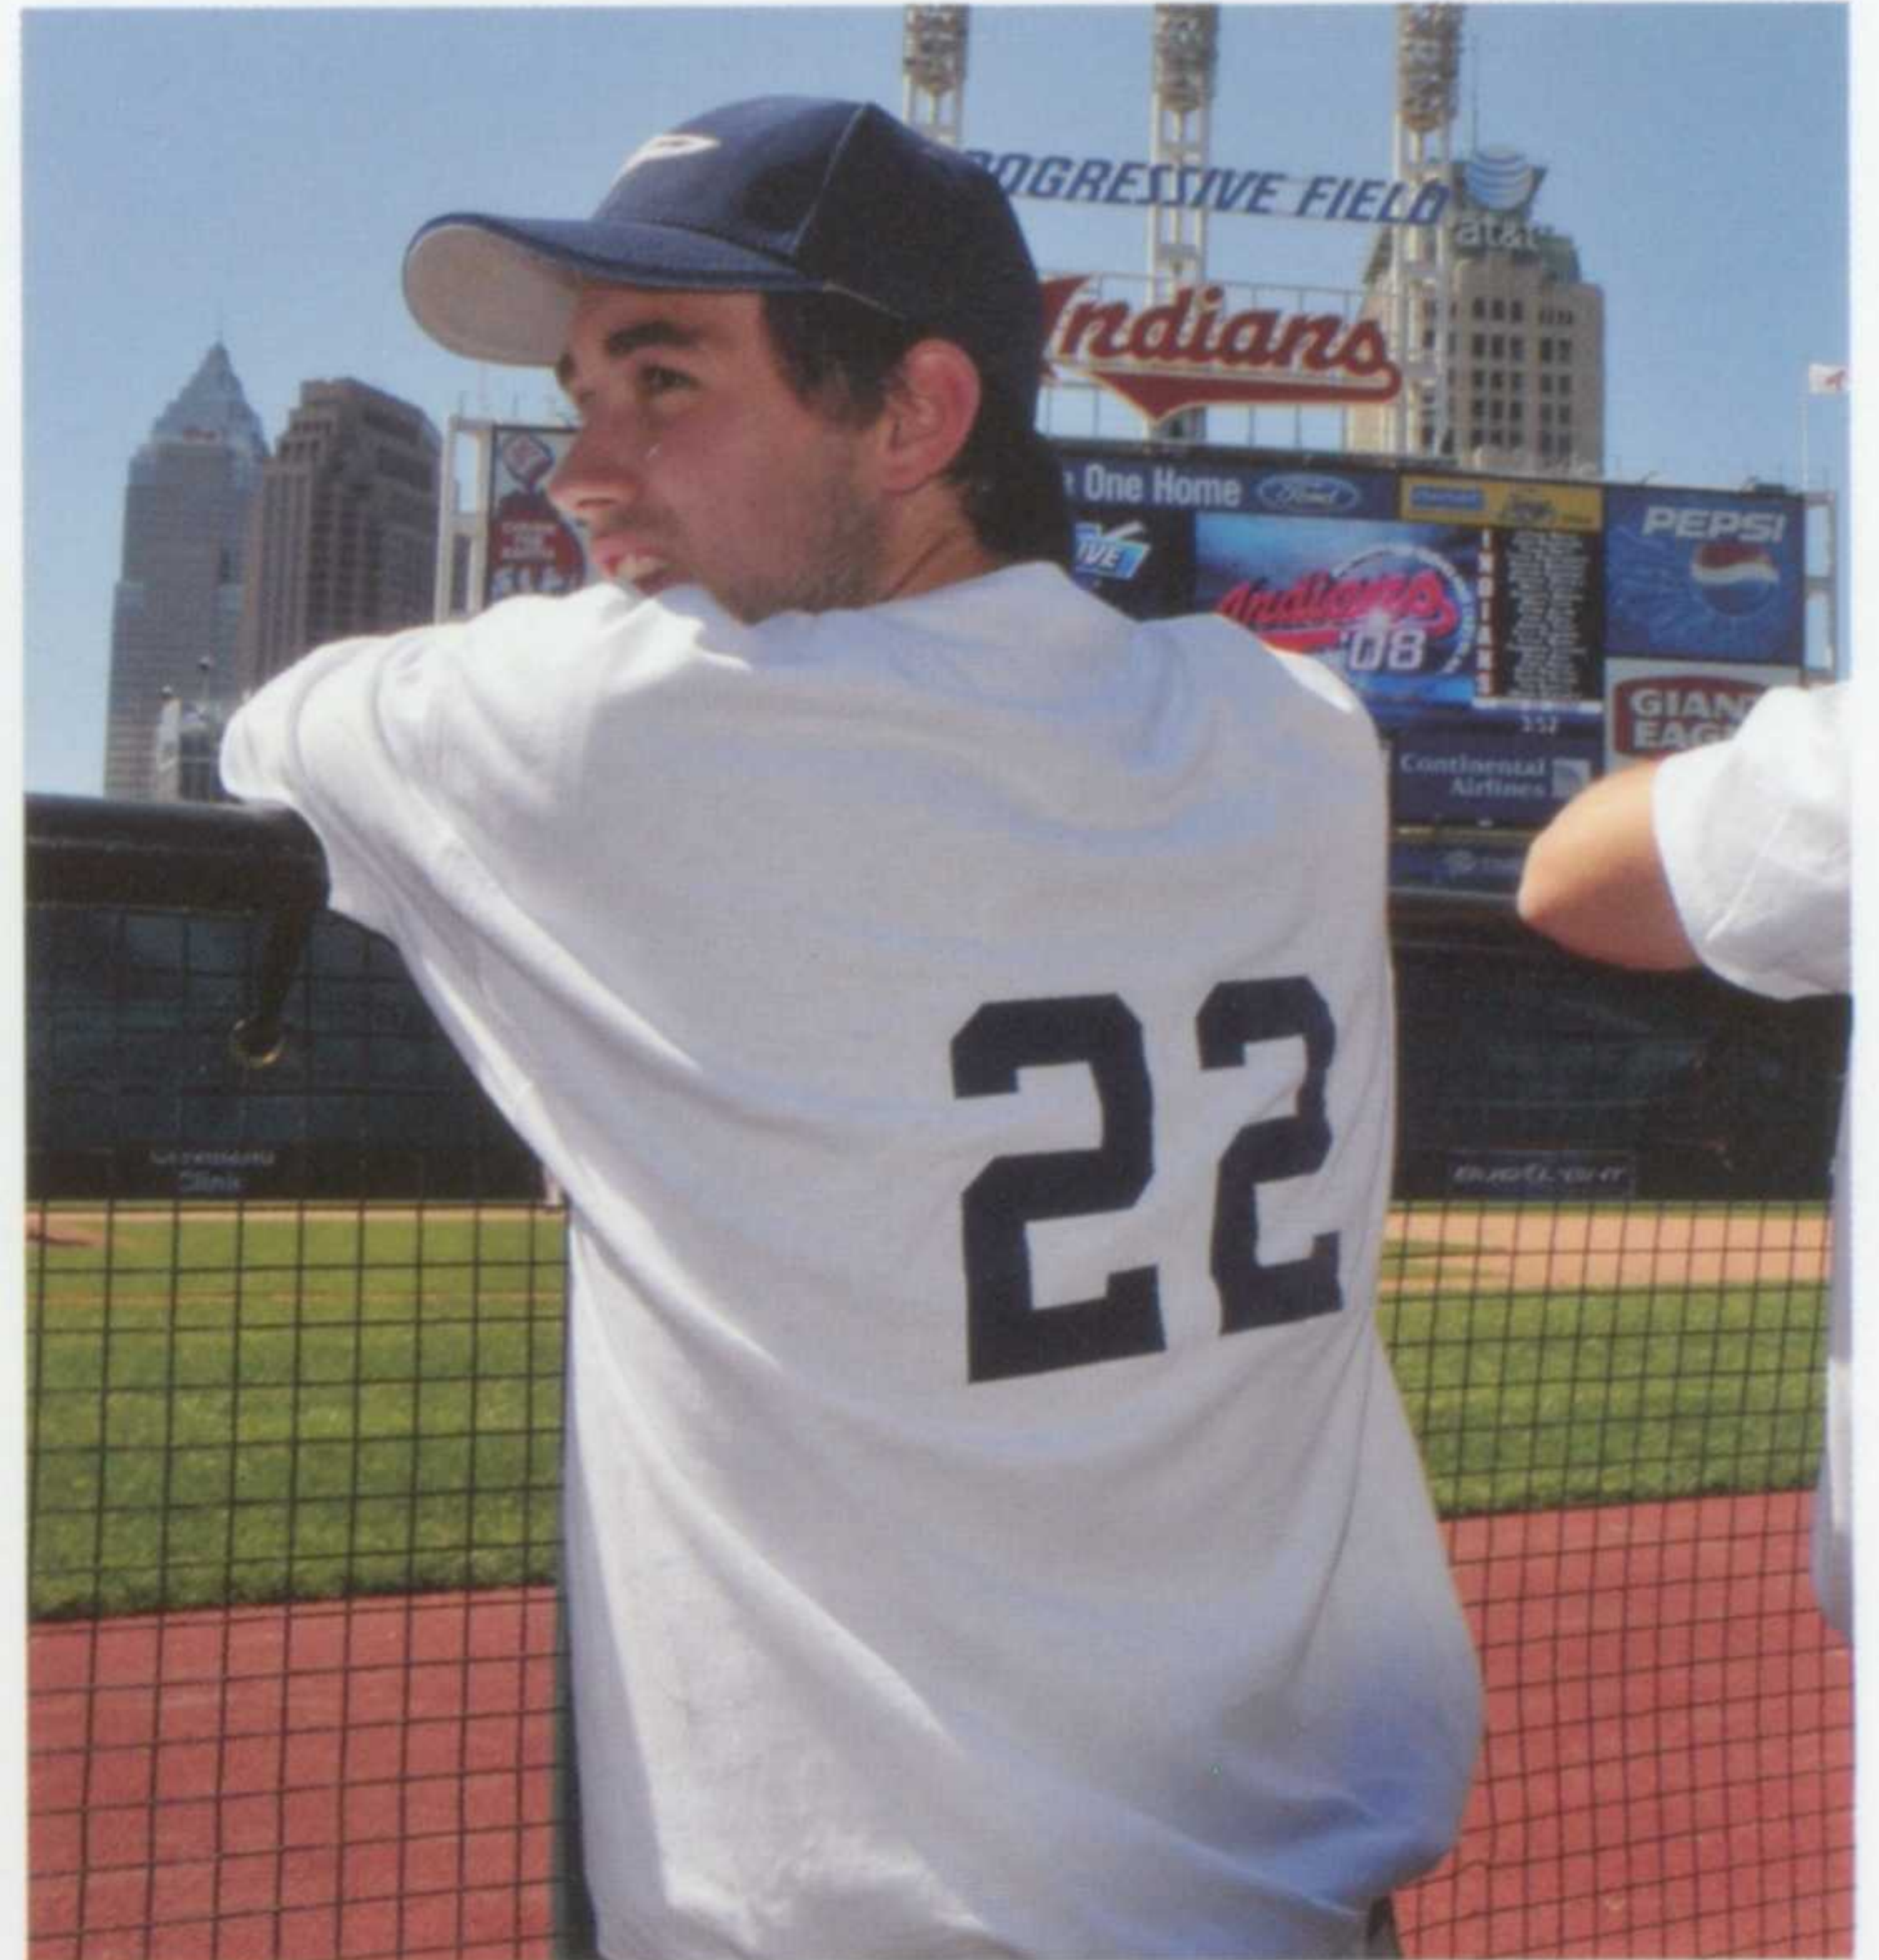

While following through with the pitch, graduate Matt Francotti talks about final seasons. "Every season the varsity record improved every year from my freshman year to my senior year, and I really enjoyed being apart of the team."

Baseball

The varsity boys huddle in and listen to coach Cheney before they get out on the field to have a great game. "We had a very successful season this year because we worked as one unit rather than individuals. Senior leadership was also key to our achievements. Everyone really wanted to win, and it showed in every game we played." - Sam Ward, II.

Staying strong, junior Samantha Kolke talks about the season. "I had a great time, and we finished this season on a strong note."

As junior Gabriela Hubbard gets an out for Bay, she states the season was not always that easy. "It was tough, but we got through with laughing a lot."

The varsity girls huddle together before the game.

Getting ready in case a ball comes her way is graduate Maggie Schwede.

Varsity girls softball players graduate Dani Sheppa, Juniors Kathryn Rouble, and Lanny Moreman laugh in the dugout before the big game.

One of Bay High softball pitchers, Sophomore Allie Wolf comments on their season: "It was an honor to work with the seniors this year and I had a great time."

Graduate Kiki Rudden talks about her senior year on the undefeated team. "My senior year went really well. I loved being able to play my last year with all the girls I played with since the sixth grade."

Graduate Dani Sheppa keeps her eye on the ball as she goes in for the hit.

Sarah Chen, 11

Long jumper junior Sarah Chen appreciates the team spirit. "I enjoyed the team bonding this year, and I felt that we were closer as a team and also more undefined."

I Spy a Track Shoe

Senior Brian Harrell executed a textbook "Fosbury flop" to clear the bar in the high jump event. "Track was really great because there was never a dull moment with all of the cool kids on the team."

Keeping it cool, senior Ricky Duffield jumps over the hurdles. "Well, only the cool kids do it, but it's great way to spend time with your friends. Most of my friends are on Track."

Evan Mutch, 12

Stamina is key in the longer distance track events. Sophomore Meghan Moaney, gives it her all as she proceeds around the track.

Ben Goldsberry

Varsity tennis player Ben Goldsberry talks about the tennis season. "Tennis, this year, was great. We built great comradery, and as a team we had a great season. I had a great time with with my partner Peter Scaniello. Peter and I won the conference for 2nd doubles. As a team we are definitely going to miss the seniors; they were great players. Hopefully this coming season can be successful with our undecided coach. Mr. Hussey and Mr. Huntley will be sorely missed. I want to thank both of them."

Almost bending over backwards for the ball is senior Trevor Kudrna. "The 2008 season went by in a flash. We had the best team Bay has seen in years, yet we came in second in the WSC to River who just got lucky and pulled amazing players out of thin air. I hope we gave Mr. Hussey a good final season, and we anticipate a great new coach for the 2009 season."

Chas Kennedy

"The season was my favorite yet. Not only because it was my senior year, but also because it was Mr. Hussey's last year coaching. I felt like the team this year played really well, and not only for ourselves but for Mr. Hussey as well."

The Musical Fiddler On The Roof

Graduate Carol Foster speaks about her character experiences. "Fiddler on the Roof really gave me the chance to get in touch with my masculine side. And I got to meet a lot of cool new people, although having to take my beard off twice a night was not an enjoyable experience."

Mr. Cahoon enters the musical while accompanying Bart Brown, Jacob Kestler, and Jordan Blankfelt. "I found the musical very enjoyable; this is my second experience with a musical, and I would say I would do it again in a heart beat." - Bart Brown

Working her magic as the matchmaker, senior Becca Frick talks about her role as Yente. "Yente was probably the most enjoyable role that I've ever played, and the entire cast was great to work with."

Performing in the role of Golde was senior Jenny Salipante. Jenny explains what made this musical so much fun to perform. "I really enjoyed working with such a talented cast, and I had a great time performing with Yente (senior Becca Frick)."

Graduate Claire Lanning and Courtney Voegele, senior, share the spotlight in singing "Matchmaker".

I spy a fiddle

Some of the stars of the musical express their thoughts of the production.

Rob Rossmen

"Being in Fiddler on the Roof is my favorite memory in high school. I really enjoyed working with the cast; they are all really talented people. I'm sad I will never get an opportunity like this again."

Jon Rikki

"I loved being apart of the musical. If I was still in high school I would do it again, and an added bonus: Mrs. Lanning was sweet"

Ben Schreiber

"I enjoyed working on it, and it was an enjoyable experience. You can just be yourself and not have to worry about fitting in."

Ben Goldsberry

"I love participating in the musical and getting to into character; it is one of my favorite things."

A fake car crash is set up and SADD members who volunteered help show the trauma that can be caused. Paramedics and firefighters also volunteer to show what they have to do in a horrible situation like this.

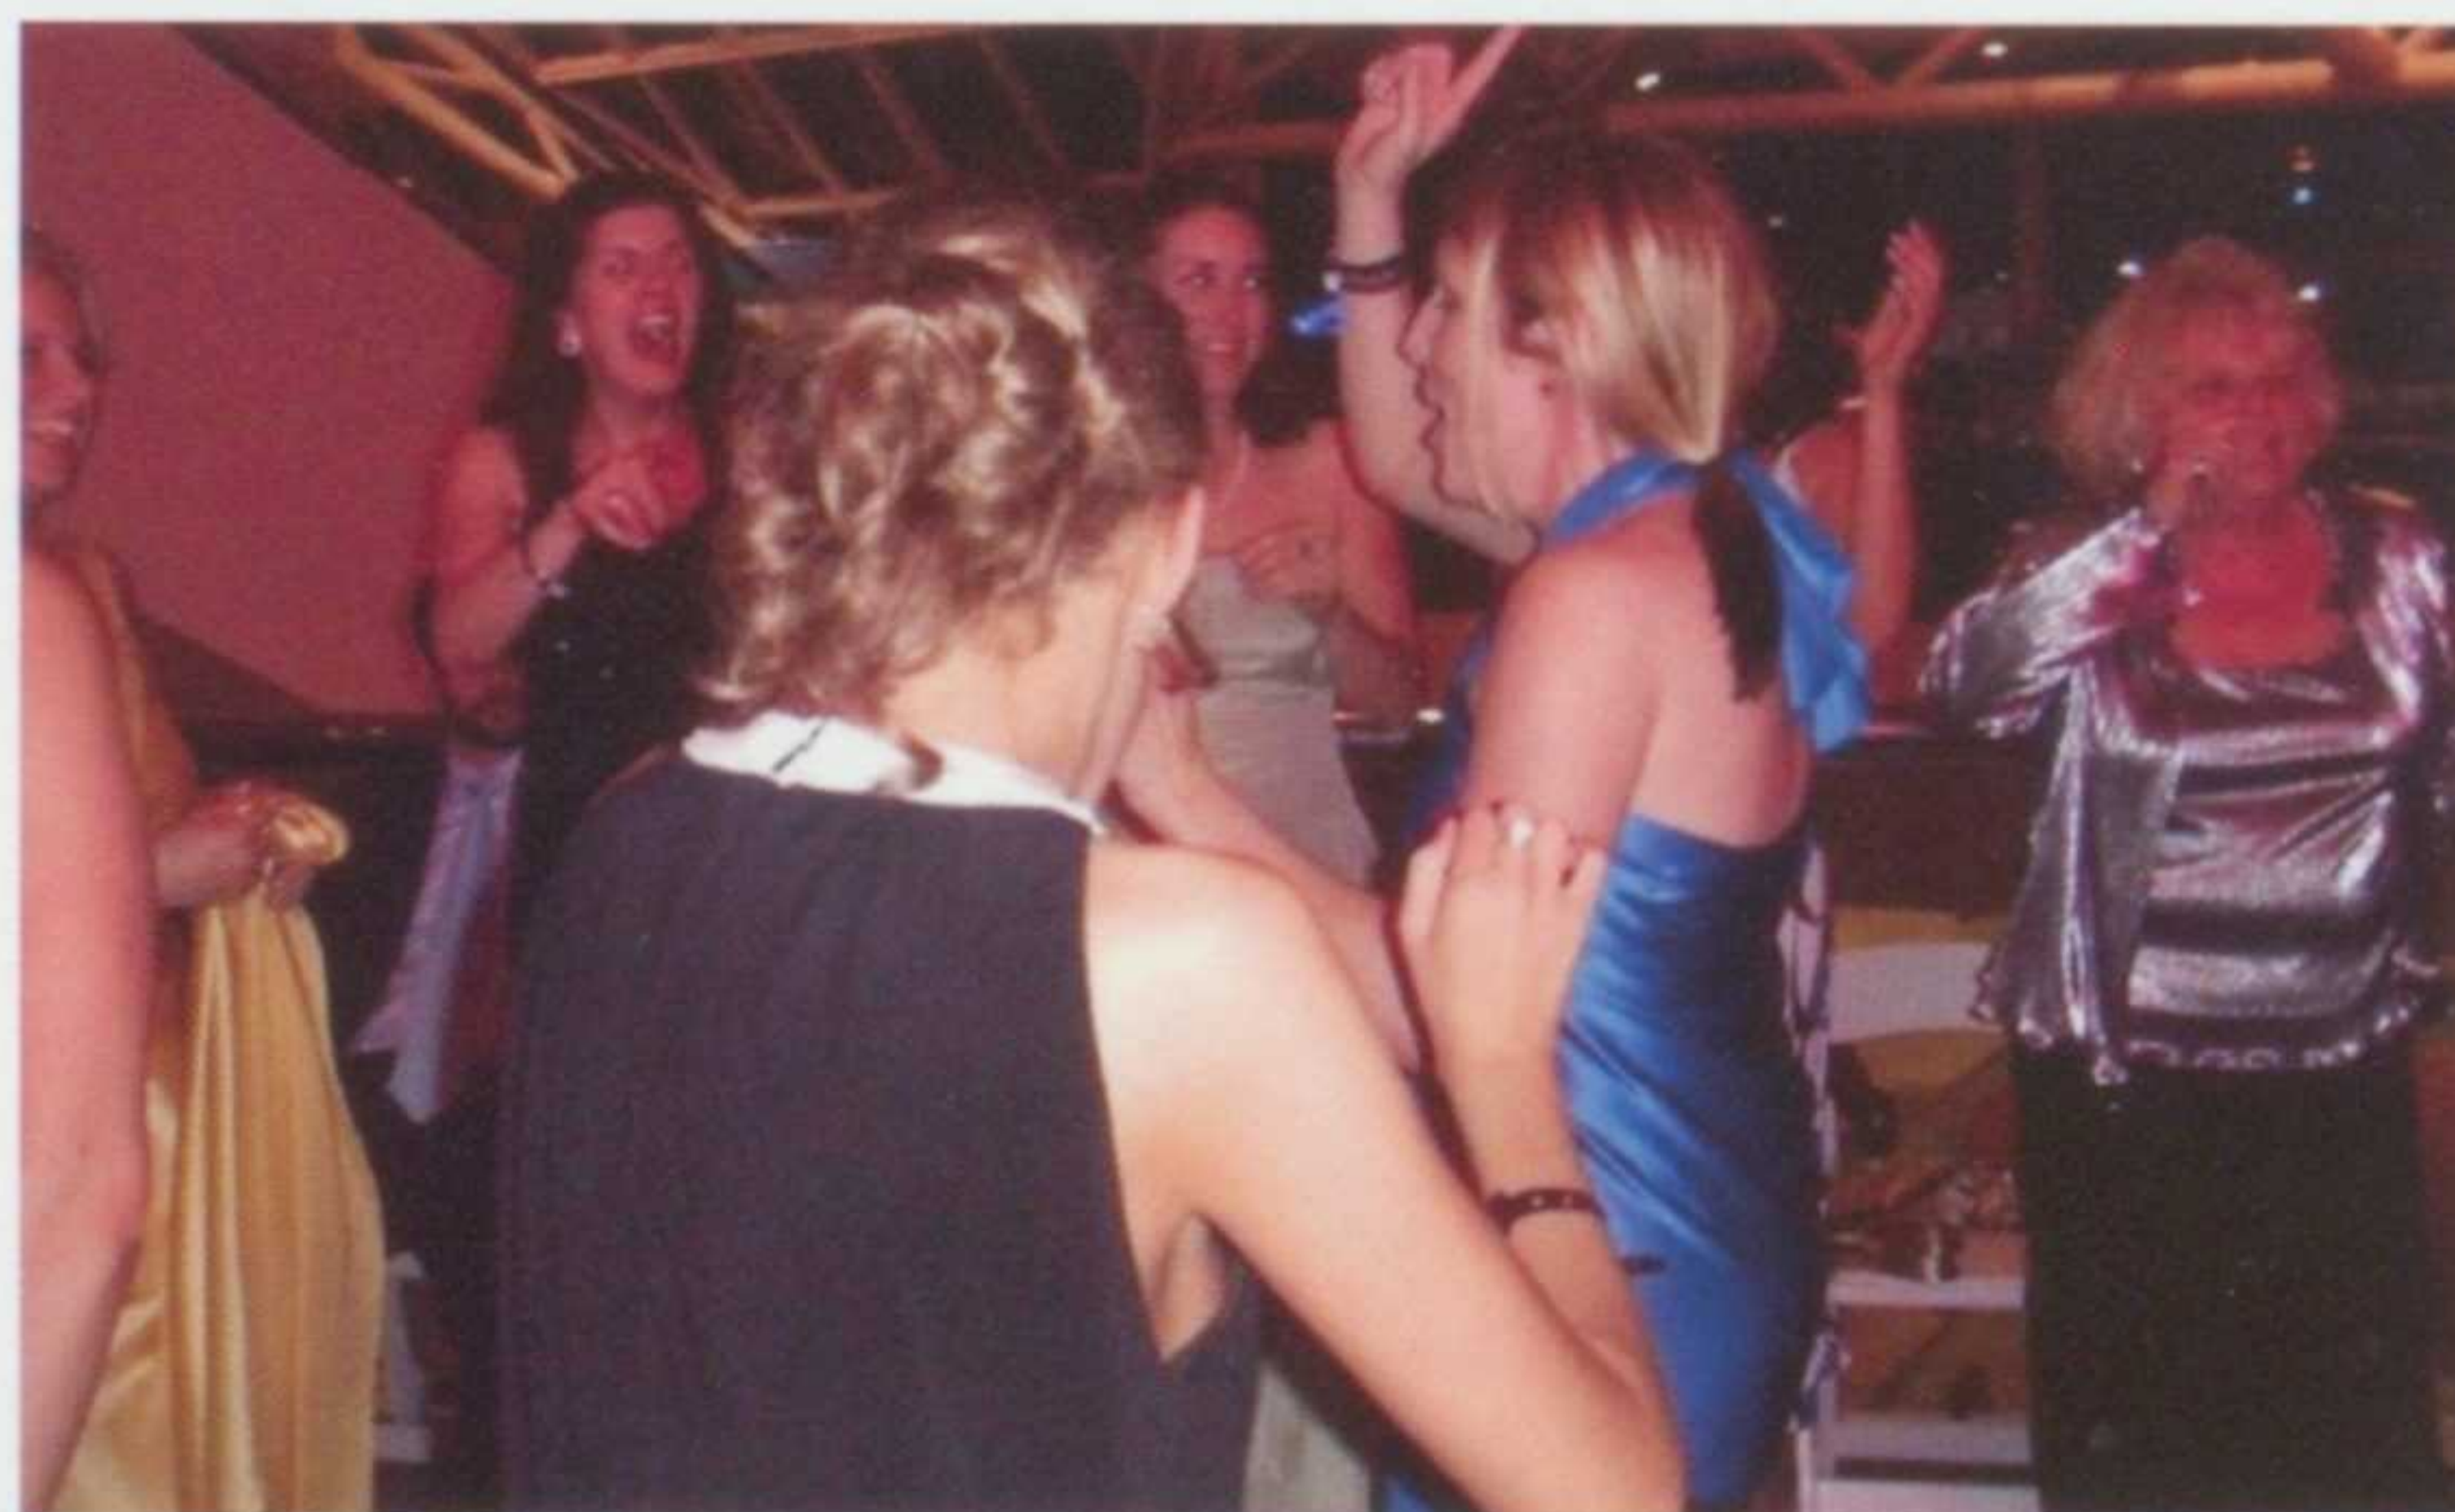

Senior Kara Kozikowski expresses her thoughts about the car crash. "It makes you think twice about do anything; it was a great demonstration, very moving."

Jesse Jensen and other SADD leaders dress up to help create the mood for the fake car crash.

Looking beautiful while waiting in line to go into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame is graduate, Ana Pavn.

"I don't think it was weird seeing the teachers dance. But it was cool seeing them let loose with the students. And the best teacher that danced was Miss Srsen because she is always so serious. We made fun of her in acting class that Monday back." -Enas Shaheen.

"I'm really happy that I took her classes because I learned a lot about computers that I didn't know before and I specially liked the music that she played in class. I love having Mrs Bender as my teacher" Kaitlin Crowley, 12.

Logging on to her computer, Senior Sarah Sartchev is ready to learn. "I love Mrs. Bender's classes! We learn so many things but in a unique way. I also love that we listen to music every day" Sarah Sartchev, 12.

Booting up his computer, senior Steve Karam gets ready to begin his next assignment "I think ICA is a very good class because it gives everyone the opportunity to learn the important information about computers and computer software. Mrs. Bender is a very good teacher who does a very good job at telling her students what they need to know in creative ways. My favorite part about her class is definitely the music selection sheet" Steve Karam, 12.

Outside Sports

Preparing to block a shot is Senior Kevin Figueria, "Having 3 awesome years on Bay high hockey team had helped me move onto the next level as not only a hockey player but a person too. I hope by playing on the Cleveland Jr. Lumber Jacks I will be able to move to college level. I owe my success to my parents; they have supported me and helped guide me to the right path. I am so glad I have stuck with this sport and love every minute of it. Although I didn't play a lot this season, I got to work with great players and did a little maturing as well".

*Kevin's game time warm up is singing in the shower, it's "relaxing"!

Jeff Nye, junior, said "I love lacrosse. It's my favorite sport. Not only do I play for the school, but I play in leagues outside of school, such as St. Ed's league and Burning Rivers. I've been playing for four years."

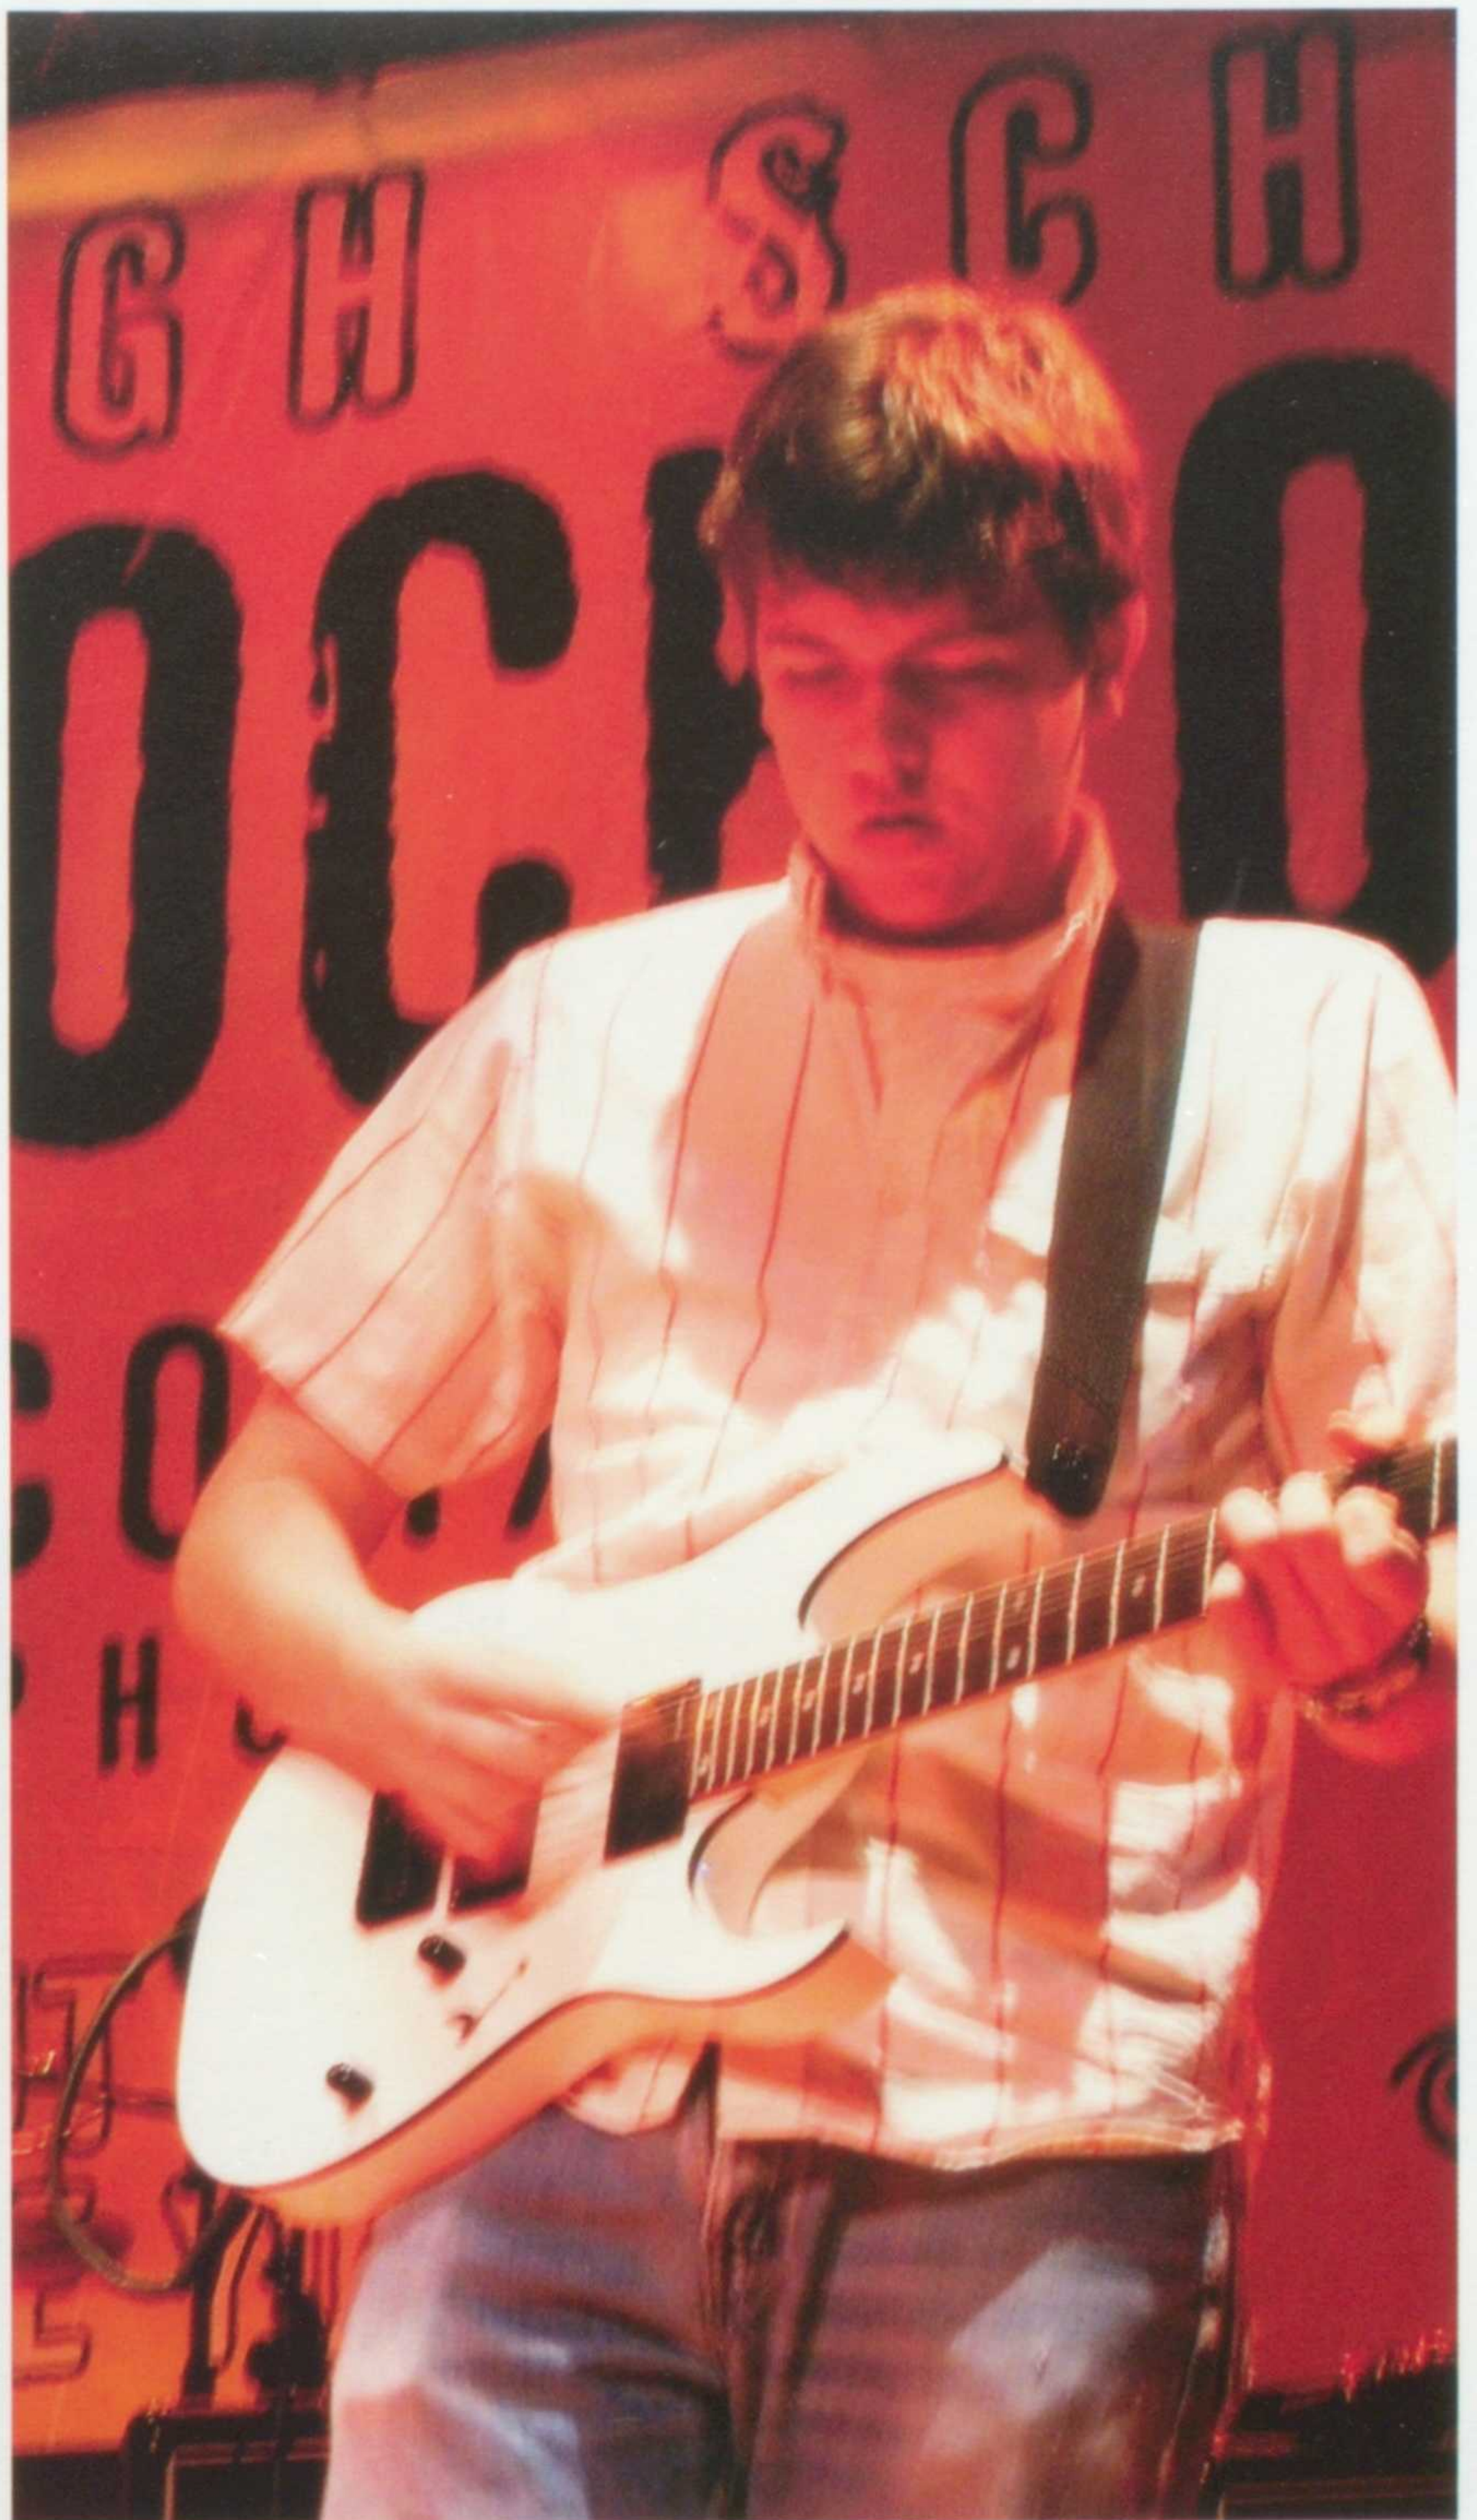

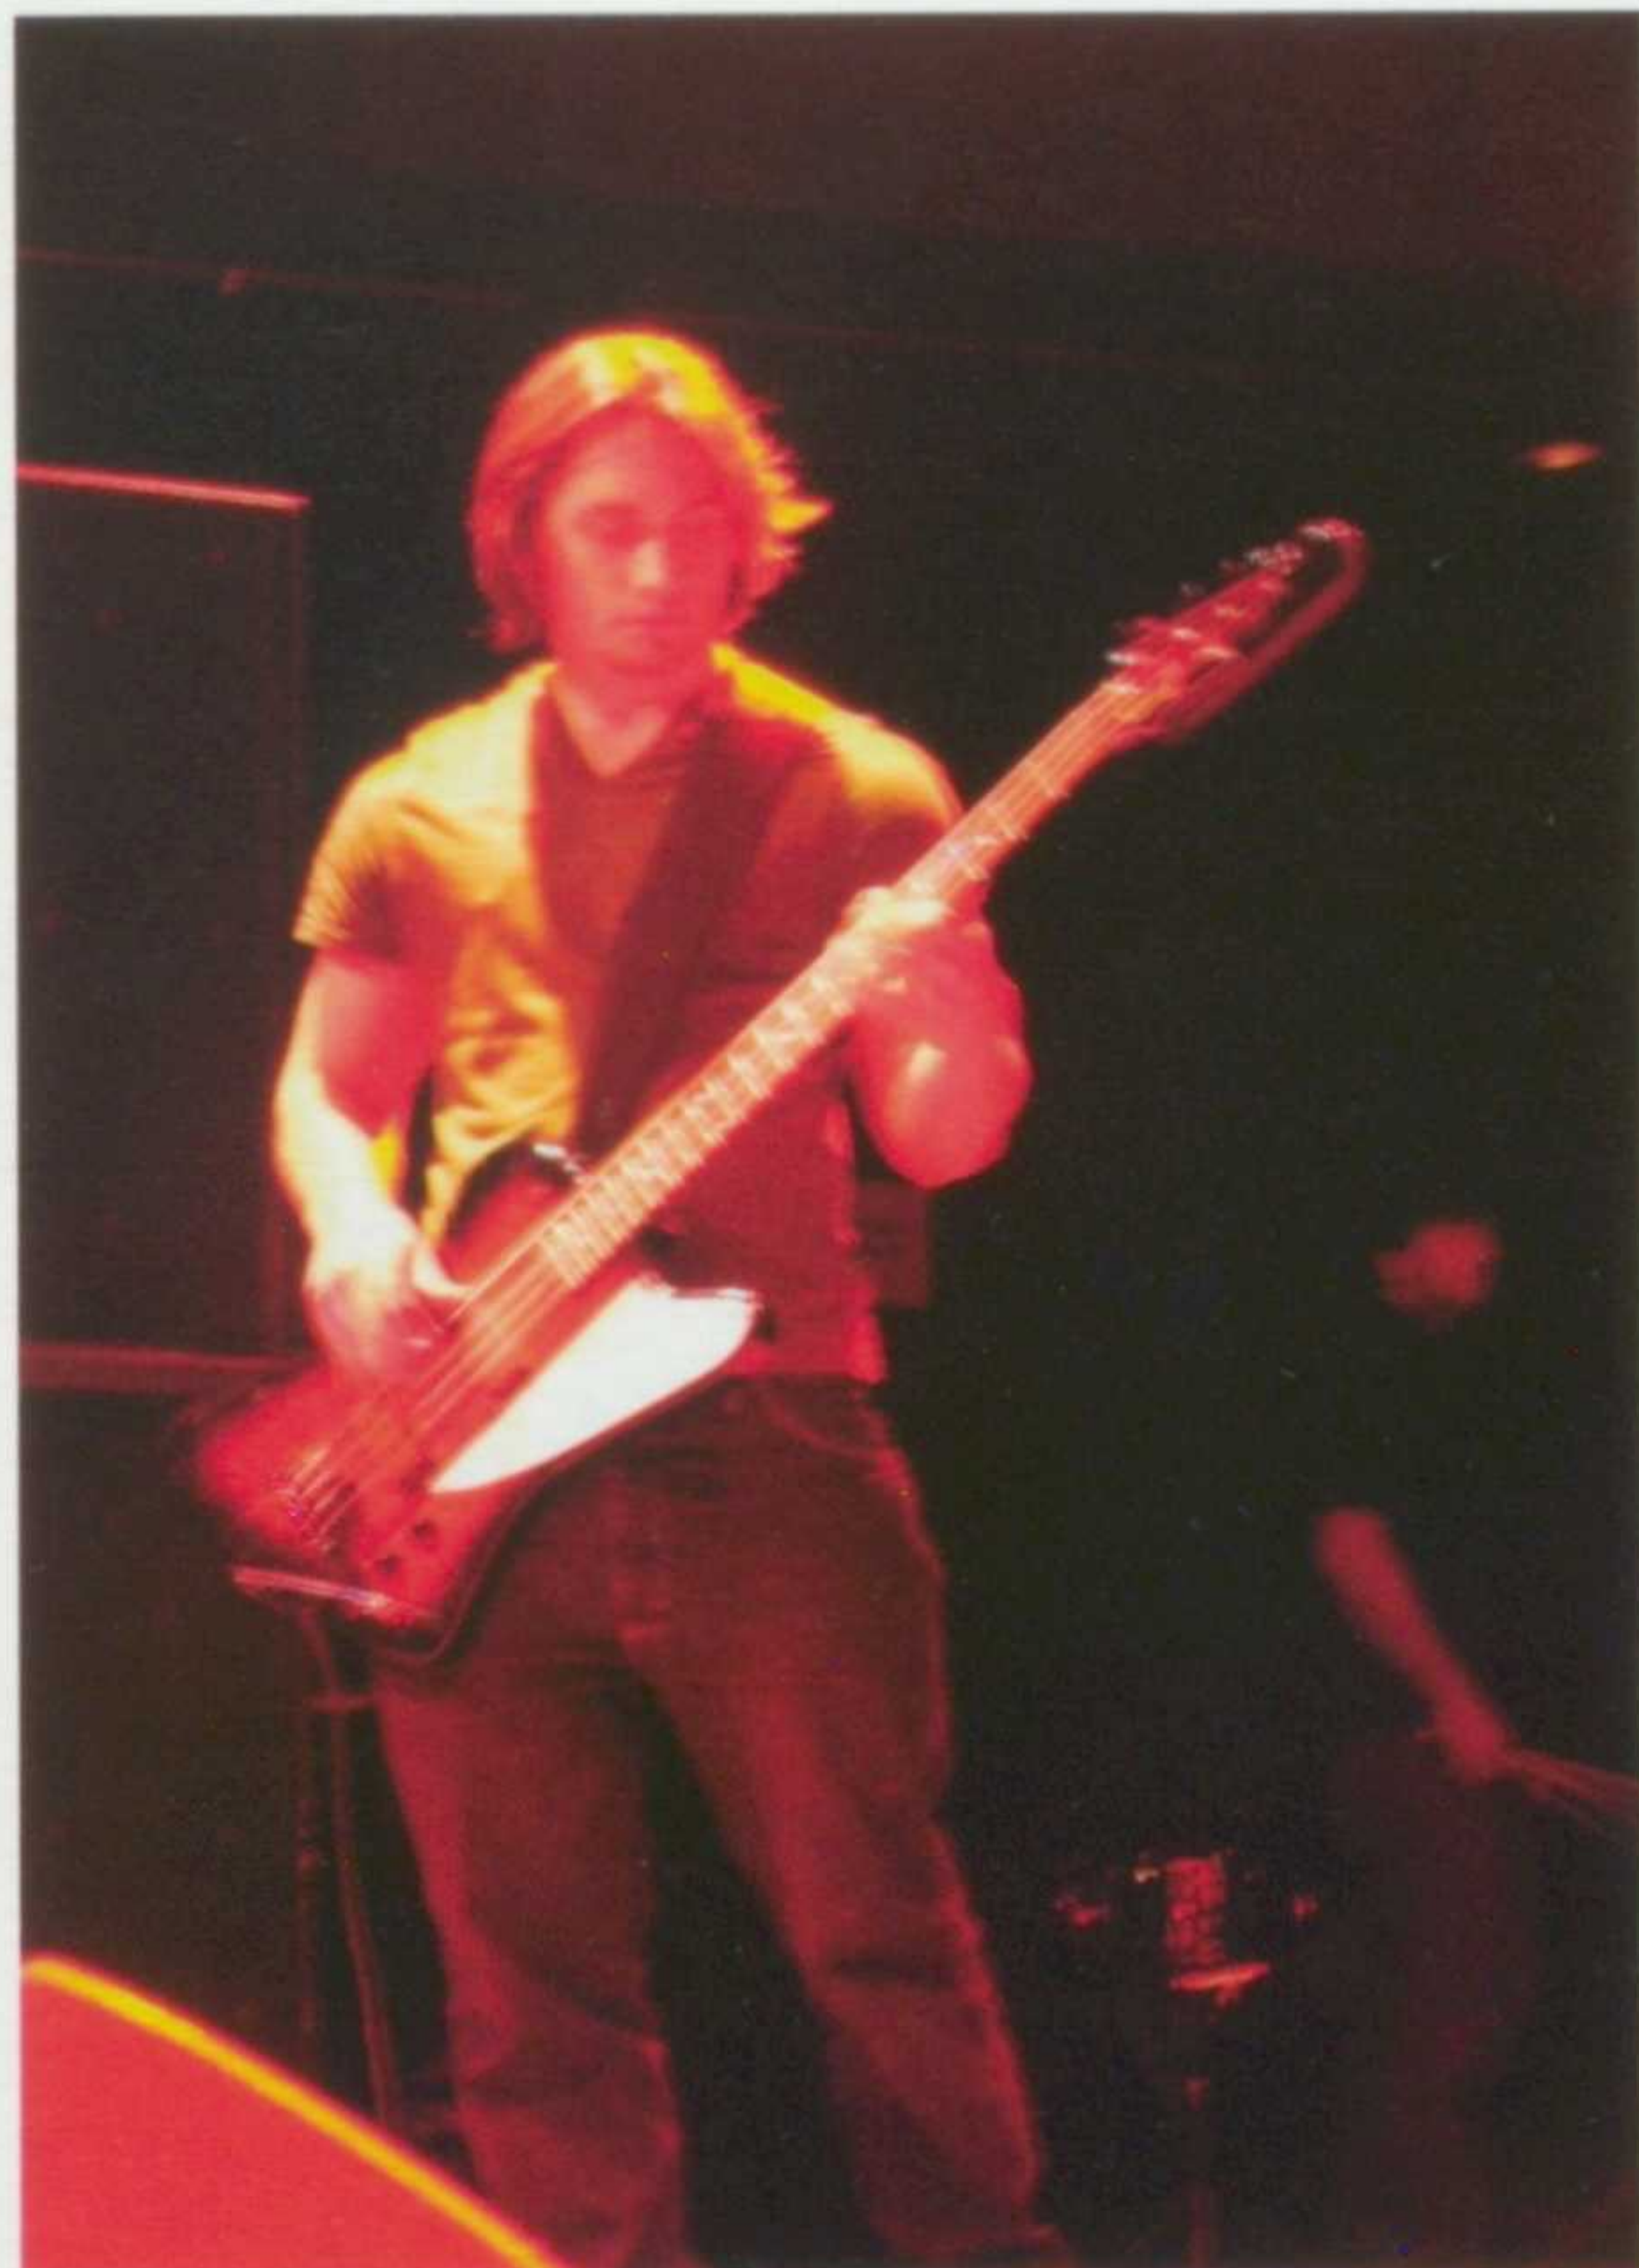

"Ultimate frisbee is a fun game to do in your spare time. I really enjoy the competition. I play almost every Sunday, even with inches of snow on the ground. Ultimate frisbee is a mix between soccer and football. I really enjoy playing it." David Perkins, sophomore.

Outside Music

Erin Stevens, junior, said "It's a different experience singing outside of school because you're with people who work really hard and try to achieve their best, but people at school sometimes are in choir just because it's an easy class. I sing with people who are really dedicated outside of school, and it's been a really good experience."

Top 10 Memories of the Seniors High School Career

1. "My favorite moment in high school is Junior year when I embarrassed myself. It happens a lot, but my favorite is when the morning announcements came on and said 'toy car 3 your lights are on.'" - Colleen Kohl.
2. "The highlight of my high school career is in senior English. Nolan Cavano told stories in Miss Ondus class and it lasted like an hour, and then finding out it was all a lie." - Kevin Figueira
3. "I loved all of high school one of my favorite memories was in Mrs. Bauknecht's class when she called me a 'wild animal'" - Nolan Cavano, 12.
4. "In honor of Miss Ross's QRP, my favorite high school moment was during QRP when Alex See thought that Miss Ross always picked on him so she said, 'yes Alex I have something against hairy white men'" - Jordan Shane 12.
5. "Sara Walborn used to drive me to school all junior year in her sexy van, and everyday I would get in it smelled like gasoline." - Anna Wolf, 12
6. "I dropped a weight on my toe and instead of telling someone, I jumped up and ran around screaming and then ran into the locker room. The only person that came to check on me was Pam Urwin and she just said, 'yeah that's broken.' So during my first week at a new school I got to leave early and get an x-ray" - Laura Banko, 12.
7. "Freshman year. I was the new kid. Me and my friends were sitting at the lunch table by the right doors of the lunch room. I got up to throw away my lunch plate and I was looking at my friends...I ran right into the pole and my lunch went all over my shirt! The table full of boys were laughing so loud" - Kerry Werblak, 12.
8. "When Alex See went full speed into that pole at Bradley Park, while trying to catch a pass" - Todd Winzig, 12.
9. "I love the fact that in our class there is really no separation or divide between us. Everyone is friendly and kind to each other". - Ben Goldsberry, 12
10. "My favorite memory is Sophomore year at Homecoming when the riot went down" - Brad Aronson, 12

No material the editors or advisors deem in poor taste will be printed.

Purchase of this book does not guarantee the purchaser's photo will appear in the book; we are not responsible for the students and staff inadvertently left out of the book.

All students and school personnel must have their portrait by Thomas & Thomas Photography to be included in the book. Senior portraits taken after November 1, 2008 may not appear in the book because of printer deadlines.

TYPE AND PHOTOGRAPHY

Fonts used in this book are Maximo for quotes, Clarence for captions and artical text, and High Goal for titles. All group shots are taken by Thomas and Thomas photograhly. The remaining candids and sports photos were done primarily by student photographers, Kathy Hitesman, and amazing parents and students who donated their personal pictures to this book.

Our advisor is Mr. Ricketts. Our photography advisor is Mrs. Hitesman. Our Jostens representative is Mr. Alex Intihar. And our plant consultant is Andrew Buhler.

Publishing and Recognition

The yearbook is a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, National Scholastic Press Association, and Great Lakes Interscholastic Press Association. Bay High has a Quill and Scroll charter. The 500 Copies of I Spy Bay High were published in State College Pennsylvania by Jostens. The paper is 100 pound Matte. The staff completed the 201-page volume in March 2009. I Spy Bay High covers from March 2008 to March 2009.

This was our second year using Jostens Yearbook Avenue online (www.yearbookavenue.com). I spy Bay High was produced by Jostens Yearbook Avenue. The staff created the book on 4 eMacs, 2 Dell desktops, the schools library computers, and the staffs' home computers

Thank you Thank you...

This year our staff was so amazing and awesome! Thank you so much to advertisment editor Grace Perkins, and to all of those who comleted spreads, this year included Jordan Shane, Morgan Kinczel, Elise Aronson, Tori Tarr, Jenna Fidler, Bernadette Marconi, Max Smith, Michael Humphrey, and Kara Kozikowski (who isn't on staff but is an amazing friend who jumped in when needed). Thanks to all the student photographers including Molly Kasparak, Lauren Briton, and Melissa Dzinney, along with all the students that we invaded facebbok for and parents you contributed. A special thanks to Mrs. Hitesman for all the pictures, we greatly appreciate it. Thank you to Mr. Kasparak and DRS photography for allowing us to use your sports photography. Thank you to Bay High staff who allowed us to stay in Pub room for as long as we needed to. Also thank you to all the secretaries for allowing us to bug you with our lists of people we needed. We owe a BIG thanks to our jostens representative, Alex Intihar for putting with us and our craziness. THANKS SO MUCH ALEX. We owe you!!! Last but not least we would like to thank our advisor Mr Ricketts. We thank you for stepping in and taking control, you did great! We know it is not easy coming in not knowing anything, so we give you a lot of credit. Thanks to anyone else not mentioned that helped create this yearbook.

Thanks to all!

ADVERTISING

All advertising accepted by the staff must follow the same editorial guidelines as the rest of the book. Acceptance of an advertisement does not constitute endorsement by the yearbook staff or any affiliate of the Bay Village City School District. Because of Liability, no encrypted, coded, or abbreviated messages will be accepted.

DEATH

Upon the death of a student or faculty member, the yearbook will acknowledge the death by runing a gray bar over the name and printing the years of birth and death with a formal portrait with request of family.
